

MRA Passing out Ceremony for 54 Customs Trainees

The MRA organized a passing out ceremony for 54 Customs Officers I on 06 July 2009 at Sir Vaghjee Hall, Government House, Port Louis. Trainee Customs Officers underwent a six-month intensive training programme comprising of class room lectures and on the job training.

The Chief Guest, Mr Ali Mansoor, Financial Secretary emphasized on the importance to continually improve customer services. Mr S. Lal, Director General spoke of the need to provide training to staff as the main asset of the organization is the human capital. Mr Mendes, Director, Customs stressed on the various responsibilities entrusted to the newly appointed customs officers, among which are border control and trade facilitation. Mr M. Gundola was awarded Best Trainee Customs Officer and Mrs M.V. Frivet received the Best Trainee Customs Officer (Female) certificate. The newly appointed Customs Officers confirmed their commitment to the organization by a solemn pledge.