(b) Government shall pay the contribution of the employee into the National Pensions Fund.
(4) Where an employee who is an insured person referred to in section 17(2A) of the National Pensions Act is employed by more than one employer and earns remuneration which exceeds 3,000 rupees, in the aggregate, in a month –

(a) the employee shall inform the employer from whom he receives less than 3,000 rupees in a month, accordingly; and

(b) that employer shall deduct the relevant contribution from the remuneration of the employee.

Amended by [Act No. 3 of 2007]; [Act No. 18 of 2008]; [Act No. 33 of 2008]; [Act No. 37 of 2011]

5A. Joint liability of employer and job contractor in the sugar industry

(1) Where a person has recourse to a job contractor -

(a) he shall forthwith give written notice thereof to the Director-General and specify in the notice the name and address of the job contractor, the duration and value of the contract, and the nature of work or service to be performed;

(b) the employer and the job contractor shall be jointly and severally liable to pay the contribution under section 5 in respect of every employee employed by the job contractor in the execution of the work or service specified in the contract.

(2) In this section -

“employer” has the meaning assigned to it under section 33 of the Employment Rights Act 2008;
“job contractor” means a person who employs an employee for the performance of any work or service which he has contracted to do or provide for an employer.

Amended by [Act No. 3 of 2007]; [Act No. 33 of 2008]; [Act No. 4 of 2017]

5B. National Savings Fund Account

(1) The Fund shall, in respect of every employee, hold a National Savings Fund Account into which shall be credited –

(a) the 2.5 per cent contributions payable by the employer under section 5;
(b) the one per cent contributions payable by the employee under section 5;
(c) the Recycling Fee; and
(d) any interests earned on the contributions and the Recycling Fee as determined by such actuary designated by the Minister.

(2) There shall be paid out of the National Savings Fund Account of an employee –

(a) any lump sum;
(b) the amount of contribution to be paid as premium under such health insurance policy as is specified by an employee under section 5F;
(c) the Transition Unemployment Benefit payable at the rate specified in the Third Schedule; and
(d) any other benefit that may be prescribed.

Amended by [Act No. 14 of 2009]; [Act No. 37 of 2011]; [Act No. 4 of 2017]
5C. Transition Unemployment Benefit

(1) Every employee who is registered in the Workfare Programme set up under section 41 of the Employment Rights Act 2008, shall be entitled to a Transition Unemployment Benefit.

(2) Where an employee is registered under subsection (1), the Permanent Secretary responsible for the subject of labour and employment relations shall notify, under section 43(3) and (3B) of the Employment Rights Act 2008, the Permanent Secretary as to the entitlement of the employee to the Transition Unemployment Benefit.

(3) The Transition Unemployment Benefit shall be paid –

(a) at the rate specified in the Fourth Schedule;

(b) for a period of not less than one month and not more than 12 consecutive months, as specified in section 44(1) of the Employment Rights Act 2008.

(4) Upon notification from the Permanent Secretary responsible for the subject of labour and employment relations under section 44(9) of the Employment Rights Act 2008, the Transition Unemployment Benefit shall, where applicable, cease to be payable.

Amended by [Act No. 14 of 2009]; [Act No. 6 of 2013]

5D. Workfare Programme Fund

(1) The Workfare Programme Fund set up under section 45 of the Employment Rights Act 2008 shall hold an account to be known as the Workfare Programme Account.
(2) The account shall be credited with –

(a) the Transition Unemployment Benefit payable at the rates specified in the Third Schedule;

(b) the National Pensions Fund contribution payable under section 44(3) of the Employment Rights Act 2008;

(c) all expenses incurred in the administration of the Workfare Programme Fund.

5E. Recovery of overpayment

(1) Where a lump sum, a Transition Unemployment Benefit or any other benefit has been paid into a bank account of an employee and it is subsequently found by the Permanent Secretary that the lump sum or benefit should not have been so paid, the bank shall, on written request to that effect by the Permanent Secretary, refund the amount so paid to the Fund and may debit the bank account accordingly.
(2) (a) Where the bank account is closed, the bank shall not be required to refund to the Fund the amount paid under subsection (1).

(b) When the amount standing in the bank account is less than the amount paid under subsection (1), the bank shall refund only the amount standing in the bank account.

(3) Notwithstanding any other enactment, where a refund is made under this section, no action shall lie against the bank in respect of the amount so refunded.

(4) Where an employee has received a Transition Unemployment Benefit to which he was not entitled, any amount overpaid may be recovered from any balance in his National Savings Fund Account.

5F. Payment of contribution to health insurance scheme

(1) (a) Subject to subsection (2) and to the availability of funds, the Minister shall, at the request made by an employee in a form approved by the Minister, pay part or whole of the monthly contributions made in respect of the employee under section 5B(1)(a) from the Fund as premium under such health insurance policy as may have been subscribed to by the employee.

(b) The payment of the monthly contributions under paragraph (a) shall be made as from the second month following the month in which the application is made.

(1A) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(b), where an employee is in the domestic service of an employer, payment of the premium referred to in subsection (1) in respect of any month shall be from the account of the employee in any of the 2 financial years preceding the month of the payment.

(2) (a) No payment shall be made under subsection (1) unless contributions have been made into the Fund in respect of the employee, for at least 6 months preceding the request for the transfer.

(b) The amount transferred from the Fund for any month shall be the amount paid, in respect of the employee, in the preceding sixth month.

(c) Paragraph (a) shall apply to contributions made as from 1 January 2012.

(3) Where an employee decides to cease payment of his monthly contributions referred to in subsection (1), he shall, not less than one month before the cessation, give written notice of the fact to the Ministry.

Amended by [Act No. 37 of 2011]; [Act No. 26 of 2012]

6. Duties of the Minister

(1) The Ministry shall –

(a) pay to every employee who is so entitled, a lump sum or such other sum as may be prescribed; and

THIRD SCHEDULE
[Sections 5B and 5D]

FINANCING OF TRANSITION UNEMPLOYMENT BENEFIT

1. Subject to paragraph 2, the Transition Unemployment Benefit shall be financed from –

   (a) the one per cent contribution of the worker and of the recycling fee in the National Savings Fund account of the worker and any interest accrued thereon, to the extent of 50 per cent of the Transition Unemployment Benefit; and

   (b) the Workfare Programme Fund to the extent of 50 per cent of the Transition Unemployment Benefit.

2. Where a worker is admitted to a training or re-skilling scheme and opts for the payment of the Transition Unemployment Benefit, the benefit shall be financed from the total of –

   (a) one-third of the one per cent contribution of the worker and of the recycling fee in the National Savings Fund account of the worker and any interest accrued thereon;

   (b) one-third from the Workfare Programme Fund; and

   (c) one-third from the National Empowerment Foundation.

3. Where the total amount under paragraph 1(a) or 2(a) is not sufficient, any deficiency shall be met from the Workfare Programme Fund.
