3. Application of Act

(1) Subject to subsection (2) and to any provisions to the contrary in any other enactment, this Act shall apply to every agreement.

- (2) This Act shall not apply to –
- (a) a public officer or a local government officer, except in relation to sections 5, 26, 114, 118, 119, 120 and 123(1)(f), (2), (3) and (4);
 - (b) a worker of a statutory body who is, or has opted to be, governed by the terms and conditions in a report of the Pay Research Bureau, except in relation to –
 - (i) sections 5, 26(1), 51A, 118, 119, 120 and 123(1)(f), (2), (3) and (4), in so far as they relate to that worker; and
 - (ii) Parts VI and XI;
 - (c) a worker who is employed on terms and conditions specified in a report of the Pay Research Bureau, except in relation to –
 - (i) sections 5, 26(1), 51A, 118, 119, 120 and 123(1)(f), (2), (3) and (4), in so far as they relate to that worker; and
 - (ii) Parts VI and XI;
 - (d) an atypical worker whose basic wage or salary exceeds 600,000 rupees in a year, except in relation to –
 - (i) sections 5, 26, 31 and 51A; and

 - (i) sections 5, 26, 31 and 51A; and
 - (ii) Parts V, VI, VII, VIII, XI, XII and XIII.

- (3) Nothing in this Act shall –
- (a) prevent an employer from –
 - (i) remunerating a worker at a rate higher than that provided for in any Remuneration Regulations or Wages Regulations; or
 - (ii) providing the worker with conditions of employment which are more favourable than those specified in any Remuneration Regulations or in this Act; or
 - (b) authorise an employer –
 - (i) to reduce the wages of a worker; or
 - (ii) subject to section 57 of the Employment Relations Act, to alter the conditions of employment of the worker so as to make them less favourable.

Amended by [\[Act No. 1 of 2020\]](#); [\[Act No. 7 of 2020\]](#); [\[Act No. 15 of 2021\]](#)

PART II – MEASURES AGAINST DISCRIMINATION IN EMPLOYMENT AND OCCUPATION

4. Application of Part II

This Part shall be in addition to, and not in derogation from, the Equal Opportunities Act.

5. Discrimination in employment and occupation

(1) (a) No employer shall treat, in a discriminatory manner, any worker who is in his employment.

(b) No prospective employer shall treat a person in a discriminatory manner in respect of access to employment.

(2) Any distinction, exclusion or preference in respect of a particular occupation based on the inherent requirements of the occupation shall not be deemed to be discrimination.

(3) A person does not discriminate against another person by imposing or proposing to impose on that other person a condition, requirement or practice that has or is likely to have a disadvantaging effect, where the condition, requirement or practice is reasonable in the circumstances.

(4) The matters to be taken into account in determining whether or not a condition, requirement or practice is reasonable in the circumstances include –

(a) the nature and extent of the disadvantage resulting or likely to result, from the imposition or proposed imposition of the condition, requirement or practice;

(b) the feasibility of overcoming or mitigating the disadvantage; and

(c) whether the disadvantage is proportionate to the result sought to be achieved by the person who imposes, or proposes to impose, the condition, requirement or practice.

(5) In this section –

“discrimination” includes affording different treatment to –

(a) different workers attributable, wholly or mainly, to their respective description by age, race, colour, caste, creed, sex, sexual orientation, gender, HIV status, impairment, marital or family status, pregnancy, religion, political opinion, place of origin, national extraction or social origin, which has the effect of nullifying or impairing equality of opportunity or treatment in employment or occupation;

- (b) workers of a subsidiary company performing work of equal value as a worker employed by another subsidiary company of the parent company or the parent company, operating in the same line of business, on less favourable salary, terms and conditions of employment;

“employment” or “occupation” includes access to vocational training, to employment and to particular occupations, and terms and conditions of employment.

Amended by [\[Act No. 7 of 2020\]](#)

6. Consideration for full-time or permanent employment

(1) Where a vacancy occurs in the full-time or permanent workforce of an employer, priority of consideration for the full-time employment shall be given, as far as practicable, to a part-time worker or to a worker on determinate contract of employment in the same category and grade.

(2) Where 2 or more workers are eligible under subsection (1), the employer shall make an offer to the more suitable worker, having regard to qualifications, merit, experience, performance and seniority.

7. Promotion

(1) Where a vacancy arises in a higher grade, an employer shall, in the case of higher grade promotion among monthly-paid workers, give consideration, as far as practicable, to qualifications, merit and seniority.

(2) Every employer shall post up in a conspicuous place a notice of any vacancy which may be seen by every worker at least 5 days before the promotion or selection exercise, as the case may be, is carried out.

PART III – MINIMUM AGE FOR EMPLOYMENT

8. Restriction on employment of children

(1) No person shall employ a child for employment or work in any occupation.

(2) For the purpose of subsection (1), a child shall not be considered to be employed for employment or work where, during school holidays or outside school hours, the child remains at the place of work of his parent or assists his parent in a family business in a light job which is not harmful to his health or his development or prejudicial to his participation in a vocational orientation or training programme.

9. Employment of young persons

(1) No person shall employ, or continue to employ, a young person –

(a) in work which, by its nature, or the circumstances in which it is carried out, is likely to jeopardise his health, safety, or physical, mental, moral or social development; or

(b) after being notified in writing by the supervising officer that the kind of work for which he is employed is unsuitable, or is likely to interfere with his education.

(2) Every employer shall keep a record of every young person employed by him, stating, in the record, his full name, address, date of birth and such other details as may be prescribed.

PART IV – WORK AGREEMENTS

Sub-Part I – Competency to Enter into Agreement

10. Competency to enter into agreement

A person who is of the age of 16 or more shall be competent to enter into an agreement and shall, in relation to the agreement and to its enforcement, be deemed to be of full age and capacity.

Sub-Part II – Particulars of Work Agreement

11. Particulars of work agreement

Every employer shall provide to every worker engaged for more than one month, a written statement of particulars of employment in the form set out in the First Schedule, or in such other form as may be prescribed, in the French or Creole language, within 14 days of the completion of the first calendar month, and a copy of the statement shall be submitted to the supervising officer within 30 days.

Sub-Part III – Types of Work Agreements

12. Deeming agreement

Where a worker is –

- (a) required to report at, or is conveyed to, a place of work by his employer or agent of the employer; and
- (b) found fit and willing to perform the work for which he was required to report or conveyed, the worker and the employer shall be deemed to have entered into an agreement.

13. Fixed term agreement

(1) Notwithstanding subsection (4), an employer may enter into an agreement with a worker for a specified period of time in relation to the temporary needs of the employer –

- (a) for the performance and completion of a specific piece of work which is temporary and non-recurring;

- (b) in respect of any work or activity which is of a temporary, seasonal or short-term nature or short-term work arrangements that are normally project related and aligned to changes in the product market;
- (c) in replacement of another worker who is on approved leave or suspended from work;
- (d) for the purpose of providing training to the workforce;
- (e) for a specific training contract; or
- (f) in accordance with a specific work or training scheme set up by the Government or a statutory body for a determinate duration.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to –

- (a) the exclusion of limitations of the rights of a worker; or
- (b) the deprivation of the right of a worker to permanent employment.

(3) Where a worker is employed on a fixed term contract, the worker shall be informed in writing by his employer of the specific skills required, the specific tasks to be carried out and the duration thereof.

(4) A worker, other than a migrant worker, who is employed in a position which is of permanent nature, shall not be employed on a contract of fixed duration for the performance of work relating to the fixed, recurring and permanent needs of the continuous normal business activity of the employer.

(5) Where a worker is employed on a fixed term contract, his terms and conditions of employment shall not be less favourable than those of a worker employed on an indeterminate contract performing the same or similar work, having regard where relevant, whether they have a similar level of qualifications, skills or experience.

(6) A worker employed on a fixed term contract shall be deemed to be in continuous employment where there is a break not exceeding 28 days between any 2 fixed term contracts.

(7) An employer shall inform a worker employed on a fixed term contract of any vacancy of a permanent nature in the same category and grade to his current employment.

14. Part-time work agreement

(1) A full-time worker is considered as a comparable full-time worker in relation to a part-time worker where –

(a) both workers are –

(i) employed by the same employer and based at the same establishment; and

(ii) engaged in the same or broadly similar work having regard, where relevant, to whether they have a similar level of qualification, skills and experience; or

(b) there is no full-time worker in the same establishment, but there is a comparable full-time worker based at a different establishment.

(2) A part-time worker shall not be treated by his employer less favourably than a comparable full-time worker –

(a) as regard the terms of his contract; or

(b) by being subjected to any other detriment by his employer.

(3) In determining whether a part-time worker has been treated less favourably than a comparable full-time worker, the pro-rata principle in terms of hours of work shall be applied.

(4) Where a part-time worker is paid remuneration for extra work in a period at a rate lower than the rate payable to a comparable full-time worker who performs extra work in the same period, he shall not be regarded as being treated less favourably than the comparable full-time worker to the extent that the total number of hours worked by the part-time worker in the period, including overtime, does not exceed the number of hours the comparable fulltime worker is required to work in the period, excluding absences from work and overtime.

(5) Where a worker employed on a part-time contract considers that he should have been classified as a full-time worker, he may apply to the Court for an order to that effect.

(6) In this section –

(a) a worker is a full-time worker where he is paid by reference to the time he works, whether on normal or stipulated hours, and having regard to the custom and practice of the employer in relation to workers employed by the employer under the same type of contract; and

(b) a worker is a part-time worker where he is paid by reference to the time he works and, having regard to the custom and practice of the employer in relation to a comparable full-time worker.

15. Agreement to perform part-time or full-time work

(1) A full-time worker may enter into an agreement with an employer to perform part-time work where the agreement –

(a) is in writing and for a specified period of time; and

(b) provides for the option to the worker to revert to full-time work at the expiry of the specified period of the part-time work.

(1A) Notwithstanding subsection (1), where a full-time worker enters into an agreement referred to in subsection (1) during the period starting on 1 June 2020 and ending on 31 December 2020 or such other period as may be prescribed, the agreement shall –

(a) be in writing and for a period not exceeding 3 months; and

- (b) provide an option to the worker to revert to full-time work –
 - (i) at the expiry of the period of 3 months; or
 - (ii) before the expiry of the period of 3 months with the consent of his employer.

(2) A part-time worker may enter into an agreement with an employer to perform full-time work where the agreement –

- (a) is in writing; and
- (b) where appropriate, provides for the option to the worker to revert to part-time work.

(3) (a) An employer shall not require a full-time worker to enter into an agreement to perform part-time work, except –

- (i) where the agreement is in writing and for a specified period of time and provides an option to the worker to revert back to full-time work at the expiry of the specified period; and
- (ii) with the approval of the supervising officer.

(b) The supervising officer may grant his approval under paragraph (a) on such terms and conditions as he may determine.

(4) (a) Where the employment of a worker referred to in subsection (1A) is terminated during the period where he is working on a part-time basis, the Court may, where it finds that the termination of the employment of the worker was unjustified, order that the worker be paid severance allowance at the rate specified in section 70(1).

(b) Where the employment of a worker referred to in subsection (3) is terminated in breach of the terms and conditions of the approval granted under that subsection, the termination shall, subject to section 64, be unjustified and the Court may order that the worker be paid severance allowance at the rate specified in section 70(1).

(c) For the purpose of computing severance allowance payable under this subsection, a month's remuneration shall be –

(i) the remuneration drawn by the worker for the last complete month of his employment on a full-time basis; or

(ii) an amount computed in the manner as is best calculated to give the rate per month at which the worker was remunerated over a period of 12 months before the termination of his agreement, including payment for extra work, productivity bonus, attendance bonus, commission in return for services and any other regular payment, whichever is higher.

(5) Where the employment of a worker is terminated under subsection (4) –

(a) any contribution due to be made to the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund by the employer shall, notwithstanding section 87, be made; and

(b) any payment to which the worker is entitled under this Act or any other enactment shall be computed, on the basis of the remuneration drawn by the worker for the last complete month of his employment on a full-time basis.

Amended by [\[Act No. 7 of 2020\]](#)

16. Compromise agreement

(1) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in the Code Civil Mauricien and any other enactment, where a worker and an employer agree to resolve a dispute concerning the amount of compensation or other related payments, by whatever name called, paid following a termination of employment, or the amount of remuneration payable in a case of non-payment or short payment of remuneration, the worker and the employer shall enter into a compromise agreement.

(2) A compromise agreement shall not be valid where –

(a) the compromise agreement was not vetted by an independent adviser;
or

(aa) the worker has not, prior to entering into the compromise agreement, received advice from a relevant independent adviser regarding the terms of the agreement and the effect of that agreement on his claim;
or

(b) the independent adviser was a party to the matter for the employer.

(3) Where an employer fails to comply with a compromise agreement, any payment due to the worker under the agreement may be claimed in Court.

(3A) Subject to subsection (2), where a compromise agreement concerning termination of employment is made between a worker and an employer under subsection (1), the employer may deduct the contributions payable to the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund from the amount payable under the compromise agreement.

(4) In this subsection (1) –

“relevant independent adviser” means –

(a) a qualified law practitioner;

(b) an officer or a member of a registered trade union;

- (c) an officer of the Ministry.

Sub-Part IV – Void Agreement

18. Void agreement

(1) No worker shall be bound by virtue of an agreement to be responsible for an act or omission of any other person.

(2) No person shall enter into an agreement where remuneration is to be paid at intervals of more than one month.

(3) Any agreement which contains a provision inconsistent with subsection (1) or (2) shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, be void.

(4) Subject to section 57 of the Employment Relations Act, an agreement by a worker to relinquish any of his rights under this Act shall be void.

(5) Where a worker is required to perform task work or piece work, his employer or an agent of the employer shall, before the work is commenced, inform the worker of the nature of the task he is required to perform and the rate at which he shall be remunerated for that work.

Sub-Part V – Employment of Worker Under an Agreement or More Than One Agreement Not Interrupted

19. Continuous employment

The continuous employment of a worker shall not be deemed to have been interrupted—

- (a) by the worker's absence from work –
 - (i) on any leave taken in accordance with this Act or any other enactment, an agreement, a collective agreement or an award;
 - (ii) due to suspension from employment;
 - (iii) by reason of participation in a strike which is not unlawful under the Employment Relations Act; or
 - (iv) with the consent of his employer;
- (b) on account of the limited number of days worked as specified in the agreement of a part-time worker;
- (c) where the worker has been detained pending a police enquiry and he has been released before a period of 60 days from the last day he worked; or
- (d) where the worker ceases to be in the employment of one employer and enters the employment of another employer pursuant to section 67.

PART V – GENERAL CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

Sub-Part I – Hours of Work and Basic Hourly Rate

Section A – Hours of work

20. Normal working hours

(1) Subject to subsection (2) and to any other enactment, the normal working week for every worker, other than a part-time worker or garde malade shall consist of 45 hours of work, excluding time allowed for meal and tea breaks, made up as follows –

- (a) where the worker is required to work on 5 days in a week, 9 hours' work on any 5 days of the week, other than a public holiday;
- (b) where the worker is required to work on 6 days in a week –
 - (i) 8 hours' work on any 5 days of the week other than a public holiday; and
 - (ii) 5 hours' on one other day of the week other than a public holiday.

(2) Subject to the operational requirements of the employer, the normal working week of any worker may begin on any day of the week.

(3) No worker, other than a garde malade, shall, except in special circumstances and subject to any other enactment, be required to work for more than 12 hours per day.

- (4) The normal day's work of a garde malade, other than a part-time worker –
 - (a) shall consist of 12 hours' actual work, excluding time allowed for meal and tea breaks; and
 - (b) may begin on any day of the week, whether a public holiday or not.

(5) (a) A worker shall be entitled to a rest day of at least 24 consecutive hours in every period of 7 consecutive days.

(b) Subject to paragraph (c), the rest day referred to in paragraph (a) shall be a Sunday.

(c) Where, by nature of his operational requirements, an employer operates on a 7-day week, the rest day shall, at least twice a month, be a Sunday.

(6) No person shall employ a young person in an undertaking between 10 p.m. and 5 a.m..

(7) Every worker shall be entitled to a rest of not less than 11 consecutive hours in any day.

(8) Where, by his agreement a worker is required to work for 6 days in a week as provided in subsection (1)(b), the employer shall pay the worker a full day's remuneration on the day on which the worker is required to stop work after 5 hours' work as agreed upon between him and his employer.

21. Compressed hours

(1) Where an employer requires a worker to perform piece work, task work or work of a similar method of work, the worker shall be deemed to have performed a day's or a week's work where he completes the piece work, task work or other work within a shorter period of time and he shall be paid wages due for the whole day or week, as the case may be.

(2) Notwithstanding section 20(1) –

(a) an employer may, with the consent of a worker, require the worker to work for the stipulated hours, in any week, on a 4 days' week basis, provided a notice of at least 48 hours is given to the worker; or

(b) a worker may make a request to his employer to work for the stipulated hours on a 4 days' week basis and the employer shall, subject to his operational requirements, grant the request.

(3) Notwithstanding section 24(3) and (4), where a worker who works on a 4 days' week basis under subsection (2) –

(a) works on a public holiday, the employer shall remunerate him in respect of any work done for –

(i) the first 8 hours, at twice the basic rate; and

(ii) every subsequent hour, at 3 times the basic rate;

(b) performs more than 45 hours' work in any week, not being hours of work referred to in paragraph (a), the employer shall remunerate him at one and a half times the basic rate for every additional hour of work.

(4) For the purpose of computation of the number of hours of extra work performed under subsection (3)(b), any authorised leave, whether with or without pay, including injury leave, shall be deemed to constitute attendance at work.

22. Flexitime

(1) An employer may request a worker to work on flexitime provided a notice of at least 48 hours is given to the worker.

(2) Where an employer makes a request under subsection (1), the worker may accede to that request.

(3) Subject to subsection (5), a worker shall be entitled to request to work on flexitime.

(4) Where a worker makes a request to work on flexitime, his employer shall inform him, in writing within 21 days of the date of the request, whether or not it has been granted.

(5) The employer shall, unless there are reasonable business grounds to refuse, grant the request.

- (6) Where a worker is entitled to work on flexitime, the employer shall establish –
- (a) a core period of the day during which the worker shall be at work; and
 - (b) a period of time within which work shall be performed.

(6A) Subject to section 28, an employer may employ a worker to work on flexible arrangements on a part-time basis for such number of hours as the employer and the worker may agree.

- (7) In this section –

“reasonable business grounds” means –

- (a) an inability to reorganise work; or
- (b) a detrimental impact on quality or performance.

23. Shift work

- (1) Subject to this Act, an employer may request a worker to work on shift work.

(2) An employer shall not, without a worker’s consent, require the worker to work on shift work –

- (a) for more than 8 hours in a day;
- (b) at night on more than 5 consecutive nights, except in such sector or industry as may be prescribed.

(3) Where a female worker who may be required to perform night shift work produces a medical certificate certifying that she is pregnant, her employer shall not require her to perform night shift work during a period of at least 8 weeks before confinement.

(4) Shift work shall be scheduled on a monthly basis.

(5) (a) A copy of the monthly schedule of duty worked out on a roster basis indicating the date and time at which a worker shall attend duty shall be handed over to the worker.

(b) The monthly schedule of duty shall be posted up in a conspicuous place at the place of work at least one week before the schedule is due to take effect and a copy thereof handed to each worker concerned.

(6) Where a worker is employed on shift work, he shall be paid an allowance of 15 per cent of his basic wage in addition to his normal day's wage for work performed during night shift.

(7) Notwithstanding subsection (6), a worker who is employed on shift work shall, from the commencement of this subsection and until such further period as may be prescribed, not be entitled to any allowance for work performed on night shift.

Amended by [\[Act No. 1 of 2020\]](#)

24. Overtime

(1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4) –

(a) a worker and an employer may agree on the number of hours of work to be performed in excess of the stipulated hours where the exigencies of an enterprise so require;

(b) no employer shall require a worker to perform work in excess of the stipulated hours unless he has given, as far as is practicable, at least 24 hours' notice to the worker of the extra work to be performed.

(2) A worker who does not wish to work in excess of the stipulated hours on a particular day shall, at least 24 hours in advance, notify his employer of his intention.

(3) Subject to subsection (5), where a worker works on a public holiday, the employer shall remunerate him in respect of any work done –

- (a) during normal working hours, at not less than twice the rate at which the work is remunerated when performed during the normal hours on a week day;
- (b) after normal working hours, at not less than 3 times the rate at which the work is remunerated when performed during the normal hours on a week day.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), where a worker works on a week day for more than the normal working hours, the employer shall, in respect of the extra work, remunerate the worker for each extra hour at not less than one and a half times the rate at which the work is remunerated when performed during the normal hours.

(5) An agreement shall stipulate that the remuneration provided for in the agreement includes payment for work on public holidays and overtime where –

- (a) the maximum number of public holidays; and
- (b) the maximum number of hours of overtime on week days and public holidays, covered by the remuneration are specified in writing in the agreement.

(6) For the purpose of subsection (5), the monthly or hourly basic salary shall be clearly specified in the agreement.

(7) Subject to subsection (4), where a worker is required to perform extra work immediately after a normal day's work, he shall be granted a rest period of at least 10 minutes with pay before performing the extra work.

(7A) For the purpose of computation of the number of hours of extra work performed under this section, any authorised leave, whether with or without pay, including injury leave, shall be deemed to constitute attendance at work.

(8) In this section –

24A. Overtime in connection with COVID-19 period of year 2020

(1) Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in section 24, where a worker, other than a watchperson, employed in any of the sectors specified in the Ninth Schedule, works from the commencement of this section and until such further period as may be prescribed, the worker may be –

- (a) remunerated for any work which is performed –
 - (i) on a public holiday, at not less than twice the basic hourly rate for every hour of work;
 - (ii) in excess of 45 hours or such lesser number of agreed hours of work in any week, not being hours of work referred to in subparagraph (i), at not less than one and a half times the basic hourly rate per hour for every additional hour of work performed; or
- (b) granted in any pay period, in lieu of remuneration under paragraph (a), such number of hours of paid time off calculated in accordance with the rate at which remuneration is paid under that paragraph.

(2) (a) Paid time off in any period may be granted to worker by the employer or at the request of the worker.

(b) Where a worker has not been granted paid time off wholly or partly under paragraph (a), any outstanding period of time off shall be accumulated up to the date the worker ceases, in any manner whatsoever, to be in the employment of the employer or 31 December 2021 or such other date as may be prescribed, whichever is applicable.

(3) Where a worker cannot avail himself of the total number of hours of time off accumulated under paragraph (2)(b), he shall be paid remuneration in lieu of any time off left at the rate specified in subsection (1)(a) and such payment shall be made at the time the worker ceases, in any manner whatsoever, to be in the employment of the employer or as at 31 December 2021 or such other date as may be prescribed, whichever is applicable.

(4) For the purpose of computing the additional hours of work under paragraph (1)(a), any authorised leave, whether with or without pay, including injury leave, shall be deemed to constitute attendance at work.

(5) This section shall apply for the COVID-19 period of year 2020.

Section B – Basic hourly rate

25. Notional calculation of basic hourly rate

(1) For the purpose of determining the basic hourly rate due for extra work performed by a full-time worker or any other reason, except where expressly provided in an enactment –

(a) a month for a full-time worker shall –

(i) in the case of a garde malade, be deemed to consist of 312 hours of work;

(ii) for any other worker, be deemed to consist of 195 hours of work;

(b) a day shall be deemed to consist of –

(i) 8 hours' work in the case of a worker employed on a 6-day week;

(ii) 9 hours' work in the case of a worker employed on a 5-day week; or

(iii) 12 hours' work in the case of a garde malade.

(2) The notional calculation of –

(a) the basic hourly rate of a full-time worker shall be in accordance with the following formula –

(i) $H = \frac{M}{312}$, for a garde malade;

(ii) $H = \frac{M}{195}$, for other every worker,

where –

“H” means the basic hourly rate; and

“M” means the prescribed monthly wage, or where wages are not prescribed, the monthly agreed wage payable;

(b) the basic hourly rate of a part-time worker shall –

(i) where the monthly wages are prescribed, be computed in accordance with paragraph (a);

(ii) where the monthly wages are agreed, be in accordance with the following formula –

$$H = \frac{M \times 12}{52 \times D \times N}$$

where –

“D” means the number of working days per week;

“H” means the basic hourly rate;

“M” means the agreed monthly wage;

“N” means the number of working hours per day.

Sub-Part II – Remuneration

Section A – Equal remuneration for work of equal value

26. Equal remuneration for work of equal value

(1) (a) Every employer shall ensure that the remuneration of a worker shall not be less favourable than the remuneration of another worker performing work of equal value.

(b) Where an employer has recourse to the services of a job contractor, the job contractor shall ensure that the remuneration of any worker employed by him shall not be less favourable than the remuneration of a worker employed by the principal employer and performing work of equal value.

(2) The following criteria shall apply in determining whether there exists an element of discrimination, based on the sex of a worker or between workers of the same sex for any work or class of work payable under any agreement –

- (a) the rates and types of remuneration shall be based on an objective job evaluation of the work performed instead of on the worker’s sex or personal attributes;
- (b) any job classification system shall be based on objective criteria irrespective of the worker’s sex;
- (c) the work of a worker of the same or different sex shall be given the same value for a like job or a work rated as equivalent in the same employment;
- (d) for work which is not exclusively or predominantly performed by female workers, the extent to which –

- (i) the work or class of work calls for the same, or substantially similar degrees of skill, effort and responsibility; and
 - (ii) the conditions under which the work is to be performed are the same or similar;
- (e) for work which is exclusively or predominantly performed by female workers, the rate of remuneration that would be paid to male workers with the same or substantially similar skill, responsibility, and service performing the work under the same or substantially similar conditions and with the same or substantially similar degree of effort.

Section B – Remuneration to worker and part-time worker

27. Payment of remuneration to worker

(1) Every employer shall pay remuneration to a worker at monthly intervals, unless the parties agree to payment at shorter intervals.

(2) Every employer shall pay remuneration directly to every worker –

- (a) in legal tender only, unless there is a written agreement between the parties for payment by cheque or into the worker's individual bank account;
- (b) during working hours at the place of work, when paid in legal tender or by cheque; and
- (c) in any other case not later than on the last working day of the pay period.

(3) Every employer shall –

- (a) issue to every worker, at the time of paying remuneration, a payslip, in the form set out in the Second Schedule, which shall indicate the contribution made by the employer to the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund specified in Part VIII; and

- (b) cause every worker, to whom remuneration is paid in legal tender or by cheque, to sign in or affix his thumbprint in a remuneration book setting out the particulars of the remuneration paid.
- (4) No employer shall, in respect of the payment of remuneration –
- (a) restrict, by agreement or otherwise, the freedom of a worker to determine where and how his remuneration is to be spent; or
 - (b) pay, require or permit remuneration to be paid in a shop, or cause or allow the owner of the shop or his representative or any person employed by him, to pay remuneration due to the worker, unless the worker is employed to work in the shop.

(5) Where a worker is required to replace another worker drawing a higher remuneration and to perform the same level of work as the other worker, he shall be paid the remuneration corresponding to the initial salary in the salary scale, if any, of the other worker or the salary drawn by the other worker, whichever is applicable.

(6) Where a claim of non-payment or short payment of wages is made to the Court, the Court may, where it thinks fit, order an employer to pay interest at a rate not exceeding 12 per cent in a year on the amount of remuneration due from the date of non-payment or short payment to the date of payment.

Amended by [\[Act No. 12 of 2023\]](#)

28. Payment of remuneration to part-time worker

(1) Every employer shall pay to a part-time worker not less than the basic wage or salary prescribed in any enactment or specified in a collective agreement except where the enactment overrides the agreement, for the category or grade in which he is employed, whichever is higher, calculated proportionately on the notional hourly rate and increased by not less than 10 per cent.

(2) Where no basic wage or salary is prescribed in an enactment or specified in a collective agreement, every employer shall pay to a part-time worker not less than the basic wage or salary of a comparable full-time worker, calculated proportionately on the notional hourly rate and increased by not less than 10 per cent.

Amended by [\[Act No. 12 of 2023\]](#)

Section C – Joint liability of job contractor and employer as regards remuneration

29. Joint liability on remuneration

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a job contractor and the principal, for whom the job contractor has recruited or employed a worker, shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment of the remuneration of the worker and for the conditions of employment of the worker, including their safety, health and welfare.

(2) The liability of the principal of a job contractor under subsection (1) shall be limited to the sum payable by him to the job contractor under the arrangement between them.

(3) No person who is jointly liable with a job contractor under subsection (1) may set up as a defence to a claim from a worker seeking to recover remuneration the fact that he has already paid to the job contractor any sum due under the arrangement with the job contractor.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), every worker employed by a job contractor shall, for securing payment of his remuneration, have the same privileges, in respect of the property of the principal, as he would have had if he had been directly employed by the principal without the intervention of the job contractor.

(5) Any amount recoverable under subsection (4) shall not exceed the amount payable by the principal to the job contractor under subsection (2).

Section D – Remuneration in specific circumstances

30. Payment of remuneration for work performed on public holiday

(1) Every worker shall be entitled to a normal day's pay in respect of every public holiday, other than a Sunday, that occurs on any of his normal working days.

(2) Where a worker is required to work on a public holiday, other than a Sunday, he shall be paid, in addition to the normal day's pay provided for under subsection (1), any remuneration due under section 24.

(3) Any agreement by a worker to relinquish his right to a paid public holiday or to forego such leave shall be void.

31. Payment of remuneration due on termination of agreement

(1) Subject to subsection (2), every employer shall pay any remuneration due to a worker on the termination of the worker's agreement.

(2) Where the parties to an agreement are deemed to have entered into a fresh agreement, the employer shall, not later than 2 working days after the expiry of the previous agreement, pay to the worker the remuneration due under the previous agreement.

(3) Where notice of termination of an agreement has been given under section 63, the employer shall, on or before the date of expiry of the notice, pay to the worker any remuneration due under the agreement.

(4) Where an agreement is terminated otherwise than by notice under section 63, or on expiry of the period for which the agreement was agreed to last, the employer shall pay to the worker any remuneration due on the termination of the agreement.

(5) Where an agreement is terminated by an employer otherwise than on the ground of misconduct, and at the time of termination the worker has not taken the annual leave to which he is entitled to under section 45 or any other enactment or any agreement, the employer shall, in lieu of the remaining annual leave, pay to the worker such remuneration which he would have been entitled to if his agreement was not terminated.

32. Payment of remuneration in other specific circumstances

(1) An employer shall pay to a worker –

- (a) a full day's remuneration where –
 - (i) the employer is unable to provide work to the worker; or
 - (ii) due to climatic conditions, power failure, or breakdown in machinery or appliances, work has been stopped after the worker has worked for more than 2 hours; or
- (b) half a day's remuneration where owing to climatic conditions, power failure or breakdown in machinery or appliances –
 - (i) the employer is of opinion that no work can be performed; or
 - (ii) work has been stopped before the worker has completed 2 hours of work.

(1A) Where, during a period of extreme weather conditions, including, but not limited to heavy or torrential rainfall, an order is issued by the National Crisis Committee under section 16 requiring any person to remain indoors, or a state of disaster is declared and any direction for the purpose of assisting and protecting the public is issued under section 37 of the National Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Act –

- (a) an employer shall not require a worker to report to work, or to continue to work, where he is exposed to the weather conditions, as the case may be; and
- (b) the employer shall pay to the worker –
 - (i) a full day's remuneration where –
 - (A) no work can be performed owing to the weather conditions; or

(B) the worker resumes work for 2 hours or more;

(ii) a half day's remuneration where –

(A) work has been stopped before the worker has completed 2 hours of work; or

(B) the worker resumes work for not more than 2 hours.

(2) An employer may require a worker to work temporarily for a time shorter than that specified in his agreement at a reduced remuneration, subject to the approval of the supervising officer.

(3) A worker who is required to work for a shorter time as specified in subsection (2) and is paid a lower remuneration shall have the right to accept work from another employer during the time no work is provided to him.

(4) Where a cyclone warning class III or IV or a safety bulletin issued under the Mauritius Meteorological Services (Warnings) Regulations 2023 is in force, a worker may absent himself from work and the employer shall pay remuneration to the worker at the normal rate in respect of the period of absence.

(5) Subsection (4) shall apply until –

(a) the cyclone warning class III or IV is lifted or a termination bulletin is issued by the Mauritius Meteorological Services under the Mauritius Meteorological Services (Warnings) Regulations 2023; and

(b) the employer provides a means of transport to the worker to attend his place of work; or

(c) public transport is available.

(6) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), where, by the nature of the operation of an undertaking where a worker is employed, he is required to work on the employer's premises, from home or at any other place where he has been assigned duty, or where he is required to remain at the employer's premises, on a day on which a cyclone warning class III or IV is in force, the worker shall, in addition to any remuneration due to him, be entitled to –

- (i) an allowance equal to 3 times the basic rate per hour in respect of every hour of work performed; and
- (ii) adequate free meals.

(b) Paragraph (a)(ii) shall not apply to a worker who is required to work from home.

(6A) (a) Every employer shall, except where he already has an insurance policy covering injury, disease or death of a worker arising out of and in the course of employment in circumstances provided for in subsections (1A) and (6), provide an insurance policy to cover injury, disease or death sustained by a worker in such circumstances.

(b) The insurance policy referred to in paragraph (a) shall, in the case of death of a worker, provide for the payment of a compensation or a monthly pension, to the legal heirs of the deceased worker.

(7) Subject to section 51, no remuneration shall be payable to, or recoverable by, a worker for any period –

- (a) during which the worker is in lawful custody;
- (b) spent by the worker in a reform institution; or
- (c) spent by the worker in going to, attending, or returning from, any Court.

Section E – Additional remuneration to compensate increase in cost of living

33. Payment of additional remuneration

(1) Subject to subsections (3), (4) and (5), every employer shall, as from the appointed date, pay, in addition to the actual wage or salary earned by the worker, such additional remuneration to such category of workers in his employment, as may be prescribed, to compensate him for an increase in the cost of living..

(2) Where the wage or salary of a worker is paid partly by one employer and partly by another, each employer shall pay that part of the additional remuneration which bears the same proportion to the additional remuneration as the part of the wage or salary paid by him bears to the total wage or salary.

(3) Where an employer has paid, during the period 1 January to 31 December of the year, an increase in wage or salary –

(a) otherwise than –

- (i) by virtue of the additional remuneration prescribed under this section or any Remuneration Regulations of the previous year;
- (ii) by way of an increment or increase on promotion; or

(b) pursuant to a collective agreement or an award of the Tribunal, and such increase was specified in writing, or agreed upon by the worker, as being an increase in wage or salary designed specifically to compensate the worker for an increase in the cost of living in respect of that period, there shall be sufficient compliance with subsection (1), in case such increase is less than the additional remuneration specified in subsection (1), if the employer pays the difference.

(4) Subject to subsection (6), where a worker is remunerated on a piece rate basis at rates specified in the Sugar Industry (Agricultural Workers) (Remuneration Order) Regulations 1983 or as agreed upon, such rates shall, as from the appointed date, be increased in the same proportion as the increase of the payment of the additional remuneration on the basic wage prescribed or agreed upon, as the case may be, of the worker.

(5) Subject to subsections (4) and (6), where a worker is remunerated on a piece rate basis at rates specified in any Remuneration Regulations or Wages Regulations or any other enactment, such rates shall, as from the appointed date, be increased by such appropriate rate as may be prescribed.

(6) The piece rates specified in the enactments specified in subsections (4) and (5) shall include any previous additional remuneration under this section.

(7) Where civil or criminal proceedings are instituted against an employer under this section in relation to a worker first employed by him on or after the appointed date, it shall be a defence for the employer to prove that the wage or salary paid to the worker is not less favourable than all the pecuniary payments made to any other worker of the same grade.

(8) Where a worker is remunerated otherwise than on a monthly basis, it shall be deemed, for the purpose of determining the appropriate additional remuneration, that a month, a fortnight or a week shall consist of such number of days as are specified in any other enactment or agreed upon in relation to that worker.

(9) The amount or percentage of additional remuneration and the appointed date for its payment shall be as may be prescribed.

(10) In this section –

“basic wage or salary” means –

- (a) (i) in relation to a worker whose basic wage or salary is prescribed, and which exceeds the national minimum wage payable to him under the National Minimum Wage Regulations 2017 under the National Wage Consultative Council Act, such basic wage or salary, whether or not the worker’s actual wage or salary exceeds the prescribed wage or salary or the worker is remunerated on a piece rate basis or employed on task work;

- (ii) in relation to a worker, other than a worker of an export enterprise, whose basic wage or salary is prescribed and which, prior to 1 January 2018, was less than the national minimum wage payable to him under the National Minimum Wage Regulations 2017 under the National Wage Consultative Council Act, the national minimum wage plus such successive additional remuneration as may be prescribed;
 - (iii) in relation to a worker of an export enterprise whose basic wage or salary is prescribed and which, prior to 1 January 2018, was less than the national minimum wage payable to him under the National Minimum Wage Regulations 2017, the national minimum wage plus such successive additional remuneration as may be prescribed;
 - (iv) in relation to a worker in respect of whom no wage or salary is prescribed under any Remuneration Regulations or Wages Regulations or agreed upon in his contract of service, the total amount, by whatever name called, earned by him as from the appointed date;
 - (v) in every other case and subject to the payment of the national minimum wage under the National Minimum Wage Regulations 2017 under the National Wage Consultative Council Act, the basic wage or salary agreed upon in the worker's contract of service, whichever is higher, whether or not the worker's actual wage or salary exceeds the agreed wage or salary or the worker is remunerated on a piece rate basis or employed on task work; and
- (b) includes any previous additional remuneration granted under any enactment; but
 - (c) does not include any allowance, commission or other benefit not forming part of a worker's wage or salary but given to him in addition to his wage or salary.

Section EA – Special allowance

33A. Payment of special allowance

(1) The Director-General may pay to a worker such special allowance, as may be prescribed.

(2) The category of the worker referred to in subsection (1), the monthly basic salary of the worker and the period for which the allowance is payable shall be prescribed.

(3) Where a worker is entitled to and is paid the allowance referred to in subsection (1), the worker shall not be eligible to the Negative Income Tax allowance payable under section 150A of the Income Tax Act.

(4) The Minister may, after consultation with the Minister to whom responsibility for the subject of finance is assigned, make such regulations as he thinks fit for the purpose of this section.

(4A) For the purpose of payment of special allowance for the period starting on 1 July 2023 and ending on such period as may be prescribed –
“worker” includes, notwithstanding this Act, a public officer or local government officer, or a worker of a statutory body who is on terms and conditions specified in a report of the Pay Research Bureau, drawing such pay as may be prescribed.

(5) In this section –
“basic salary” includes any additional remuneration payable under section 33.

Section F – Restriction on deductions from worker’s remuneration

34. Restriction on deductions

(1) Subject to subsection (2), no employer shall deduct any amount from a worker’s remuneration, other than an amount –

- (a) authorised by the worker in writing which –
 - (i) is due to the employer in recovery of an advance made on basic wages, provided the deduction does not exceed one fifth of the basic wages due for a pay period; or
 - (ii) the worker wishes to be deducted to make any payment or contribution to any fund, body or other institution; or
- (b) which is deducted in accordance with any enactment or a Court order.

(2) No employer shall deduct any amount from a worker’s remuneration, which in the aggregate, exceeds one half of the worker’s remuneration for any pay period.

(3) No employer shall, in respect of the payment of remuneration, deduct any amount –

- (a) by way of fine or compensation for poor or negligent work or for damage caused to the property of the employer;
- (b) as a direct or indirect payment for the purpose of obtaining or retaining employment; or
- (c) by way of discount, interest or any charge on account of any advance of remuneration made to a worker.

Sub-Part III – Failure to Pay Remuneration

Section A – Protective order

35. Application for protective order

(1) Where, after making an enquiry or on being notified, the supervising officer is satisfied that an employer has failed to pay any remuneration, notice, severance allowance or gratuity due to a worker or a group of workers, the supervising officer may, where he considers it appropriate, apply to the Judge in Chambers for a protective order, on behalf of the worker or group of workers, against the employer and, where applicable, any bank or other financial institution holding funds on behalf of the employer, in the amount of the remuneration, notice, severance allowance or gratuity due.

(2) An application under subsection (1) shall be made where the supervising officer –

- (a) (i) has lodged a case before the Court on behalf of the worker or group of workers to claim notice, severance allowance or remuneration due to the worker or group of workers, as the case may be;
- (ii) is satisfied, following an enquiry made, that remuneration due to a worker has not been paid by an employer whose enterprise is under receivership, administration or liquidation;
- (iii) is notified that an order for payment of remuneration, notice or severance allowance has been made by the Redundancy Board and there has been non-compliance with the order; and

- (iv) is satisfied, following an enquiry made, that payment of gratuity due under section 99 or 100 has not been paid; and
 - (b)
 - (i) has reasonable grounds to believe that the employer may dispose of his property to the prejudice of the worker or group of workers to whom remuneration, notice, severance allowance or gratuity, as the case may be, is due; and
 - (ii) is satisfied that the amount or value of the property is proportionate to the amount due as remuneration, notice, severance allowance or gratuity, as the case may be.
- (3) In this section and in sections 36 and 39 –
 - “remuneration” has the same meaning as in section 2;
 - “severance allowance” –
 - (a) means the severance allowance payable by order of the Court under section 70(1) or by order of the Redundancy Board under section 72, 72A or 74;
 - (b) includes compensation payable pursuant to an agreement drawn under section 74.

36. Grant of protective order

(1) Where the supervising officer applies to the Judge in Chambers for a protective order, and the Judge in Chambers is satisfied, having regard to any relevant evidence, that there is reasonable ground to believe that –

(a) (i) payment of notice, severance allowance, remuneration or gratuity is due; and

(ii) where a notice under section 121 is issued, there is non-compliance with the notice;

(b) the employer may dispose of his property to the prejudice of the worker or group of workers to whom subject to section 35(1), payment of notice, severance allowance, remuneration or gratuity is due;

(c) the amount or value of the property is proportionate to the amount of the notice, severance allowance, remuneration or gratuity due,

the Judge in Chambers may order that the property shall not be disposed of or otherwise dealt with by any person except in such manner and in such circumstances as specified in the Order.

(2) Where the Judge in Chambers makes a protective order, the supervising officer shall, within 21 days of the making of the protective order, or such other period as the Judge in Chambers may direct, give notice of the order to the employer and any bank or other financial institution holding funds on behalf of the employer.

Amended by [\[Act No. 15 of 2021\]](#); [\[Act No. 15 of 2022\]](#)

37. Duration of protective order

(1) The protective order under section 36 shall remain in force for a period of 12 months.

(2) The supervising officer may, on good cause shown, apply to the Judge in Chambers to extend the duration of a protective order until the Court case referred to in section 35(2)(a) is disposed of or for such period as the Judge in Chambers thinks fit.

38. Order in respect of immovable property

(1) Following the grant of a protective order in respect of immovable property of a particular kind and where any enactment provides for the registration of title to, or charges over, property of that kind, the Judge in Chambers may, on application by the supervising officer, order the Registrar-General to make entries in a register which may be consulted by a notary, an attorney or any other person who can show that he has a legitimate interest to do so.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) shall be registered free of any tax, duty or fee.

(3) An order under subsection (1) may include a restriction that the property shall not, without the order of the Judge in Chambers –

- (a) be mortgaged or otherwise burdened;
- (b) be attached or sold in execution;
- (c) vest in the liquidator when the estate of the owner of that immovable property is sequestrated; or
- (d) where the owner of the property is a corporate body, form part of the assets of that corporate body where it is wound up.

(4) Where an order is made under this section, the supervising officer shall –

- (a) cause notice of the order to be published in the next issue of the Gazette and in at least 2 newspapers having wide circulation; and
- (b) give notice of the order to –

- (i) all notaries;
- (ii) all banks, financial institutions and cash dealers.

39. Variation and discharge of protective order

(1) Any person may apply to the Judge in Chambers for the variation and discharge of the protective order granted under section 36.

(2) The Judge in Chambers –

(a) may vary or discharge the protective order where necessary in the interests of justice; or

(b) shall discharge the order where –

(i) the notice, severance allowance, remuneration or gratuity due to the worker or group of workers has been paid;

(ii) the court case referred to in section 35(2)(a) has been disposed of; or

(iii) it is in the interest of justice to do so.

(3) Where a protective order in respect of an immovable property is varied or discharged, the Judge in Chambers shall direct the Registrar-General to make appropriate entries in the Register of Protective Orders specified in section 38A of the Notaries Act.

Section B – Wage Guarantee Fund Account

40. Wage Guarantee Fund Account

(1) The Workfare Programme Fund shall hold an account to be known as the Wage Guarantee Fund Account.

(2) The purpose of the Wage Guarantee Fund Account shall be to pay –

- (a) remuneration due to a worker up to an amount of 50,000 rupees; and
- (b) any amount due as may be prescribed in relation to the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund where contributions have not been made, where an enterprise in which the worker is employed is considered to be insolvent.

(3) In this section –

“remuneration” means basic wage for not more than the last 3 months, wages as indemnity in lieu of notice and end of year gratuity or bonus paid in accordance with the End of Year Gratuity Act or any other relevant enactment.

Amended by [\[Act No. 15 of 2021\]](#); [\[Act No. 12 of 2023\]](#)

41. Payment into Wage Guarantee Fund Account

There shall be paid into the Wage Guarantee Fund Account –

- (a) a seed capital as may be prescribed;
- (b) interests on investment;
- (c) any money recovered after the realisation of assets –

- (i) not exceeding the remuneration paid to a worker under the Wage Guarantee Fund Account; and
- (ii) by the Director-General in respect of non-contribution to Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund.

42. Redemption of claim

(1) A worker who is not paid remuneration where his employer is insolvent shall register a complaint with the supervising officer to be entitled to unpaid remuneration.

(2) Where a claim is made under subsection (1), the supervising officer shall inform the employer in writing of the amount claimed by the worker within 7 days of the date of registration of the claim.

(3) The employer shall, subject to subsection (4), submit to the supervising officer the details in connection with the remuneration paid and/or due to a worker in the form set out in the Third Schedule within 7 days of the date of receipt of the claim made under subsection (1).

(4) Where the supervising officer is satisfied that the claim is bona fide, he shall, within 7 days of the date on which the details required under subsection (3) have been submitted, give written notice to the employer, to pay any remuneration due within 7 days.

(5) Where an employer has received a notice under subsection (4), he shall inform the supervising officer –

- (a) of the date on which payment of remuneration will be effected to the workers; or
- (b) where funds are not available, of the date on which the employer intends to effect payment to the workers.

(6) Where the employer fails to pay remuneration under subsection (4), the supervising officer of the Ministry responsible for the subject of social security shall, within a period of 7 days, pay to the worker from the Wage Guarantee Fund Account under section 40, any remuneration due.

(7) The liquidator, other than the Official Receiver, a receiver, an administrator, a special administrator or any person appointed under the Insolvency Act shall, after realisation of the assets of the company –

- (a) inform the supervising officer of the amount available in respect of the balance of remuneration due to the worker;
- (b) pay the amount due to the worker up to a sum not in excess of 50,000 rupees to the Wage Guarantee Fund Account; and
- (c) where funds are available, pay to the worker any remaining balance in excess of 50,000 rupees as the supervising officer may determine.

Amended by [\[Act No. 7 of 2020\]](#); [\[Act No. 12 of 2023\]](#)

43. Recovery of overpayment of benefit

(1) (a) Where a person receives a benefit to which he is not entitled or which he is not qualified to receive or was disqualified from receiving, the amount of the benefit shall be recovered in accordance with paragraph (b).

(b) The Director-General shall recover any benefit referred to in paragraph (a) in the same manner as income tax is recoverable under Part XI of the Income Tax Act.

(2) Where any unpaid remuneration is paid into the bank account of a worker and it is subsequently found by the supervising officer that the benefit should not have been so paid, the bank shall, on written request to that effect by the supervising officer, refund the amount so paid to the Wage Guarantee Fund Account and may debit the bank account accordingly.

(3) The Court may, where it thinks fit and whether or not a claim to that effect has been made, order an employer to pay interest at a rate not exceeding 12 per cent per annum on the amount of wages due from the date of non-payment or short payment of wages to the date of payment.

Sub-Part IV – Other Conditions of Employment

Section A – Meal allowance

44. Meal allowance

(1) A worker shall, in addition to any remuneration due, be provided by his employer with an adequate free meal or be paid a meal allowance in such amount as specified in the Fourth Schedule, where –

(a) he is required to perform more than 2 hours extra work after having completed his normal day's work on any day of the week; or

(b) he is required to perform a normal day's work of at least 10 hours.

(2) The meal allowance referred to in subsection (1) shall be paid not later than on the last working day of the pay period.

(3) Subsection (1) shall not apply to a migrant worker where the migrant worker is being paid a meal allowance or is being provided a free meal for a value higher than what he would be entitled under this section.

(4) In this section, a normal day shall be deemed to be of –

(a) 8 hours for a worker employed on a 6-day week;

(b) 9 hours for a worker employed on 5-day week; or

(c) the number of stipulated hours specified in an agreement.

Section B – Entitlement to leaves

45. Annual leave

(1) Subject to subsection (11), every worker, other than a part-time worker, who remains in continuous employment with the same employer for a period of 12 consecutive months shall be entitled, during each subsequent period of 12 months while he remains in continuous employment, to 20 working days' annual leave.

(2) Every worker shall be entitled to 2 days' leave in every year, in addition to the leave specified in –

(a) subsection (1) or any other enactment; or

(b) any agreement, collective agreement or award of the Tribunal or an arbitrator.

(3) Leave specified in subsection (1) or (2) may be taken on full day, half day or such shorter period as agreed between an employer and a worker.

(4) Every worker, other than a part-time worker, who remains in continuous employment with the same employer for a period of 6 consecutive months and who has been present on all the working days during that period, shall be entitled to one day's annual leave during each subsequent month up to the twelfth month, while he remains in continuous employment with the same employer.

(5) Where a part-time worker remains in continuous employment with the same employer for a period of 12 consecutive months, he shall be entitled during each subsequent period of 12 months, to such number of days of annual leave on full pay computed in accordance with the following formula –

$N/W \times Y$, where –

“N” means the number of days of work he is required to perform in a week;

“W” means the number of working days in a week of a comparable full-time worker;

“Y” means the number of days of annual leave to which a worker is entitled under subsection (1), any other enactment including any Remuneration Regulations or Wages Regulations, or any agreement, collective agreement or an award of the Tribunal or an arbitrator.

(6) Where an employer and a worker are unable to agree as to when the leave under this section is to be taken, half of the leave period shall be fixed by the employer and the other half by the worker.

(7) A worker who wishes to take more than one day's annual leave consecutively shall, except where reasonable cause is shown, give his employer at least 48 hours' advance written notice.

(8) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), an employer shall pay to a worker a normal day's wage in respect of each day's leave still due to him at the end of the period of 12 consecutive months, where the worker has not taken or has not been granted by the employer all the leave the worker is entitled to under subsection (1), (2) or (5).

(b) Where during any period of 12 consecutive months, a worker has not requested for annual leave or where his request has not been granted, the worker may, instead of any payment under paragraph (a), opt to have the remaining leave accumulated and inform his employer in writing of his option.

(c) (i) An employer shall, where a worker ceases to be in his employment, whether on ground of termination of employment or otherwise, refund to the worker, any accumulated annual leave not taken by the worker or not granted by the employer.

(ii) The worker shall be paid a normal day's wage in respect of each day's annual leave refunded to him under subparagraph (i).

(9) An employer shall not, without reasonable cause, withhold the granting of leave to a worker under this section.

(10) Any agreement by a worker to relinquish his annual leave entitlement under this section shall be null and void.

(11) Subject to subsection (2), this section shall be subject to any other enactment, a collective agreement or an award.

46. Sick leave

(1) (a) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), every worker, other than a part-time worker, who remains in continuous employment with the same employer for a period of 12 consecutive months shall be entitled, during each subsequent period of 12 months while he remains in continuous employment, to 15 working days' sick leave on full pay.

(b) Where, at the end of a period of 12 consecutive months, a worker has not taken the sick leave to which he is entitled under paragraph (a), any outstanding sick leave shall be accumulated.

(2) (a) Where a part-time worker remains in continuous employment with the same employer for a period of 12 consecutive months, he shall be entitled, during each subsequent period of 12 months, to the number of days of sick leave on full pay computed in accordance with the following formula –

$N/W \times Y$, where –

“N” means the number of days of work he is required to perform in a week;

“W” means the number of working days in a week of a comparable full-time worker;

“Y” means the number of days of sick leave to which a worker is entitled under subsection (1)(a) or any other enactment including any Remuneration Regulations or Wages Regulations, or any agreement, collective agreement or award of the Tribunal or an arbitrator.

(b) Where, at the end of a period of 12 consecutive months, a part-time worker has not taken the sick leave to which he is entitled under paragraph (a), any outstanding sick leave shall be accumulated.

(3) Every worker, other than a part-time worker, who remains in continuous employment with the same employer for a period of 6 consecutive months and who has been present on all the working days during that period shall be entitled to one day's sick leave during each subsequent month up to the twelfth month, while he remains in continuous employment with that employer.

(4) Where a worker has exhausted the sick leave provided for under subsection (1)(a) or (2)(a) and has thereafter been granted sick leave –

(a) for time wholly spent in a hospital, or other medical institution; or

(b) for convalescence purposes after discharge from a hospital or other medical institution, such additional sick leave duly certified by a medical practitioner may be deducted from the accumulated sick leave, under subsection (1)(b) or (2)(b) and shall be on full pay.

(5) Where a worker absents himself on ground of illness, he shall, unless reasonable cause is shown and except where the employer is aware of the nature of the illness, notify his employer of his illness on the first day of absence.

(6) Where a worker remains ill for more than 3 consecutive working days, he shall forward to his employer a medical certificate –

(a) on the fourth day of absence; or

(b) where the worker is admitted to a hospital or other medical institution, within 3 days of his discharge from the hospital or medical institution.

(7) A medical certificate referred to in subsection (6) shall not be valid in respect of any period exceeding 3 days before the day on which it is issued.

(8) (a) Every employer may, at his own expense, cause a worker who is absent on ground of illness to be examined by a medical practitioner.

(b) Where a worker is required to attend a medical examination under paragraph (a), the employer shall, at his own expense, provide free transport to the worker to attend the medical examination.

(c) Where a worker is bedridden, the employer may, with the consent of the worker, cause a medical practitioner to examine the worker at the residence of that worker.

47. Vacation leave

(1) Subject to subsection (2), a worker, other than a migrant worker, who remains in continuous employment with the same employer for a period of at least 5 consecutive years shall be entitled to vacation leave of not more than 30 days, whether taken consecutively or otherwise, for every period of 5 consecutive years, to be spent abroad, locally or partly abroad and partly locally.

(2) Any subsequent eligibility period of 5 consecutive years shall be computed after the worker resumes work after the vacation leave under subsection (1).

(3) The vacation leave under subsection (1) shall be with pay and such pay shall, in case the worker opts to spend the vacation wholly or partly abroad, be effected at least 7 working days before the worker proceeds abroad.

(4) The vacation leave under this section shall be deemed to constitute attendance at work and shall not be cumulative.

(5) For the purpose of subsection (1), the computation of the period of 5 consecutive years shall start as from the date of the commencement of this Act.

47A. Leave to care for child, parents and grandparents with healthcare-related issues

(1) A worker shall, subject to subsection (2), be granted leave with pay to be reckoned, at his option, against any of his paid leave under section 45(1) and (2), 46(1) or 47(1) or any paid annual leave, sick leave or vacation leave entitlement under any other enactment to care for –

- (a) his child, including his adopted child;
- (b) his parents or grandparents,

having healthcare-related issues.

(2) A worker shall be granted leave under subsection (1) provided that –

- (a) he notifies his employer on the first day of absence;
- (b) he produces his birth and marriage certificate, the birth certificate of his or her spouse and the birth certificate of the child or adopted child, parent or grandparent, as the case may be;
- (c) in the case of an adopted child, he produces a certified copy of the relevant Court Order and the birth certificate of the child;
- (d) he produces, where he absents himself for more than 3 consecutive working days, a medical certificate certifying that his child or adopted child, parent or grandparent, as the case may be, has healthcare related issues; and
- (e) he produces such other relevant document which the employer may require.

(3) Any request for leave with pay to care for his parents or grandparents, other than for his child, shall not exceed 10 days.

(4) In this section –

“grandparent” means the mother or father of –

- (a) the worker’s parents; or
- (b) the parents of the spouse of the worker;

“parent” means the mother or father of the worker or of his or her spouse;

“spouse” means a person with whom the worker has contracted a civil or religious marriage.

Section C – Entitlement to maternity and paternity leaves

52. Maternity leave and other benefits

(1) A female worker shall, on production of a medical certificate, be entitled to 14 weeks' maternity leave on full pay to be taken –

- (a) before confinement, provided that at least 7 weeks' maternity leave shall be taken immediately following the confinement; or
- (b) after confinement.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), where a female worker who remains in continuous employment with the same employer for a period of 12 consecutive months gives birth to a child, she shall, on production of a medical certificate, be paid, within 7 days of her confinement, a maternity allowance, in such amount as specified in the Fourth Schedule.

(3) Where a part-time female worker remains in continuous employment with the same employer for a period of 12 consecutive months immediately preceding the beginning of leave specified in subsection (1), she shall, on production of a medical certificate, be entitled to an allowance computed in accordance with the following formula –

$$N/H \times \text{amount of maternity allowance specified in the Fourth Schedule,}$$

where–

“N” means the number of days of work she is required to perform in a week;

“H” means the number of working days in a week of a comparable full-time worker.

(4) Where a female worker suffers a miscarriage which is duly certified by a medical practitioner, she shall be entitled to 3 weeks’ leave followed by an additional 5 days’ leave, both on full pay, immediately after the miscarriage.

(5) Where a female worker gives birth to a stillborn child, she shall, on production of a medical certificate, be entitled to 14 weeks’ leave on full pay.

(6) Where a female worker, who has been in continuous employment with the same employer for a period of 12 consecutive months, adopts a child aged less than 12 months, the worker shall, on production of a certified copy of the relevant Court order and a copy of the act of birth of the child, be entitled to 14 weeks’ leave on full pay.

(7) (a) Where a female worker referred to in subsection (1) or (3) is nursing her unweaned child, she shall, for that purpose, be entitled on a daily basis at a time convenient to her and having regard to the needs of the child to, at least –

(i) 2 breaks of half-hour each; or

(ii) one break of one hour.

(b) The female worker shall be entitled to the break specified in paragraph (a) for a period of 6 months from the date of confinement or such longer period as a medical practitioner may recommend and the period of the break shall not be deducted from the number of hours of work of the worker.

(8) An employer shall not require a female worker to perform work in excess of a normal day’s work for a period of at least 2 months before her confinement.

(9) A female worker who is pregnant shall not, on a medical certificate produced to this effect and unless a medical practitioner certifies otherwise, be required to perform duties requiring continuous standing that may be detrimental to her health or the health of the baby.

(10) An employer shall not, except with the consent of a female worker, require the female worker to work between 6 p.m. and 6 a.m. during the 12 months following her confinement.

(11) An employer shall not, at any time, during the period where a female worker is on maternity leave or is nursing an unweaned child, give to the female worker notice of termination of employment for any reason, unless the grounds relates to the economic, technological, structural or similar nature affecting the employer's activities.

(12) Where, following a complaint made by, or representation received by or on behalf, of a worker, the supervising officer is of the opinion that no adequate arrangements have been made to nurse the unweaned child of a worker, the supervising officer may, after consultation with a medical practitioner, give such directions by written notice to the employer as he thinks fit.

- (c) in cases not covered by paragraph (a) or (b) unless the termination is effected not later than 7 days after the day the employer becomes aware of the misconduct.

(3) Before a charge of alleged misconduct is levelled against a worker, an employer may carry out an investigation into all the circumstances of the case and the period specified in subsection (2)(a)(i) or (b)(i) shall not commence to run until the completion of the investigation.

(4) Where an investigation carried out under subsection (3) discloses a suspected misconduct, the employer may formulate a charge against the worker.

(5) For the purpose of an oral hearing, the employer shall, at the request of the worker, make available for inspection to him or his representative, prior to the holding of the disciplinary hearing, such information or documents, as may be relevant to the charge, which the employer intends to adduce in evidence in the course of the hearing.

(6) No employer shall terminate a worker's agreement for reasons related to the worker's poor performance, unless –

- (a) the worker has been given an opportunity to answer any charge made against him in relation to his alleged poor performance and the worker has been given at least 7 days' notice to answer any charge against him –

- (i) in an oral hearing only; or

- (ii) in an oral hearing following his answer in writing.

- (aa) Deleted by [\[Act No. 12 of 2023\]](#)

- (b) the worker has been given at least 7 days' notice to answer any charge made against him in the oral hearing;

- (c) he cannot, in good faith, take any other course of action;

(d) the termination is effected not later than 7 days after the completion of the hearing under paragraph (a).

(7) Where the opportunity afforded to a worker to answer any charge made against him under subsection (2)(a)(ii) or (b)(ii) or (6)(a) is the subject of a disciplinary hearing, he may have the assistance of –

(a) a representative of a trade union or a legal representative, or both; or

(b) an officer, where he is not assisted as specified in paragraph (a).

(8) The worker and the employer may, during disciplinary hearing referred to in subsection (7), negotiate for the payment of a compensation to promote a settlement.

(9) Any written statement acknowledging guilt by a worker obtained at the instance of his employer shall not be admissible as evidence before a disciplinary hearing, or any authority or any Court.

(10) An employer shall, within 7 days of the receipt of a written request from or on behalf of the worker, give a copy of the minutes of proceedings of the disciplinary hearing –

(a) to the worker who has appeared before a disciplinary hearing; and

(b) to the person assisting the worker in the disciplinary hearing.

(11) (a) The disciplinary hearing initiated against a worker under this section shall be completed within 30 days of the date of the first oral hearing save and except, and subject to paragraph (b), where owing to the illness or death of any of the parties or witnesses, or the reconstitution of the disciplinary panel or change in the legal or other representatives of the parties, such hearing cannot be completed during that delay.

(b) The parties may agree to extend the delay referred to in paragraph (a), provided that the disciplinary hearing is completed not later than 60 days of the date of the first oral hearing.

(2) No employer shall insert in the certificate issued under subsection (1) any particulars other than those specified in the Fifth Schedule.

Sub-Part II – Severance Allowance

69. Payment of severance allowance

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3A), an employer shall pay severance allowance to a worker at the rate specified in section 70 where the worker has been in continuous employment for a period of not less than 12 continuous months with the employer –

(a) on a contract of indeterminate duration and that employer terminates his agreement in circumstances specified in section 70(1); or

(b) under one or more fixed-term contract with the same employer and the employer terminates his agreement in circumstances specified in section 70(1);

(2) No severance allowance shall be payable to a migrant worker or a non-citizen employed under one or more contracts of fixed duration at the expiry of his contracts.

(3) No severance allowance shall, unless otherwise agreed by the parties, be payable where a worker and an employer enter into an agreement under section 13(1) and the agreement comes to an end.

(3A) (a) Where a worker whose basic wage or salary exceeds 600,000 rupees in a year is paid, at the end of every period of 12 months or at the end of each contract of employment of a determinate duration, a gratuity, compensation or such other payment, by whatever name called, in lieu of pension or in respect of his length of service, the worker shall not be entitled to the payment of any severance allowance on the expiry of each contract or the last contract.

(b) Notwithstanding this Act and any other enactment, a worker referred to in paragraph (a) shall not be considered to be in continuous employment where he is employed successively under one or more contracts of a determinate duration.

(4) Where a worker claims severance allowance under subsection (1), the supervising officer shall enquire into the matter with a view to promoting a settlement.

(5) Where the matter under subsection (4) does not result in being satisfactorily settled, the supervising officer may enter proceedings before the Court if he is of the opinion that the worker has a bona fide case.

Sub-Part III – Reduction of Workforce and Closure of Enterprises

72. Reduction of workforce

(1) Subject to subsection (1A) and section 72A, an employer who intends to reduce the number of workers in his employment, either temporarily or permanently, or close down his enterprise, shall notify and negotiate with–

- (a) the trade union, where there is a recognised trade union;
- (b) the trade union having a representational status, where there is no recognised trade union; or
- (c) the workers’ representatives, elected by the workers where there is no recognised trade union or a trade union having representational status, to explore the possibility of avoiding the reduction of workforce or closing down by means of–

- (i) restrictions on recruitment;
- (ii) retirement of workers who are beyond the retirement age;
- (iii) reduction in overtime;
- (iv) shorter working hours to cover temporary fluctuations in manpower needs;
- (v) providing training for other work within the same undertaking; or
- (vi) redeployment of workers where the undertaking forms part of a holding company.

(1A) (a) Subject to paragraph (b), an employer shall, during such period as may be prescribed, not reduce the number of workers in his employment either temporarily or permanently or terminate the employment of any of his workers or close down his enterprise.

(b) Paragraph (a) shall not apply to –

- (i) an employer specified in section 72A; or
 - (ii) an employer who has applied for any of the financial assistance schemes set up by the institutions listed in the Tenth Schedule for the purpose of providing financial support to an enterprise adversely affected by the consequences of the Covid-19 virus, and his application has not been approved.
- (c) In this subsection –

(2) In this section –

“employer” means a person employing not less than 15 workers in an undertaking or an undertaking having an annual turnover of at least 25 million rupees;

“recognised trade union” means a trade union which has been granted recognition under the Employment Relations Act;

“representational status” means a registered trade union representing a worker in defence of his legal rights under section 31A of the Employment Relations Act.

(3) Where the intended reduction of workforce or closure is the subject of negotiation under subsection (1), the recognised trade union, the trade union having representational status or the workers’ representatives may agree with the employer on any of the possibilities specified in subsection (1) or on any alternative solution or on the payment of a compensation by way of a settlement.

(4) The supervising officer may, at the request of any of the parties specified in subsection (1), provide a conciliation service to assist parties in the negotiation in view of an agreement.

(5) Where no agreement is reached under subsection (3) or (4), or where there has been no negotiation, an employer who takes a course of action as specified in subsection (1), shall give written notice to the Redundancy Board set up under section 73, together with a statement showing cause for the reduction or closure at least 30 days before the intended reduction or closing down, as the case may be.

(5A) (a) Subject to subsections (1) and (3), an employer who intends to reduce the number of workers in his employment on the ground of restructuring for financial reasons, may, instead of applying for financial assistance under subsection (1A)(b)(ii), give written notice to the Redundancy Board, together with a statement containing the information specified in paragraph (c), at least 30 days before the intended reduction.

(b) The Board shall entertain a notification for an intended reduction given under paragraph (a) where it is satisfied that –

(i) the enterprise is over-indebted and not economically viable and any further debt would increase the risk of the enterprise being insolvent; and

(ii) the restructuring may enable the enterprise to manage the repayment of its debts without being insolvent and to dispose of adequate cash flow to continue its operations.

(c) An employer who gives written notice under this section shall submit to the Board, in addition to the following information and documents, such additional information and documents as the Board may require –

(i) information on the debtor's assets and liabilities at the time of the application;

(ii) information on the financial situation of the debtor and causes and extent of the difficulties of the debtor;

(iii) documentary evidence that the decision for restructuring and the restructuring plan have been approved by the Board of Directors of the enterprise or by the person in charge of the enterprise, as the case may be;

(iv) a statement as to why the restructuring plan has a reasonable prospect of preventing insolvency and saving jobs;

(v) the number of jobs to be saved.

(d) Where the employer fails to provide the information and documents specified in paragraph (c), the reduction of workforce shall be deemed to be unjustified.

(6) An employer shall not reduce the number of workers in his employment either temporarily or permanently before the time specified in section 75(8) and (9).

(7) A reduction of workforce or a closing down of an enterprise shall be deemed to be unjustified where the employer acts in breach of subsection (1),(1A), (5) or (6).

(8) Where the employment of a worker is terminated in breach of subsection (1), (1A), (5), (5A) or (6), or where an employer has failed to comply with an order of the Board under subsection (9), the worker may apply to the Board for an order directing his employer –

(a) to reinstate him in his former employment with payment of remuneration from the date of the termination of his employment to the date of his reinstatement; or

(b) to pay him severance allowance at the rate specified in section 70(1).

(9) Where the Board finds that the reasons of the notification made under subsections (5) or (5A) are unjustified, the Board shall make an order for the employer not to reduce his workforce or close down his enterprise.

(10) Where the Board finds that the termination of employment referred to in subsection (8) is unjustified or where the employer has failed to comply with an order of the Board under subsection (9), the Board shall –

(a) with the consent of the worker, order the employer to reinstate the worker in his former employment, with payment of remuneration from the date of termination to the date of his reinstatement; or

(b) subject to paragraph (a), order the employer to pay the worker severance allowance at the rate specified in section 70(1).

(10A) Where the Board finds that the termination of employment is justified, it shall make an order accordingly.

(11) Where, following an order of the Board under subsection (10A), an employer terminates the employment of a worker, the worker shall be entitled to 30 days' wages as indemnity in lieu of notice.

(11A) Where a worker is paid severance allowance under subsection (8) or (10), the employer may deduct the contributions payable into the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund from the amount of severance allowance paid to the worker.

(12) Where the Board makes an order under subsections (10) and (11), the order shall be enforced in the same manner as an order of the Industrial Court.

72A. Reduction of workforce in certain enterprises in the services sector

(1) The Minister may, by regulations, exempt an employer who provides services in the sectors specified in the Eleventh Schedule from the application of section 72.

(2) Where an employer who has been exempted pursuant to subsection (1) intends to reduce the number of workers in his employment, either temporarily or permanently, or close down his enterprise, the employer shall give written notice to the Board, together with a statement showing cause for the reduction or closure at least 15 days before the intended reduction or closing down, as the case may be.

(3) Notwithstanding section 75(8) and (9), the Board shall complete its proceedings within 30 days from the date of notification by the employer.

(4) (a) Subject to paragraph (d), where the Board finds that the reasons for the reduction of the workforce or the closing down are justified, the Board shall order that the worker shall be paid 30 days' wages as indemnity in lieu of notice.

(b) Where the Board finds that the reasons for the reduction of the workforce or the closing down are unjustified, the Board shall order the employer to pay to the worker severance allowance at the rate specified in section 70(1).

(c) Where a worker is paid severance allowance under paragraph (b), the employer may deduct the contributions payable to the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund from the amount of severance allowance paid to the worker.

(d) Where a notice of intended reduction of workforce related to a business organisation is given to the Board, and the Board is satisfied that the procedure adopted by the employer for the reduction of workforce is in the best interest of the business, the Board shall not order the employer to pay severance allowance.

(5) Where the Board finds that the reasons for the reduction of the workforce or the closing down are justified under subsection 4(a), the Board shall, in lieu of the termination of employment, at the request of the employer and subject to the consent of the worker concerned, order that the worker, or such category of workers as the employer may designate, shall proceed on leave without pay for such period as the employer may specify in his notification subject to the condition that the resumption of employment be on such new terms and conditions, including pension benefits, as the employer may, prior to resumption of work, offer to the worker.

(6) Where the Board makes an order under subsection (4) or (5), the order shall be enforced in the same manner as an order of the Industrial Court.

(ii) he has been granted sick leave for the purpose of convalescence after his discharge or was on sick leave immediately after his discharge; or

(iii) he was bedridden during the specified period.

(2) A worker shall be entitled to a transition unemployment benefit for a period of not less than one month nor more than 12 months at the rates specified in the Sixth Schedule.

(2A) Notwithstanding subsections (2) and (10), but subject to subsection (7), where, following the expiry of the COVID-19 period for the year 2020, the employment of a worker is terminated for any reason and the worker reckons at least 30 days' and less than 180 days' continuous employment with the same employer as at the date of the termination of his employment, whether on a fixed term agreement or not, the worker shall be entitled to the payment of a transition unemployment benefit of 5,100 rupees per month for the period starting on 1 July 2020 and ending on 31 December 2020.

(3) Where a worker registers himself within 30 days of the date of his termination of employment, he shall be entitled to a transition unemployment benefit accruing as from the beginning of the month in which his employment is terminated or where he has been given a notice of termination on the expiry of the notice.

(4) (a) Subject to subsection (3), where the worker registers himself after 30 days of the date of his termination of employment, he shall be entitled to a transition unemployment benefit accruing as from date of his registration unless good cause is shown.

(b) In paragraph (a) –

“good cause” means –

- (i) illness or injury certified by a medical practitioner; or
- (ii) the failure of the worker to register his complaint was due to the fact that he was outside Mauritius.

(5) Where a worker has made a claim for the payment of the transition unemployment benefit and the supervising officer is satisfied that the claim is bona fide, the supervising officer shall, within 7 days of the date of the claim, notify the Ministry responsible for the subject of social security in the form set out in the Eighth Schedule.

(6) The supervising officer of the Ministry responsible for the subject of social security shall, not later than 10 days after receipt of a claim under subsection (5), pay to the worker, in his individual bank account, the transition unemployment benefit to which he is entitled under subsection (3) or (4).

(7) The transition unemployment benefit shall cease as from the end of the month in which the worker –

- (a) becomes gainfully employed on a full-time basis for a period of at least 30 consecutive days; or
- (b) reaches retirement age;
- (c) declines, for the second time, an offer for a job or training, which is in accordance with his profile and qualifications.

(8) Where a worker becomes gainfully employed, he shall, within 7 days accordingly notify the supervising officer, in writing or electronically or in such other manner as the supervising officer may determine, specifying whether he is gainfully employed on a full-time basis or otherwise.

(8A) (1) The supervising officer shall, in the case of a worker who becomes gainfully employed on a full-time basis, within 7 days of the receipt of the notification under subsection (8), inform the supervising officer of the Ministry responsible for the subject of social security of that notification.

(2) The supervising officer of the Ministry responsible for the subject of social security shall, on being informed under subsection (1), forthwith take such action as may be necessary to stop payment of the transition unemployment benefit to the worker.

(8B) Where a worker who becomes gainfully employed on a full-time basis for a period of at least 30 consecutive days fails to notify the supervising officer under subsection (8), the worker shall commit an offence.

(8C) (a) Any worker who, after becoming gainfully employed on a full-time basis for a period of at least 30 consecutive days –

- (i) fails to notify the supervising officer under subsection (8); and
- (ii) continues to benefit from payment of the transition unemployment benefit into a bank account, the worker shall refund the payment received to the Workfare Programme Fund, or request the bank to make the refund, within one month of the date of payment.

(b) Any worker who fails to refund any payment received or to request the bank to make the refund under paragraph (a) shall commit an offence.

(9) The transitional unemployment benefit shall be financed in the manner specified in the Seventh Schedule.

(10) In this section –

95. Contributions for past services

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3), an employer shall, in addition to any contribution paid under section 94, pay the contributions in respect of the past services of a worker who is in his employment on the commencement of this Part.

(2) The contributions required to be paid under subsection (1) shall –

- (a) (i) in the case of a worker whose employment is terminated, be paid as from the date of employment with the employer;
- (ii) in the case of a worker who has resigned, be paid as from 1 January 2020, to the Director-General, not later than one month after the date of termination of employment or the date of resignation of the worker as the case may be, and computed at such rate as may be prescribed on the basis of the monthly remuneration of the worker for the last completed month; or

(b) where the employer opts to pay the contributions to the Director-General, be paid, in the case of the events specified in paragraph (a), at any time before the occurrence of these events.

(2A) (a) An employer shall –

(i) where his worker retires in circumstances specified in section 98;

(ii) where his worker dies,

pay to him, or his legal heirs or legal representative, as the case may be, a gratuity computed in accordance with section 96(4) in lieu of contributions for his past services.

(b) A worker, his legal heirs or legal representative, as the case may be, who is not or are not paid in accordance with paragraph (a), shall register a complaint with the supervising officer.

(c) The employer shall pay the gratuity –

(i) to the worker not later than the last day of his employment; or

(ii) to the legal heirs or legal representative of the deceased worker, on submission of relevant legal documents.

(d) Where an employer has paid a gratuity to a worker or the legal heirs or legal representative of the worker under paragraph (a) or (b), the employer shall, within 15 days of the date of payment, make a return to the administrator and the Director-General, specifying the name of the worker and amount of gratuity paid.

(3) The contributions under this section shall be computed on the basis of the remuneration, for the last completed month, drawn by the worker –

(a) at the commencement of this Part; or

- (b) in the case of contributions made under subsection (2), at the time the employment of the worker is terminated or the worker resigns, as the case may be.

95A. Contributions for past length of service in other circumstances

(1) Subject to subsection (3), where an employer insures a worker in a private pension scheme, in the Sugar Industry Pension Fund or in any other pension fund set up under the Sugar Industry Pension Fund Act, the employer shall, not later than one month after the date of termination of employment or resignation of the worker, pay to the Director-General any contribution computed in accordance with section 96(4) or any other enactment for the period the worker's retirement benefits were not covered by a private pension scheme, the Sugar Industry Pension Fund or any other pension fund set up under the Sugar Industry Pension Fund Act.

(2) The employer shall –

- (a) where the worker retires in circumstances specified in section 98 or 109, as appropriate; or
- (b) where the worker dies, pay to the worker referred to in subsection (1) or the legal heirs or legal representative of the deceased worker, as the case may be, a gratuity in accordance with section 96(4).

(3) For the purpose of subsection (1), where a worker who was in employment prior to 1 January 2020 resigns from his employment, the contribution for any past length of service shall start as from 1 January 2020.

Amended by [\[Act No. 15 of 2022\]](#); [\[Act No. 12 of 2023\]](#)

96. Shortfall or surplus of contributions

- (1) (a) Subject to subsection (3) and section 95(2), where –
 - (i) the employment of a worker is terminated by his employer; and
 - (ii) the value of the accumulated fund standing in the individual account of the worker in respect of his length of service, including his past service with the employer, is less than the lump sum computed in accordance with subsection (4),

the administrator shall, not later than one month after the date of receipt of the statement specified in section 102(3), notify the employer and the worker, in writing, of the amount representing the difference between the value of the accumulated fund and the lump sum and the computation thereof.

(b) The employer to whom a notification is sent under paragraph (a) shall, not later than one month after the receipt of the notification, pay into the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund contributions equivalent to the amount representing the difference referred to in paragraph (a).

- (2) (a) Subject to subsection (3), where –
 - (i) a worker resigns or ceases to be in the employment of an employer otherwise than where his employment is terminated; and
 - (ii) the value of the accumulated fund standing in the individual account of the worker in respect of his length of service with that employer is less than the lump sum computed in accordance with subsection (4),

the administrator shall, not later than one month after the date of receipt of the statement specified in section 102(3), notify the employer and the worker , in writing, of the amount representing the difference between the value of the accumulated fund and the lump sum and the computation thereof.

(b) The employer to whom a notification is sent under paragraph (a) shall, not later than one month after the receipt of the notification, pay into the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund the amount representing the difference referred to in paragraph (a).

(3) Where a worker retires or dies and the value of the accumulated fund standing in the account of the worker in respect of his length of service with the employer, including his past service, is less than the lump sum computed in accordance with subsection (4), the administrator shall notify the employer and the worker, his legal heirs or legal representative, as the case may be, in writing, of the amount representing the difference between the value of the accumulated fund and the lump sum and the computation thereof.

(4) The lump sum referred to in subsections (1), (2) and (3) shall be computed –

(a) in the case of a worker, including a part-time worker, on the basis of –

(i) 15 days' final remuneration for every period of 12 months' employment; and

(ii) a sum equal to one twelfth of the sum payable for 12 months' employment multiplied by the number of months during which the worker has remained in the employment of the employer, for every period of less than 12 months;

(aa) in the case of a worker, including a part-time worker who reckons service with his employer for a period of less than 12 months, a sum equal to the sum referred to in paragraph (a)(ii);

(b) Deleted by [\[Act No. 12 of 2023\]](#)

(5) Where the value of the accumulated fund standing in the individual account of a worker in respect of his length of service, including his past service, with an employer exceeds the lump sum computed in accordance with subsection (4), the amount representing the difference between the value of the accumulated fund and the lump sum shall –

- (a) be used to make up for any unpaid contribution due by the employer;
or
- (b) be credited in the employer's account in the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund and used by the employer to pay the contributions for the past services of his other workers, where appropriate.

(6) (a) A worker, legal heirs or legal representative of a worker, as the case may be, who is not or are not paid the amount representing the difference referred to in this section shall register a complaint with the supervising officer.

(b) The supervising officer shall enquire into the complaint in accordance with section 120.

(7) Where an employer fails to pay to the worker, legal heirs or legal representative of a worker any payment due under this section, the employer shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine of not less than 50,000 rupees nor more than 150,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months.

(8) For the purposes of this Act, the formula referred to in subsection (4) provides the method for the computation of the minimum gratuity payable under this Part.

(9) Notwithstanding the amount of gratuity determined by the Board under the Sugar Industry Pension Fund Act, any worker whose pension benefits are covered under the Sugar Industry Pension Fund Act shall be entitled to a gratuity which shall not be less than the lump sum calculated in accordance with subsection (4).

99. Payment of gratuity in case of employment with same employer

(1) Subject to subsection (2), where a worker remains in the employment of one and same employer for the whole duration of his service, a gratuity made up of the accumulated fund standing in his individual account shall be paid to him on his retirement in the circumstances specified in section 98, or to his legal heirs or legal representative, on his death.

(2) Where the value of the accumulated fund in the account of a worker referred to in subsection (1) is less than the lump sum calculated in accordance with section 96(4), or any payment provided in any other relevant enactment or any agreement –

- (a) the administrator shall pay to the worker, his legal heirs or legal representative, as the case may be, the gratuity equivalent to the value of the accumulated fund standing in the individual account of the worker; and

- (b) the employer shall pay to the worker, his legal heirs or legal representative , as the case may be, not later than one month after a notification is sent to him under section 96(3), the balance of the gratuity equivalent to the amount representing the difference between the value of the accumulated fund and the lump sum or the payment provided for in any other relevant enactment or any agreement, as may be applicable.
- (3) (a) The gratuity under subsection (2)(a) shall be paid in 2 instalments as follows –
 - (i) 90 per cent of the value of the accumulated fund shall be paid on the date of the retirement of the worker, for the period starting from the date of employment, up to 2 months prior to the date of retirement; and
 - (ii) the balance shall be paid 2 months following the retirement of the worker.
- (c) Where the worker opts to retire before the retirement age, he shall notify his employer one month before his retirement date and the employer shall, forthwith, inform the Director-General.
- (3) Where the terms and conditions of employment of a worker is covered by a collective agreement, the gratuity payable to the worker on his retirement or to his legal representative or legal heirs on his death, under the collective agreement, shall not be less than the lump sum calculated in accordance with section 96(4).

Amended by [\[Act No. 15 of 2022\]](#)

100. Payment of gratuity in case of employment with one or more employers

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a worker has been in the employment of more than one employer, a gratuity made up of the accumulated fund standing in the individual account of the worker in respect of his total length of service with each employer shall be paid to him, on his retirement under the circumstances specified in section 98, or to his legal heirs or legal representative , on his death.

(2) Where the value of the accumulated fund in the individual account of the worker insofar as it relates to the contributions, including interests, paid by the last employer in the account of the worker is, at the time of the retirement or death of the worker, less than the lump sum computed in accordance with section 96(4), or any payment provided in any other relevant enactment or any agreement –

(a) the worker, legal heirs or legal representative , as the case may be, shall be paid the gratuity equivalent to the value of the accumulated fund in the individual account of the worker; and

(b) the last employer shall, not later than one month after a notification is sent to him under section 96(3), pay to the worker, legal heirs or legal representative , as the case may be, in respect of the period during which the worker has been in his employment, the balance of the gratuity which is the amount representing the difference between the value of the accumulated fund and the lump sum or any payment as provided in any other relevant enactment or any agreement, whichever is higher.

(3) Where the terms and conditions of employment of a worker are covered by a collective agreement, the gratuity payable to the worker on his retirement or to his legal representative or legal heirs on his death, by the last employer, under the collective agreement, shall not be less than the lump sum calculated in accordance with section 96(4).

(4) (a) The gratuity under subsection (2)(a) shall be paid in 2 instalments as follows –

(i) 90 per cent of the value of the accumulated fund shall be paid on the date of the retirement of the worker, for the period starting from the date of employment, up to 2 months prior to the date of retirement; and

(2) The Director-General shall, for the purpose of subsection (1), keep records, in respect of every financial year, of –

- (a) the amount of contribution, including surcharge, collected from every employer in respect of every worker;
- (b) any administration fee paid; and

- (c) the amount of unpaid contribution, or surcharge, due by every employer at the end of the financial year.

(3) The Director-General shall issue in such form and manner as may be prescribed –

- (a) a quarterly return to –
 - (i) the administrator, specifying the amount collected as contributions and surcharges from each employer; and
 - (ii) an employer in respect of such amount collected as contributions and surcharge from the employer; and
- (b) a statement to the worker at the end of each financial year, specifying the contributions made on his behalf by his employer for that financial year.

104. Establishment of Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund Advisory Committee

(1) There is set up for the purpose of the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund Advisory Committee.

- (2) The Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund Advisory Committee shall –
 - (a) advise the Minister on the operation of the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund;
 - (b) make recommendations to the Minister for the viability of the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund, based on an actuarial evaluation;
 - (c) make recommendations to the Minister in relation to matters pertaining to the grant of benefits to the workers or self-employed under the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund;

- (d) make recommendations to the Minister on changes required to the legal and policy decisions with a view to enhancing the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund and maintaining its viability; and
 - (e) perform any other function in relation to the operation of the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund.
- (3) The Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund Advisory Committee shall consist of –
- (a) the supervising officer, who shall be the chairperson;
 - (b) a representative of the Ministry responsible for the subject of finance;
 - (c) a representative of the Ministry responsible for the subject of social security;
 - (d) 3 representatives of the workers' organisation, to be appointed by the Minister after consultation with the most representative worker's organisations; and
 - (e) 3 representatives of the employers' organisation, to be appointed by the Minister after consultation with the most representative employer's organisations.

(4) The Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund Advisory Committee shall meet as often as is necessary but at least once every 6 months and at such time and place as the chairperson thinks fit.

(5) At any meeting of the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund Advisory Committee, 5 members shall constitute a quorum.

(6) Subject to this section, the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund Advisory Committee shall regulate its meetings and proceedings in such manner as it may determine.

(7) The Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund Advisory Committee may set up any such subcommittees as may be necessary for the administration of the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund.

105. Investment Committee

(1) The Investment Committee set up under section 38 of the National Pensions Act shall act as the Investment Committee of the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund.

(2) Any surplus remaining in the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund may be held on deposit with the Government or invested in such manner as the Investment Committee may determine, having regard to –

- (a) the need for an appropriate level of liquidity in the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund; and
- (b) the need to secure the future value of the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund.

106. Audited accounts of Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund

(1) The Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund Advisory Committee shall cause to be published in the Gazette the audited annual accounts of the Fund, setting out –

- (a) the payments made into and out of the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund;
- (b) the assets and liabilities of the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund with particular reference to any investment held by the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund.

(2) The Minister responsible for the subject of social security shall, at the earliest available opportunity, lay a copy of the audited annual accounts of the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund before the National Assembly.

107. Statement of account

The administrator shall issue, in such manner as the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund Advisory Committee may determine, an annual statement of account to each worker after the end of every financial year.

108. Surcharge and interests on late contributions

(1) Without prejudice to any legal proceedings which may be instituted under this Part, where an employer fails, within the prescribed time, to pay into the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund the whole or part of any contributions payable under section 94, 95, 95A, 96 or 97, he shall, in addition to the contributions payable, pay –

- (a) a surcharge of 10 per cent of any contribution remaining unpaid; and
- (b) interest at the rate of one per cent for each month or part of the month during which any contributions remain unpaid.

(2) The employer shall not recover from a worker any surcharge or interests payable under subsection (1).

(3) For the purpose of determining whether a surcharge is leviable under this section, the contributions shall be deemed to have been made on the date payment is received by the Director-General.

PART IX – GRATUITY ON RETIREMENT AND AT DEATH

Sub-Part I – Gratuity on Retirement

109. Gratuity on retirement

(1) An employer shall pay a gratuity to a worker who has been in continuous employment with him for a period of 12 months or more where the worker –

- (a) voluntarily retires on or after attaining the age of 60;
- (b) retires before attaining the age of 60, in accordance with any other relevant enactment or any agreement;
- (c) retires at the request of the employer on or after attaining the retirement age; or
- (d) retires before attaining the age of 60, on grounds of permanent incapacity, duly certified by a Government medical practitioner, to perform his work; or
- (e) retires on grounds of incapacity to perform his normal work arising from injury sustained at work and where such incapacity is duly certified by a Government medical practitioner.

(1A) Notwithstanding any agreement or any provision to the contrary in any other enactment, an employer shall not require a worker to retire before the retirement age.

(2) (a) Where a worker who has attained the age of 60 remains in continuous employment with the same employer up to the retirement age, the worker and the employer may agree on an advance payment of the total gratuity payable at the retirement age, amounting to the gratuity payable at the age of 60 calculated in accordance with subsection (3).

(b) Advance payment of the gratuity, where agreed upon under paragraph (a), shall be effected upon the worker attaining the age of 60.

(3) The gratuity referred to in subsection (1) shall be paid in a lump sum and shall be calculated –

- (a) in the case of a worker including a part-time worker, on the basis of –

- (i) 15 days' remuneration for every period of 12 months' continuous employment; and
- (ii) a sum equal to one twelfth of the sum referred to in subparagraph (i) multiplied by the number of months during which the worker has remained in the continuous employment of the employer, for every period less than 12 months;

(b) Deleted by [\[Act No. 12 of 2023\]](#)

(4) An employer may deduct from any gratuity payable under subsection (3) and section 110 –

- (a) half the amount of any gratuity due at the retirement age or the age of 60 or at death from any fund or scheme, computed by reference only to the employer's share of contributions;
- (b) 5 times the amount of any annual pension granted at the retirement age or the age of 60 or at death from any fund or scheme, computed by reference only to the employer's share of contributions;
- (c) any other gratuity granted at the retirement age or the age of 60 or at death by the employer;
- (d) 10 times the amount of any other annual pension granted at the retirement age or the age of 60 or at death by the employer.

(4A) Where a worker has not been paid a retirement benefit under a private pension scheme sponsored by an employer, the employer shall pay the worker a lump sum equivalent to 15 days remuneration per year of service.

(5) In this section –

“fund or scheme” means any pension or provident fund or scheme set up by the employer for the benefit of the worker;

“remuneration” means –

- (a) the remuneration drawn by a worker for the last complete month of his employment with an employer; or
- (b) the average monthly remuneration drawn by a worker, including payment made over a period of 12 months before the worker ceases to be in the employment of an employer in any manner whatsoever as –
 - (i) commission in return of services up to 1,200,000 rupees;
 - (ii) end of year bonus;
 - (iii) any other regular payment,

whichever is higher;

“worker” means –

- (a) a worker whose retirement benefits are payable in accordance with a private pension scheme or the Sugar Industry Pension Fund Act;
 - (aa) for the purpose of subsection (1A), any worker, irrespective of his rate of basic wage or salary;
 - (b) a worker drawing a monthly basic wage or salary of more than 200,000 rupees and whose retirement benefits are not payable under any private pension scheme;
 - (c) a migrant worker or a non-citizen.
- (6) For the purposes of this section –
- (a) a day’s remuneration shall be –

- (i) the remuneration drawn by the worker in respect of his last normal working day other than a public holiday; or
- (ii) an amount computed in the manner as is best calculated to give the daily rate at which the worker was remunerated over a period of 12 months prior to the termination of his agreement, inclusive of payment for extra work, productivity bonus, attendance bonus, commission in return for services and any other regular payment,

whichever is higher;

- (b) the notional calculation for both a full-time and a part-time worker shall be on the basis of 26 days in a month.

(7) Where a matter relating to the payment of gratuity on retirement or at death is brought before the Court, the Court may, where it thinks fit and whether or not a claim to that effect has been made, order an employer to pay interest at a rate not exceeding 12 per cent per annum on the amount of gratuity payable from the date of retirement or death to the date of payment.

(b) Any person to whom a written notice is issued under paragraph (a)

who–

- (ii) refuses to accept delivery of the written notice; or
- (iii) fails to take delivery of the written notice after being informed that it awaits him at a post office, shall be deemed to have been duly served with the written notice on the day on which he refuses to accept delivery thereof or he is informed that it awaits him at a post office.

(4) (a) Any person who commits an offence under subsection (2) shall, on a first or second conviction, be liable to a fine of 5,000 rupees or in the case of a third or subsequent conviction, to a fine of 10,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 10 days.

(b) The Court may, on the conviction of any person under this Act, where it thinks appropriate, make an order directing that person to comply with this Act or any order made by the Court within such time as may be fixed in the order.

(c) A person who fails to comply with an order made under paragraph (b) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees.

Amended by [\[Act No. 12 of 2023\]](#)

120. Complaint procedure

(1) Any worker may make a complaint to the supervising officer against his employer or any agent of the employer, in respect of any matter arising out of his employment.

(2) The supervising officer shall enquire into the complaint made under subsection (1) in the manner specified in section 118.

(3) No employer or any agent of an employer shall prevent a worker from making a complaint to the supervising officer under subsection (1).

(4) An employer or any agent of an employer who prevents a worker from making a complaint to the supervising officer under subsection (1) shall commit an offence.

(5) The supervising officer may refer a complaint reported by a worker under subsection (1), to the Commission for conciliation or mediation.

(6) Where the supervising officer is informed by the Commission that the complaint referred to it under subsection (5) –

(a) has been resolved by way of an agreement, no further action shall be taken on the complaint;

(b) has not been resolved, the supervising officer may proceed with any action as he is empowered to take in accordance with any provision of the Act.

(7) In this section –

“Commission” means the Commission for Conciliation and Mediation established under section 87 of the Employment Relations Act.

Amended by [\[Act No. 15 of 2022\]](#)

121. Notice of compliance

(1) (a) Where following an enquiry made under section 120(2), the supervising officer has reasonable grounds to believe that the employer has not complied with this Act or any other enactment relating to the employment of a worker, he may serve a notice to the employer requesting him to comply with the Act or other enactment.

(b) A notice under paragraph (a) shall specify, inter alia –

(i) the name of the employer;

(ii) the provision of this Act or the other enactment, which has not been complied with; and

(iii) the penalty provided for non-compliance, referred to in subparagraph (ii).

(2) An employer to whom a notice under subsection (1) is issued may, within 7 days of the receipt of the notice, appeal against such notice before the Court, which may, after hearing the parties, revoke or affirm the notice.

(3) Where the Court affirms the notice, it shall order the employer to comply with the notice.

(4) The supervising officer may apply to the Court for a compliance order if an employer has not complied with a notice of compliance issued under this section or has not challenged the notice of compliance.

(5) Where an employer does not challenge a notice, or where he challenges the notice and the Court affirms the notice, the employer shall comply with the requirements thereof within 14 days of the date of receipt of the notice or the date of the decision of the Court.

(6) Subject to subsection (3), an employer who fails to comply with a compliance notice by the specified date shall commit an offence.

127. Savings and transitional provisions

(1) (a) Where, before the commencement of this Act, a worker and an employer have entered into one or more determinate agreements for a total period of more than 12 months and where the worker was employed in a position of a permanent nature, the agreement shall, on the commencement of this Act, be deemed to be an indeterminate agreement with effect from the month immediately following the twelfth month of employment under the agreement.

(b) For avoidance of doubt, in paragraph (a) –

“worker” means a worker referred to in section 5(3) of the repealed Employment Rights Act.

(2) (a) Any disciplinary proceedings which has started under section 38(2) and (3) of the repealed Act and is pending at the commencement of this Act, shall be dealt with in accordance of the repealed Act as if this Act has not come into operation.

(b) Any disciplinary proceedings which has not started at the commencement of this Act shall be dealt with in accordance with this Act.

(3) The duration of suspension with pay specified in section 38(7) of the repealed Act shall, where the worker is still suspended from work on the commencement of this Act, be the duration of suspension with pay specified in the repealed Act.

(4) The Employment Promotion and Protection Division set up within the Tribunal under section 39A of the repealed Act shall continue to operate for such period as may be necessary to determine all matters referred to it by the Permanent Secretary under section 39B of the repealed Act.

(5) The ex gratia payment made to the former workers of Palmar Limitée (in receivership) and Future Textiles Limited (in receivership) before the commencement of section 78(2)(d) of this Act shall be deemed to have been made pursuant to that section.

(6) A reference in any enactment to the repealed Employment Rights Act shall be construed as a reference to the Workers' Rights Act 2019 or the corresponding section thereof.

(6A) (a) Where a worker retires or dies on or after 1 January 2020 and where no contribution is made in respect of the worker by his employer under section 94, 95, 96 or 97, as applicable, any gratuity to the worker, his legal heirs or his legal representative shall, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, be paid by his employer and the amount of such gratuity shall be calculated in such manner as may be prescribed.

(b) Where a worker resigns, or the employment of a worker is terminated, on or after 1 January 2020, and where no contribution is made in respect of the worker by his employer under section 94, 95, 96 or 97, as applicable, any contribution to be made by his employer to the Portable Retirement Gratuity Fund shall be calculated at such rate as may be prescribed.

(6B) Any complaint registered under section 69A which is pending before the Ministry prior to the commencement of this section, shall be referred to the Tribunal within 30 days of the commencement of this section.

(7) Where this Act does not make provisions for the necessary transition from the repealed Act to this Act, the Minister may make such regulations as may be necessary for such transition.

(8) In this section –

“repealed Act” means the Employment Rights Act repealed under section 125.
