Where arrears of emoluments earned in an income year are received by a person in the following or any subsequent income year, those emoluments shall be deemed to have been earned in the income year in which they are received.

12. Income received in anticipation

Where income is derived by a person in any year by way of premium or payment in advance or in any like manner by way of anticipation, the Director-General may, on the written application of that person during the following year, apportion that income between the income year and any number of subsequent years not exceeding 5, and the part so apportioned to each of those years shall be deemed to be income derived in that year.

13. Valuation of trading stock

(1) Where a person owns or carries on a business, the value of his trading stock at the beginning and at the end of every income year shall be taken into account in ascertaining whether or not he has derived income during that year under section 10(1)(b).

(2) The value of the trading stock to be taken into account shall be determined on such basis as may be prescribed.
14. Transfer of trading stock with other assets or for inadequate consideration

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Act, where any trading stock is sold or otherwise transferred together with other assets, the part of the consideration attributable to the trading stock shall be determined by the Director-General, and the part of the consideration so determined shall be deemed to be the price paid for the trading stock by the purchaser.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1), any trading stock which has been transferred otherwise than by sale shall be deemed to have been sold, and any trading stock so transferred and any trading stock which has been sold for a consideration other than cash shall be deemed to have realised the market price at the day on which it was so transferred or sold, but where there is no market price, trading stock shall be deemed to have realised a price determined by the Director-General.

(3) In this section "trading stock" includes any other property which, as and when realised, produces income for the person under section 10(3)(c).\textsuperscript{152*}

(4) Where any trading stock is sold or transferred without consideration in money or money's worth or for a consideration that is less than its market price or true value on the day of the sale or transfer -

(a) the trading stock shall be deemed to have been sold at and to have realised the market price on the day of the sale or transfer, but shall, where there is no market price, be deemed to have been sold at and to have realised a price determined by the Director-General;

(b) the price which under this section the trading stock is deemed to have realised shall be taken into account in calculating the gross income of the person selling or transferring the trading stock;

(c) the person acquiring the trading stock shall, for the purpose of calculating his net income, be deemed to have purchased the trading stock at the price which under this section the trading stock is deemed to have realised.

15. Deemed income arising from expenditure or loss discharged

(1) Where the amount of any expenditure or loss incurred by a person has been taken into account in calculating his net income for an income year, and the liability of the person in respect of that amount is subsequently discharged in whole or in part, the amount so discharged shall be deemed to be income derived in the year in which the amount is discharged.

(2) For the purposes of this section, a liability in respect of expenditure or loss shall be deemed to have been discharged to the extent to which the person has been discharged from that liability without adequate consideration in money or money's worth.

16. Apportionment of income on incorporation and disincorporation

(1) Where a business is transferred to a company on incorporation and the persons who carried on that business prior to incorporation are the shareholders in that company immediately after incorporation, the Act shall have effect as if -

(a) the business had not ceased or been transferred on incorporation; and

(b) at all times prior to incorporation the company had been carrying on the business.

(2) Where a business is transferred by a company on disincorporation and the persons who carry on that business after disincorporation were the shareholders in that company immediately prior to disincorporation, the Act shall have effect as if -

(a) the business has not ceased or been transferred on disincorporation; and

(b) at all times prior to disincorporation that person or those persons had been carrying on the business.

(3) Where incorporation or disincorporation takes place during an income year, the gross income of the business for that income year shall be apportioned between the company and the person carrying on the business on the basis of the proportion of the income year before and after incorporation or disincorporation.

(2) The solidarity levy under subsection (1) shall be calculated at the rate of 25 per cent of the leviable income in excess of 3 million rupees and shall be paid at the time the individual submits his return of income under section 112.¹⁵⁹*

(2A) The solidarity levy payable by an individual in an income year under subsection (1) shall not exceed 10 per cent of the sum of –¹⁶⁰*

(a) his net income excluding the lump sum specified in paragraph (d) of the definition of “leviable income” in section 16B; and

(b) dividends in paragraphs (b) and (c) of the definition of “leviable income” in section 16B.

(3) This section shall not apply to an individual who is not resident in Mauritius

Sub-Part B - Allowable Deductions

17. Deduction in connection with employment

(1) Any expenditure which is wholly, exclusively and necessarily incurred by a person in performing the duties of an office or employment shall be deductible from the gross income referred to in section 10(1)(a) in the income year in which the expenditure is incurred.¹⁶¹*

(2) The Director-General may determine whether and to what extent an allowance made to a person constitutes a reimbursement of expenditure wholly, exclusively and necessarily incurred by that person in performing the duties of his office or employment and the allowance shall, to the extent so determined, be deductible from the gross income referred to in section 10(1)(a) in the income year in which the allowance is made.¹⁶²*
(3) Where the Director-General is satisfied that the whole or part of any advantage has necessarily to be provided by an employer for a person for the performance of the duties of his office or employment, the advantage, or part thereof, shall be deductible from the gross income referred to in section 10(1)(a) in the income year in which the advantage is provided.

(4)* Deleted

(5)* Deleted

18. Expenditure incurred in the production of income

(1) Any expenditure or loss shall be deductible from the gross income, other than gross income specified in section 10(1)(a), of a person in the income year in which it is incurred to the extent to which it is exclusively incurred in the production of his gross income, other than gross income specified in section 10(1)(a), for that income year.

(2) Any expenditure which satisfies the requirements of subsection (1), on or in relation to -

(a) minerals, trees or wood which when realised, produces gross income under section 10(1)(b); or

(b) immovable property, including the cost of acquisition, which when realised, produces gross income under section 10(3)(c), shall be deductible from the gross income, other than gross income specified in section 10(1)(a), of a person in the income year in which he derives the gross income specified in this subsection.

(3) Any expenditure, which satisfies the requirements of subsection (1), incurred by a person on the repair of premises, machinery or plant, or on rent, or on export duties, rates and taxes, other than income tax or any other tax on income or profits, shall be deductible from his gross income, other than gross income specified in section 10(1)(a), in the income year in which the expenditure is incurred.

(4) An amount equal to 200 per cent of expenditure incurred by a person in an income year and which satisfies the requirements of subsection (1) shall be deductible from his gross income in that income year where the expenditure is incurred on -

(a) emoluments in respect of a disabled person; or
(b) emoluments and training costs in respect of an employee employed in any business set up in the Island of Rodrigues.

(5) Subject to subsection (1) and section 26(1)(b) and (3), where any expenditure or loss incurred by a corporation holding a Global Business Licence under the Financial Services Act is not directly attributable to either its income derived from Mauritius or its foreign source income, the corporation shall forward, together with its return of income which is required under this Act, a certificate from a qualified auditor certifying that such expenditure or loss has been apportioned in a fair and reasonable manner, after taking into account any expenditure or loss incurred in the production of exempt income.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (1) but subject to paragraph (b), any solidarity levy under the Value Added Tax Act payable in an income year shall be deductible from the gross income referred to in section 10(1)(b) in that income year.

(a) Where a deduction under paragraph (a) has been allowed in an income year and such solidarity levy under the Value Added Tax Act is refunded in a subsequent income year, the deduction allowed shall be withdrawn and the amount of the deduction so withdrawn shall be deemed to be gross income of the person in the income year in which the refund is made.

18A. Expenditure incurred by artists

(1) Where a person is a member of the Mauritius Society of Authors established under the Copyright Act, he may, instead of claiming a deduction for expenditure incurred in the production of gross income under section 18, opt to claim by way of deduction, an amount equivalent to 50 percent of the gross income generated from his artistic work other than a literary work.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply where the gross income generated from the artistic work referred to in subsection (1) –

(i) constitutes emoluments under section 10(1)(a)(i); or

(ii) exceeds 500, 000 rupees.

19. Expenditure incurred on interest in the production of income

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, where in an income year a person has incurred expenditure on interest in respect of capital employed exclusively in the production of gross income specified in section 10(1)(b),(c), or (d), as the case may be, he shall be allowed, in that income year, a deduction in respect of the interest from the gross income in the production of which the capital was employed.

(2) The Director-General may require a person to support his claim for deduction in respect of interest under subsection (1) by a certificate from a qualified auditor certifying that the amount of interest claimed has been incurred on capital employed exclusively in the production of gross income specified in section 10(1)(b), (c) or (d).

(3) The Director-General may refuse to allow a deduction on expenditure incurred as interest where he is satisfied that -

(a) the interest is payable to a non-resident who is not chargeable to tax on the amount of the interest; or

(b) the interest is not likely to be paid in cash within a reasonable time.

20. Losses 171*

(1) Where a person satisfies the Director-General that he has in an income year incurred a loss in the production of gross income specified in section 10(1)(b), (c) and (d), that loss –

(a) shall not be deducted from or set-off against his gross income specified in section 10(1)(a) for that income year; but

(b) may, subject to subsection (2), be set-off against his gross income, other than gross income specified in section 10(1)(a), derived in that income year, and any excess loss carried forward for set-off against income derived in the 5 succeeding income years.

(2) The time limit of 5 income years under subsection (1)(b) shall not apply for the carry forward of any amount of loss that is attributable to annual allowance claimed in respect of capital expenditure incurred on or after 1 July 2006.

(3) Where the Director-General is not satisfied with a claim for loss made by a person under this section, the Director-General shall determine the quantum of the loss available for set-off or carry forward and shall give notice of his determination to the person. 172*

(4) Where loss available for set-off or carry forward has been determined under subsection (3) and it is subsequently found that the loss determined has been overstated, the Director-General may make another determination of the quantum of loss and shall give notice of his determination to the person referred to in subsection (3). 173*
(5) Where any person is dissatisfied with a determination by the Director-General under subsection (3) or (4), he may object to the determination in the manner provided in section 131C.

(6) Any loss incurred by a person who qualifies for an exemption under items 11, 11A, 13, 26 to 32 or 34 to 38 of Sub-part C of Part II of the Second Schedule, during the period of exemption specified in the respective items, shall be available for carry forward and deduction under section 20 or 59, as the case may be.

21. Bad debts and irrecoverable sums

(1) Subject to subsection (3), a person who derives gross income specified in 10(1)(b) in an income year may deduct the amount of a debt or sum which is proved to have become bad and to have been actually written off as a bad debt by the person in that income year.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a person who derives gross income, other than gross income specified in section 10(1)(b), may deduct any debt or sum not received in an income year but which is deemed to be derived in that income year and which is proved to have become irrecoverable by the person.

(2A) (a) Subject to subsection (3), a person who derives interest from money lent through any Peer-to-Peer Lending platform operated under a licence issued by the Financial Services Commission under the Financial Services Act in an income year may deduct the amount of the debt or interest arising from such amount lent and which is proved to have become bad from any interest received from money lent through the same Peer-to-Peer Lending platform.

(b) Where the amount of debt or interest cannot be fully relieved under paragraph (a), the person may, subject to paragraph (c), claim that the unrelieved amount of debt or interest be carried forward and set off against interest received from money lent through the same Peer-to-Peer Lending platform in the succeeding income years.

(c) No time limit shall apply for the setting-off of any unrelieved bad debt arising under paragraph (b).174*

(3) Any amount allowed as a deduction which is subsequently received by the person on account of any bad or irrecoverable debt shall be deemed to be gross income derived in the income year in which it is received.
22. Contributions to superannuation fund

(1) Subject to this section, an employer may deduct any amount irrevocably paid by him to provide -

(a) a pension or retirement allowance to his employees and their dependants under a superannuation fund; and

(b) for the medical expenses of his employees and their dependants under a scheme approved by the Director-General.

(2) Notwithstanding section 18, where an amount paid by an employer under subsection (1) is a lump sum payment in respect of past services of employees, one-tenth of the payment shall be deductible in the income year in which the payment is made and in each of the 9 succeeding years.

(3) No deduction shall be allowed under this section where the superannuation fund under subsection (1)(a) is set up for the principal purpose of providing tax benefits to selected employees and their dependents.

23. Pensions to former employees

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Director-General may, in the case of a person deriving gross income specified in section 10(1)(b) allow a deduction in respect of any amount which is not deductible otherwise than under this section and which, in the opinion of the Director-General, is reasonable in the particular circumstances of the case, paid by the person in that income year by way of a pension to any former employee in the business of that person, or to the surviving spouse of that employee, in consideration of the past services of that employee in that business of the person, where the Director-General is satisfied that -

(a) the pension is receivable by the recipient -

(i) by virtue of any enactment;

(ii) as of right under a written document for a fixed period or for life;

(iii) in the case of the surviving spouse, for a fixed period or for life or until he or she remarries; or

(iv) on grounds which the Director-General determines to be compassionate grounds; and
(b) except in the case of the death of the employee while in the employment of the person, the employee did not retire from his employment before attaining the appropriate retiring age.

(2) This section shall not apply where because of any relationship to or with the employer or otherwise the former employee or the surviving spouse had or has, in the opinion of the Director-General, any control in relation to the payment of the pension by the person.

(3) For the purposes of this section -

"appropriate retiring age" means -

58. Expenditure incurred on interest in the production of income

The provisions of section 19 shall apply in all respects to a company as they apply to an individual.

59. Losses

(1) Where a company satisfies the Director-General that it has, in an income year incurred a loss, it may deduct that loss in computing its net income for that income year.

(2) Where the amount of loss cannot be fully relieved under subsection (1), the company may, subject to subsection (3), claim that the unrelieved amount of the loss be carried forward and set-off against its net income derived in the following 5 income years, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

(3) The time limit of 5 years referred to in subsection (2) shall not apply for the carrying forward of any amount of loss that is attributable to –

(a) annual allowance claimed in respect of capital expenditure incurred on or after 1 July 2006;

(b) a deduction claimed under sections 64, 65 and 161A(55).

(4) Where the Director-General is not satisfied with a claim for loss made by a person under this section, the Director-General shall determine the quantum of the loss available for set-off or carry forward and shall give notice of his determination to the person.

(5) Where loss available for set-off or carry forward has been determined under subsection (4) and it is subsequently found that the loss determined has been overstated, the Director-General may make another determination of the quantum of loss and give notice of his determination to the person referred to in subsection (4).

(6) Where any person is dissatisfied with a determination by the Director-General under subsection (4) or (5), he may object to the determination in the manner provided in section 131C.

59A. Transfer of loss on takeover or merger

(1) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Act, where –
(a) a company takes over another company engaged in manufacturing activities;

(b) 2 or more companies engaged in manufacturing activities merge into one company;

(c) a company takes over, or acquires the whole or part of the undertaking of another company and the Minister has deemed such a take-over or transfer of undertaking to be in the public interest, any unrelieved loss of the acquiree may be transferred to the acquirer in the income year in which the takeover or merger takes place, on such conditions relating to safeguard of employment or on such other terms and conditions as may be approved by the Minister.

(2) Any unrelieved loss transferred under subsection (1) shall be deemed to be incurred by the acquirer in the income year in which the loss is transferred and shall be available for set-off against the net income of the acquirer.

(3) Where, at any time before the expiry of 3 years from the date of the takeover or merger, more than 50 per cent of the number of employees of the acquiree taken over by the acquirer or of the employees of both the acquiree and the acquirer, as the case may be, are made redundant, any loss transferred under subsections (1) and (3A) shall be withdrawn and the amount of the loss so withdrawn shall be deemed to be the gross income of the acquirer in the income year in which the employees are made redundant.

(3A) Notwithstanding section 59(2), where there is a change in the shareholding of more than 50 per cent in a manufacturing company or in a company facing financial difficulty which has accumulated unrelieved losses, the losses may be carried forward, provided the Minister is satisfied that the conditions relating to safeguard of employment or other conditions that the Minister may impose are complied with.

(4) For the purposes of this section -

“acquiree” means a company of which the assets and liabilities have been acquired by another company through a takeover or merger;

“acquirer” means a company which has acquired the assets and liabilities of another company by means of a takeover or merger.

59B. Offset and carry forward of investment tax credit

A company to which sections 24(7) or (8) apply may –

(2) Subject to subsection (3), a company which derives gross income, other than gross income specified in section 10(1)(b), may deduct any debt or sum not received in an income year but which is proved to have become irrecoverable by the company.

(3) Any amount allowed as a deduction under subsections (1) and (2) which is subsequently received by the company shall be deemed to be gross income derived in the income year in which it is received.

61. Contributions to superannuation fund

The provisions of section 22 shall apply in all respects to a company as they apply to an individual.
62. Pensions to former employees

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Director-General may, in the case of a company deriving gross income specified in section 10(1)(b) allow a deduction in respect of any amount which is not deductible otherwise than under this section and which, in the opinion of the Director-General, is reasonable in the particular circumstances of the case, paid by the company in that income year by way of a pension to any former employee in the business of the company, or to the surviving spouse of that employee, in consideration of the past services of that employee in that business of the company, where the Director-General is satisfied that –

(a) the pension is receivable by the recipient -

(i) by virtue of any enactment;

(ii) as of right under a written document for a fixed period or for life;

(iii) in the case of the surviving spouse, for a fixed period or for life or until he or she remarries; or

(iv) on grounds which the Director-General determines to be compassionate grounds; and

(b) except in the case of the death of the employee while in the employment of the company, the employee did not retire from his employment before attaining the appropriate retiring age.

(2) This section shall not apply where -

(a) the employee was or is a director of the company and was not in the full-time employment of the company; or

(b) in any other case, because of any relationship to or with the employer or otherwise the former employee or the surviving spouse had or has, in the opinion of the Director-General, any control in relation to the payment of the pension by the company.

63. Annual allowance

The provisions of section 24 shall apply in all respects to a company as they apply to an individual.

* Please refer to endnotes at Appendix 1
64. Expenditure incurred on deep ocean water air conditioning \(^{345*}\)

(1) Where, in an income year, a company incurs expenditure on deep ocean water air conditioning, it may deduct, from its gross income, twice the amount of such expenditure incurred in that income year.

(2) The deduction under subsection (1) shall be allowed for 5 consecutive income years starting as from the year in which the expenditure is incurred.

64A. [Additional investment allowance ] repealed \(^{346*}\)

65. Expenditure incurred on water desalination plant \(^{347*}\)

(1) Where, in an income year, a company incurs expenditure for the acquisition and setting up of a water desalination plant, it may deduct, from its gross income, twice the amount of such expenditure incurred in that income year.

(2) Where a company claims a deduction in respect of a water desalination plant under this section, it shall not be entitled to annual allowance in respect of that plant under section 63.

65A. Expenditure incurred on artwork \(^{348*}\)

(1) Notwithstanding section 57 but subject to this section, where a company which is not a dealer in artwork incurs in an income year expenditure on the acquisition of an artwork for display in a conspicuous place on its business premises, it shall be allowed, in that income year, a deduction from its gross income in respect of the expenditure incurred.

(ii) in the prevention of fraud; or

(iii) Repealed

(c) with a view to assisting in the administration of the laws in relation to taxes of every kind and description, and foreign tax, covered under the arrangement.

(2) Notwithstanding this Act or any other enactment but subject to the other provisions of this section, an arrangement entered into under subsection (1) shall have effect in relation to taxes of every kind and
(3) An arrangement under subsection (1) may contain provision in relation to foreign tax and taxes of every kind and description covered under the arrangement—

(a) for relief from tax;

(b) for assessing the income derived from sources in Mauritius by non-residents;

(c) for determining the income to be attributed to non-residents and their agencies, branches, or establishments in Mauritius;

(d) for determining the income to be attributed to residents who have special relationships with non-residents;

(e) for relief from tax for periods before the commencement of this Act or before the making of the arrangement;

(f) as to income which is not itself subject to double taxation; and

(g) for exchange of information in respect of any person not resident in Mauritius.

(4) An arrangement under subsection (1) may at any time be amended or revoked by a subsequent arrangement, and the subsequent arrangement may contain such transitional provision as appears to the Minister to be necessary or expedient.

(5) Where an arrangement is made under subsection (1), the obligations as to secrecy imposed under any Revenue Law shall not prevent the Director-General from disclosing to an officer authorised by the government with which the arrangement is made such information as is required to be disclosed under the arrangement.

(5A) For the implementation of an arrangement under subsection (1) –

(a) the Director-General may require any person to—

(i) establish, maintain and document such due diligence procedures as the Director-General may determine;

(ii) provide the Director-General with information of a specified description;

(iii) maintain such records in such form and in such manner as the Director-General may determine;
(b) any information required under subparagraph (ii), in respect of such period as the Director-General may determine, shall be provided to the Director-General at such time and in such form and manner as he may determine.

(5B) (a) The Director-General may issue directions, instructions or guidelines to any person to ensure compliance with any arrangement made pursuant to this section.

(b) Any person who fails to comply with any direction, instruction or guideline shall commit an offence.

(6) The Minister may make such regulations as he thinks fit to give effect to any arrangement entered into under this section.

76A. Arrangements for assistance in the recovery of foreign tax

The Minister may enter into arrangements with the Government of a foreign country for the purposes of providing assistance in the collection and recovery of foreign tax in the same manner as is provided under Part XI.

77. Credits in respect of foreign tax

(1) Where a taxpayer derives income which is subject to foreign tax, the amount of foreign tax so paid shall be allowed as a credit against income tax payable in Mauritius in respect of that income.

(2) The credit in respect of foreign tax shall, in the case of a dividend, include credit for any foreign tax imposed on the profits out of which that dividend is directly or indirectly paid.

(3) The Minister may, by regulations, provide for the implementation of the provisions of this section and for the granting of credit for foreign tax in such manner and on such conditions as he thinks fit.

(4) No credit shall be allowed under this section in respect of foreign source income where –

(a) the person has claimed a partial exemption in respect of that income under Part II of the Second Schedule;

(b) the foreign source income is subject to tax under section 44C.
PART VI - AGENTS, ABSENTEES AND NON-RESIDENTS AND DECEASED PERSONS

78. Liability of principal not affected

(1) Nothing in this Act relating to an agent shall be construed so as to release the principal from liability to make returns and pay income tax, and the principal and agent shall be jointly and severally liable for the income tax.

(2) Where 2 or more persons are liable as agents in respect of the same income tax, they shall be jointly and severally liable for it.

79. Provisions applying to agents

Subject to this Act, every agent shall -

(a) be answerable for the doing of all such things as are required to be done under this Act in respect of the income derived by him in his representative capacity, or derived by the principal by virtue of the agency, and for the payment of income tax on it;

(b) in respect of that income, make returns and be liable on that income but in his representative capacity only, and each return and tax liability shall be separate and distinct from any other;

(c) be authorised and required to retain out of any money or other property received by him in his representative capacity so much as is sufficient to pay the income tax which is or will become payable in respect of that income;

(d) not make any payment of income to a non-resident or absentee or transfer out of Mauritius any sum for the purpose of making any such payment, unless and until arrangements have been made to the satisfaction of the Director-General for the payment of any income tax which is or will become payable in respect of that income;

(e) be personally liable for the income tax payable in respect of the income to the extent of any amount that he has retained, or should have retained under paragraphs (c) and (d);

(f) be indemnified for all payments which he makes under this Act or for any requirement of the Director-General;

(g) where another agent pays an amount for which they are jointly liable, be liable to pay to that agent his proportionate share of the amount so paid;

(h) for the purpose of ensuring the payment of income tax, be liable, to the extent provided in paragraph (e), in respect of attachable property of any kind vested in him or under his control or management or in his possession to the same measures which the Director-General may enforce against the property of any taxpayer in respect of income tax.

80. Income tax paid on behalf of another person

Every person who, under this Act, pays income tax for or on behalf of any other person may recover it from that other person as a debt in any court of competent jurisdiction or may retain or deduct it out of money at any time in his hands belonging or payable to that other person.

81. Agents of incapacitated persons, companies and bodies of persons

(1) Every person who has the possession, control or disposal of any income derived by an incapacitated person shall be deemed to be the agent of the incapacitated person in respect of that income.

(2) Every secretary, manager or other principal officer of a company, société or other body of persons shall be deemed to be the agent of the company, società or other body of persons in respect of income derived by it.

(3) Repealed 388*

(4) Every trustee shall be deemed to be the agent of a trust in respect of income derived by that trust.

(5) Every trustee or manager of a unit trust scheme shall be deemed to be the agent of that unit trust scheme.

(6) For the purposes of this section -

"incapacitated person" means a minor or a person suffering from mental or physical disability; and

"manager", in relation to a unit trust scheme, has the same meaning as in the Unit Trust Act 1989.

81A. Tax liability of appointed person 389*

(1) Where an administrator, executor, receiver or liquidator is appointed to manage or wind up the business of any company, the appointed person shall -

(a) give notice of the appointment to the Director-General, within 15 days of the date of the appointment, in such manner and in such form as may be approved by the Director-General;

(b) before disposing of any asset of the company, set aside such sum out of the asset as appears to the Director-General to be sufficient to provide for any income tax that is or may become due and payable by the company; and

* Please refer to endnotes at Appendix 1
(c) do everything that is required to be done by a company under this Act.

(2) Any appointed person who, without reasonable cause or justification, fails to comply with any of the requirements of subsection (1) shall be personally liable to pay any income tax that is or may become due and payable and shall commit an offence.

82. Agents of absentees and non-residents

(1) Notwithstanding the fact that there may be another agent in Mauritius who shall continue to be liable as agent, but subject to this Act -

(a) every person who carries on business in Mauritius on behalf of a principal who is an absentee shall be deemed to be the agent of that principal in respect of all income derived from that business and shall be liable to income tax on it, whether or not any income derived by the principal is received by him;

(b) where a non-resident derives chargeable income from Mauritius from the business of shipping, the master of any ship and the captain of any aircraft shall be deemed to be the agent of that non-resident in respect of all income derived from the carriage of passengers, cargo or mail by that ship or aircraft and shall be liable to income tax on it, whether or not any income derived by the non-resident is received by him;

(c) every person who in Mauritius collects or receives or in any way has the possession, control or disposal of any income derived by an absentee shall be deemed to be the agent of the absentee in respect of that income.

(2) Where a non-resident sells goods -

(a) by himself while in Mauritius; or

(b) through a person who is in Mauritius, and the goods are in Mauritius or are to be brought into Mauritius for the purpose or in pursuance or consequence of the sale, the non-resident shall be deemed to have sold the goods in the course of carrying on business in Mauritius, whether the contract of sale is made in or outside Mauritius.

(3) Where goods are sold by a non-resident through a person who is in Mauritius, that person shall be deemed to be the agent of that non-resident in respect of all income derived from the business carried on in Mauritius by the non-resident and shall be liable to income tax on it, whether or not any income derived by the non-resident is received by him.
83. Deceased persons

(1) Where a taxpayer dies, every person specified in subsection (3), shall, subject to subsections (2), (4), (5) and (6), be liable to income tax on all income derived by the taxpayer in his lifetime in the same manner in which the taxpayer would have been liable had he remained alive, and shall be deemed to be an agent of the deceased taxpayer.

(2) The income tax payable in accordance with subsection (1) shall be reduced by -

(a) 50,000 rupees; or*390*

(b) an amount equivalent to half of any lump sum payable under any enactment on the death of the taxpayer by way of death gratuity or in commutation of pension or from a superannuation fund, whichever is the higher.

(3) The persons specified for the purposes of subsection (1) shall be -

(a) an heir who accepts the succession of the deceased simply ("purement et simplement") or under benefit of inventory;

(b) a surviving spouse;

(c) a universal legatee;

(d) an executor;

(e) a notary acting as liquidator of the succession of the deceased;

(f) where there is no person specified in paragraph (a), (b) or (c), a legatee or donee; and

(g) where he is vested with the vacant succession of the deceased, the Curator of Vacant Estates.

(4) Where a person specified in subsection (3) has distributed the whole of the estate of the deceased taxpayer and thereafter a change occurs in the rate of income tax, he shall not be liable for any additional income tax resulting from the change.

(5) A person specified in subsection (3)(a), (b) or (f) shall not be liable under subsection (1) to any income tax in excess of his share in the estate of the deceased taxpayer.

(6) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of a person specified in subsection (3) over or against any heir, surviving spouse or legatee.
PART VII - ANTI-AVOIDANCE PROVISIONS

84. Interest on debentures issued by reference to shares

Where a company has issued debentures to its shareholders or any class of shareholders, and the amount of the debentures issued to each shareholder has been determined by reference to the number, the nominal value or the paid-up value of the shares in that company or in any other company, whether or not that other company is being or has been wound up, that were held by or on behalf of the shareholder at the time the debentures were issued or at any earlier time, the interest paid by the company on the debentures so issued shall not be an allowable deduction and shall be deemed to be a dividend received from the company by the shareholders or class of shareholders of the company.

85. Excess of remuneration or share of profits

(1) Subject to subsection (3), where -

(a) a taxpayer carries on any business or other income earning activity and employs a relative, or, being a company, employs a relative of a director or shareholder of the company, to perform services in connection with the business or activity;

(b) a taxpayer carries on business or other income earning activity as an associate with any person, whether or not any other person is a member of the société; and

(i) a relative of the taxpayer is employed by the société to perform services in connection with the business or activity; or

(ii) where one of the associates is a company, a relative of a director or shareholder of the company is employed by the société to perform services in connection with the business or activity; or

(c) a taxpayer carries on business or other income earning activity in association with a relative or with a company of which a director or shareholder is a relative of the taxpayer or, being a company, carries on business or other income earning activity in association with a relative of a director or shareholder of the company, whether or not any other person is a member of the société, and the Director-General is of opinion that the remuneration, salary, share of profits or other income payable to or for the benefit of that relative or company under the contract of employment or on the terms of the società exceeds the amount which is reasonable, having regard to the nature and extent of the services rendered, the value of the contributions made by the respective associates by way of services or capital or otherwise, and any other relevant matters, the Director-General may apportion the net income of the business or other income earning activity, without deducting any amount payable to that relative or company, between the parties to the contract of employment or the associates or any of them in such shares and proportions as he considers reasonable, and the amounts so apportioned shall be deemed to be income derived by the persons to whom those amounts are so apportioned and by no other person.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), where any sum paid or credited by a company, being or purporting to be remuneration for services rendered by a person who is a relative of a director or shareholder of the company, is apportioned to that company in accordance with subsection (1), the amount so apportioned to the company shall be deemed to be a benefit referred to in section 86A received by that person as a shareholder of the company.

(3) This section shall not apply to a contract of employment or an agreement to form a société where -

(a) the contract or agreement is in writing and signed by all parties;

(b) no associate and no person employed under the contract or agreement was a minor at the date on which the contract was signed;

(c) the contract or agreement is binding on the parties for a term of not less than 3 years and cannot be terminated by any party before the expiry of that term;

(d) each party to the contract has a real and effective control of the remuneration, salary, share of profit, or other income to which he is entitled under the contract; and

(e) the remuneration, salary, share of profits or other income payable to a relative or to a company of which a director or shareholder is a relative is not of such an amount that the transaction constitutes a gift or other disposition of property without adequate consideration in money or money’s worth.

86. Excessive remuneration to shareholder or director

Where any sum paid or credited by a company, being or purporting to be remuneration for services rendered by a person who is a shareholder or director of the company, exceeds the amount which in the opinion of the Director-General is reasonable, the amount of the excess shall not be an allowable deduction and shall be deemed to be a benefit referred to in section 86A received by that person as a shareholder of the company.
86A. Benefit to shareholder 392*

Where a benefit of any nature, whether in money or money's worth, other than payment of dividend, is made by a company to any shareholder or a relative of the shareholder, the value of that benefit, to the extent that it exceeds the payment, if any, made therefor, shall be deemed to be income referred to in section 10(1)(g) and received by the shareholder or the relative of the shareholder, as the case may be.

87. Excessive management expenses

(1) Subject to subsection (2), where a person carries on any business or other income earning activity and the Director-General is of the opinion that any management expenses incurred by him exceed the amount which is reasonable, having regard to the nature and extent of the management services rendered, the amount of the excess shall not be an allowable deduction.

(2) This section shall not apply to the extent that the income of the taxpayer concerned is adjusted under section 84, 85 or 86.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "management expenses" means any emoluments, fee, rent, commission, charge or other administration expense incurred in the general management of a business or other income earning activity.

88. Leases for other than an adequate rent

(1) Where property owned by a person, by 2 or more persons whether jointly or in undivided ownership or by a société is leased to a relative of any of those persons or any associate of the société or to a related company, or where property owned by a company is leased to a shareholder or a relative of a shareholder or to any other person, and the rent is not an adequate rent for the property or the lease makes no provision for the payment of rent, there shall be deemed to be payable under the lease a rent that is equal to an adequate rent for the property, and that rent shall be deemed to be income derived by the lessor -

(a) where a rent is payable under the lease, in respect of the periods for which the rent is so payable; or

(b) where no rent is payable under the lease, in respect of such periods as the Director-General determines.

(2) The rent deemed to be payable under subsection (1) shall be deemed to accrue from day to day during the period in respect of which it is payable, and shall be apportioned accordingly.
(3) For the purposes of this section, "adequate rent" means the amount of rent which the Director-General determines to be adequate for the period for which the determination is made.

89. Rights over income retained

Where a person sells property or any right to income to a relative and retains or obtains the power to enjoy income arising from that property or from that right or retains or obtains the right to dispose of or direct or control the disposition of that income or of that property or right, the income shall be deemed to be income derived by the transferor and by no other person as if the sale had not taken place.

90. Transactions designed to avoid liability to income tax

(1) This section shall apply where any transaction has been entered into or effected and that transaction has, or would have had but for this section, the effect of conferring a tax benefit on a person, hereinafter referred to as relevant person, and having regard to -

(a) the manner in which the transaction was entered into or carried out;

(b) the form and substance of the transaction;

(c) the result in relation to the operation of this Act that, but for this section, would have been achieved by the transaction;

(d) any change in the financial position of the relevant person that has resulted, will result, or may reasonably be expected to result, from the transaction;

(e) any change in the financial position of any person who has, or has had, any connection, whether of a business, family or other nature, with the relevant person, being a change that has resulted or may reasonably be expected to result from the transaction;

(f) whether the transaction has created rights or obligations which would not normally be created between persons dealing with each other at arm's length under a transaction of the kind in question; and

(g) the participation in the transaction of a corporation resident or carrying on business outside Mauritius, the Director-General may conclude that the person, or one of the persons, who entered into or carried out the transaction, did so for the sole or dominant purpose of enabling the relevant person, either alone or in conjunction with other persons, to obtain a tax benefit.

* Please refer to endnotes at Appendix 1
(2) Where subsection (1) applies the Director-General shall assess the liability to tax of the relevant person-

(a) as if the transaction or any part thereof had not been entered into or carried out; or

(b) in such other manner as the Director-General considers appropriate to counteract the tax benefit which would otherwise be obtained.

(3) For the purposes of this section -

"tax benefit" means the avoidance or postponement of the liability to pay income tax or the reduction in the amount thereof;

"transaction" includes a transaction, operation or scheme whether or not such transaction, operation or scheme is enforceable, or intended to be enforceable, by legal proceedings.

90A. Controlled foreign company rule

(1) (a) Subject to subsection (2), where a resident company carries on business through a controlled foreign company and the Director-General considers that the non-distributed income of the controlled foreign company arises from non-genuine arrangements which have been put in place for the essential purpose of obtaining a tax benefit, that income shall be deemed to form part of the chargeable income of the resident company.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a) –

(i) an arrangement or a series thereof shall be regarded as non-genuine to the extent that the controlled foreign company would not own the assets or would not have undertaken the risks which generate all, or part of, its income if it were not controlled by a company where the significant people functions, which are relevant to those assets and risks, are carried out and are instrumental in generating the controlled company’s income;

(ii) “tax benefit” means the avoidance or postponement of the liability to pay income tax or the reduction in the amount thereof.

(2) (a) This section shall not apply to a controlled foreign company where in an income year –

(i) accounting profits are not more than EUR 750 000, and non-trading income is not more than EUR 75 000;
(ii) accounting profits amount to less than 10 per cent of its operating costs for the tax period; or

(iii) the tax rate in the country of residence of the controlled foreign company is more than 50 per cent of the tax rate in Mauritius.

(b) For the purpose of paragraph (a)(ii), the operating costs shall not include the cost of goods sold outside the country where the entity is resident for tax purposes and payments to associated enterprises.

(3) The income under subsection (1)(a) shall be determined in such manner as may be prescribed.

(4) The Minister may make such regulations as he thinks fit for the purpose of this section.

(5) In this section –

“associated enterprise” means –

PART VIII - RETURNS, COLLECTION AND PAYMENT OF TAX

91. Due date for payment of income tax

Subject to the other provisions of this Act, income tax for any year of assessment shall, whether or not a return of income has been submitted, or an assessment has been made, be due on 1 July in that year.\footnote{394}

Sub-Part A - Pay As You Earn (PAYE) System

92. Application of Sub-Part A

Subject to section 93(2), this Sub-Part shall apply to emoluments but shall not apply to emoluments derived by an exempt person.\footnote{395}

93. Employer to withhold tax from emoluments

(1) Every employer shall, at the time the emoluments are received by or made available to an employee, withhold income tax, including the solidarity levy under section 16C, from the emoluments of that employee.\footnote{396}

(1A) The remuneration earned by a director of a company shall, notwithstanding subsection (1), be deemed to have been received by the director in the income year in which such remuneration is charged in the income statement referred to in section 217(1)(b) of the Companies Act, of the company.\footnote{397}

(2) (a) Where an exempt person or a person deriving any – \footnote{398}

(i) pension in relation to his past employment or that of his spouse; or

(ii) annuity, pension or similar payment, makes a request to his employer or the person responsible for the payment of the pension, annuity or similar payment for income tax to be withheld under this Sub-part, the employer or person responsible for the payment shall withhold income tax in the manner provided for under section 96(2).

(b) A request to withhold income tax under paragraph (a) shall be made in such form as the Director-General may approve and it shall remain applicable until it is revoked by the person or the Director-General.

(c) Sections 93(3), (4), (4A) and (5), 94, 99, 100, 101A and 102 shall apply to the person responsible for the payment of any pension, annuity or similar payment in the same manner as it applies to an employer.

* Please refer to endnotes at Appendix 1
(3) Every employer shall give to his employee a Statement of Emoluments and Tax Deduction in such manner as may be prescribed.

(4) Every employer shall submit to the Director-General a Return of Employees giving such information and particulars, within such time and in such manner, as may be prescribed.*

(4A) Where an employer does not submit the Return of Employees under subsection (4) within the prescribed time, he shall be liable to pay to the Director-General a penalty of 5,000 rupees per month or part of the month, until the time the Return of Employees is submitted to the Director-General, provided that the total penalty payable shall not exceed 20,000 rupees.

(b) Where a penalty is payable under paragraph (a), the Director-General shall make a claim to the employer specifying the amount of penalty payable and the reasons for making such a claim.*

(c) Where a claim is made under paragraph (b), the employer shall pay the amount of penalty within 28 days of the date of the claim.

(d) Repealed*

(5) Any employer who fails to comply with subsection (4) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50,000 rupees.*

94. Registration of employers

Every employer shall register with the Director-General in such manner and on such conditions as may be prescribed.

95. Employee declaration*

(1) Subject to subsection (2), every employee who, in respect of an income year, is entitled to –

(a) the income exemption threshold under section 27;

(b) reliefs and deductions under Sub-part D or Sub-part E of Part III, in respect of that income year and who wishes to have the income exemption threshold and the reliefs and deductions under Sub-part D or Sub-part E of Part III taken into account for the purpose of determining his chargeable income and the amount of income tax, if any, to be withheld from his emoluments under section 93 during that income year, shall submit to his employer an Employee Declaration Form in such manner and on such conditions as may be prescribed.

(2) Where the income exemption threshold referred to in subsection (1) has been claimed, that income exemption threshold shall not be claimed for the purposes of Sub-Part B of Part VIII.

(3) Where an employee has, in his Employee Declaration Form, claimed in respect of an income year, income exemption threshold under Sub-part C or reliefs and deductions under Sub-part D or Subpart E of Part III, as the case may be, an additional exemption under item 2 of the Third Schedule or reliefs and deductions under Sub-part D or Subpart E of Part III, and the claim is thereafter found to be unjustified or in excess of the amount to which he is entitled by 10 per cent or more, he shall be liable, in addition to the amount of income tax underpaid, to a penalty not exceeding 25 per cent of the underpaid amount.

96. Tax to be withheld 406

(1) Where an employee has submitted in respect of an income year an Employee Declaration Form to his employer, the amount of income tax to be withheld from the emoluments of the employee shall be calculated, on a cumulative basis, in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Subject to subsection (2A), where an employee has not submitted in respect of an income year an Employee Declaration Form or has made a request pursuant to subsection 93(2) to his employer, the employer shall withhold tax from the emoluments of the employee at the rate of 15 per cent.

(2A) Where the emoluments referred to in subsection (2) exceeds 230,769 rupees in a month, the employer shall withhold an additional tax on the amount exceeding 230,769 rupees at the rate of 25 per cent, provided that the additional tax withheld does not exceed 10 per cent of total emoluments.

(3) Where any fees are payable –

(i) by a company to any of its directors; or

(ii) by a statutory body to any member of its Board, Council, Commission, Committee or by whatever name called,

... tax shall be withheld from the fees of the director or member, as the case may be, at the rate of 15 per cent.

(4) Where tax is withheld in an income year under this section and in that income year, the employee, director or member, as the case may be, is a non-resident and is not deriving any other gross income, the amount of tax so withheld shall be deemed to be the final amount of... tax payable by that employee, director or member for that income year and in relation thereof, the provisions of Sub-Part C of PART VIII shall not apply. 409*

97. Direction not to withhold tax

Where income tax is required to be withheld from the emoluments of an employee under this Sub-Part during an income year and the employee proves to the satisfaction of the Director-General that he is not chargeable to income tax for that income year, the Director-General may, by written notice under his hand to the employer, direct that no tax shall be withheld from the emoluments of that employee.

98. Decision as to whether an amount is emoluments

Where any question arises in relation to an employer or an employee as to whether any amount is or is not emoluments to which this Sub-Part applies, the question shall be decided by the Director-General, whose decision shall be notified to the employer or employee in writing.

99. Obligation of employer to withhold tax

The obligation of an employer to withhold tax under section 93 shall prevail over -

(a) any right or obligation to withhold any other amount from such payment; or

(b) any law providing that the amount of any such payment shall not be reduced or be subject to attachment.

99A. Registration of employees 410*

(1) Every employee shall, at the time he takes up employment or at the request of his employer, produce to the employer his National Identity Card or, in the case of a non-citizen, the identification number issued to him by the immigration officer.

(2) Every employer shall, in respect of every employee, obtain from the employee – 411*

(a) his NIC number; or

(b) in the case of a non-citizen, the identification number issued to him by the immigration officer.

100. Payment of tax by employer

(1) An employer who has withheld tax under this Sub-Part shall pay the tax so withheld within 20 days from the end of the month in which the tax was withheld in such manner as may be prescribed.
(1A) (a) Every person registered as an employer for the purposes of PAYE shall, unless otherwise authorised, submit his PAYE return and remit the tax withheld electronically through such computer system as may be approved by the Director-General under section 128A(1).

(b) Repealed

(1B) Every employer who submits his PAYE return and remits the tax withheld in the manner specified in subsection (1A), shall -

(a) notwithstanding subsection (1), pay the tax so withheld on or before the end of the month immediately following the month in which the tax was withheld; and

(b) continue to submit his PAYE return and remit the tax withheld electronically until such time as he ceases to be an employer.

(1C) The due date for submission of the PAYE return and remittance of the tax withheld under subsection (1) in respect of the months of May and November shall, notwithstanding subsection (1), be 2 days, excluding Saturdays and public holidays, before the end of June and December, respectively.

(2) An employer who has not withheld tax as required by this Sub-Part shall be liable to pay to the Director-General the amount of tax which has not been so withheld but the employer shall be entitled to recover that amount from the employee.

101. Penalty for late payment of tax by employer

(1) Where an employer fails to pay the amount of tax required to be withheld under this Sub-Part on or before the last day on which it is payable under section 100, he shall be liable to pay to the Director-General, in addition to the tax, a penalty of 10 per cent of the amount of the tax remaining unpaid.

(2) The penalty under subsection (1) shall apply to the tax excluding any interest under section 122D.

101A. Penalty for failure to join electronic system

Any registered employer who is required to submit his PAYE return under section 100(1A) and make payment of tax withheld on behalf of his employees electronically, but fails to join the electronic system, after written notice being given to him by the Director-General, shall be liable to pay to the Director-General on his failure within a period of 7 days from the date of the notice to justify the failure to join the system, a penalty of 5,000 rupees, for every month or part of the month from the month specified in the notice,

* Please refer to endnotes at Appendix 1
up to the month immediately preceding the month in which he submits his return, and to make any payment of tax withheld electronically, provided that the total penalty payable shall not exceed 50,000 rupees.

102. Priority over tax withheld

   (1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, tax withheld by an employer under this Sub-Part -

   (a) shall be held on behalf of the Government of Mauritius; and

   (b) shall not be subject to attachment in respect of any debt or liability of the employer.

   (2) In the event of the liquidation or bankruptcy of the employer, the amount withheld under this Sub-Part shall not form part of the estate in liquidation or bankruptcy and shall be paid in full to the Director-General before any distribution of property is made.

   (3) In the case where a receiver is appointed by the chargor of a charge for the purpose of satisfying a debt secured by the charge as specified in section 204 of the Insolvency Act, any tax withheld by a chargor under section 102 or deducted by a chargor under section 111J shall, subject to section 204(5) of that Act, be paid in accordance with section 204(4) of that Act.

103. Tax withheld deemed to be tax paid by employee

   Any amount withheld as tax under this Sub-Part shall be deemed to be -

   (a) received by the employee at the time it was withheld; and

   (b) paid by him, and shall be credited against the income tax liability of the employee for the income year in which the emoluments were paid.

104. Non-disclosure of information by employer

   (1) Subject to subsection (2), no employer shall disclose to any person other than the Director-General, any information contained in the Employee Declaration Form submitted by an employee or any matter relating to this Sub-Part and concerning the employee.

   (2) Nothing in this section shall prevent the disclosure to an employee, or with his written consent to any other person, of any information or matter relating to this section concerning the employee.
Sub-Part B - Current Payment System (CPS)

105. Application of Sub-Part B

(1) Subject to subsection (2), this Sub-Part shall apply to the gross income specified in section 10(1)(b), and rent specified in section 10(1)(c), derived by an individual.

(2) This Sub-part shall not apply to an individual in respect of gross income derived from the cultivation of sugar cane or the growing of tobacco. 420*

105A. Registration of persons under this Sub-Part Repealed 421*

106. CPS Statement and payment of tax 422*

(1) Every individual who derives gross income falling under this Sub-part and, in respect of the preceding income year, had a chargeable income, shall submit electronically to the Director-General a CPS Statement in such form and manner as may be approved by the Director-General and pay tax, if any, electronically, as follows – 423*

<table>

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an individual shall not submit a CPS Statement where –

(a) in respect of the preceding income year, his gross income falling under this Sub-part did not exceed 4424* million rupees;

(b) the tax payable on the chargeable income computed in accordance with section 107(1) is of an amount not exceeding 500 rupees; or

(c) his gross income for the preceding year does not exceed 10 million rupees and he is engaged in activities specified in the Thirteenth Schedule. 425*
(3) Where a resident société or the estate of a deceased person derives gross income referred to in section 105, the associate of the société or the beneficiary in the estate, as the case may be, shall include, in his CPS Statement, his share of income from that gross income.

107. Calculation of chargeable income

(1) The chargeable income of an individual in respect of a CPS quarter shall be computed by reference to the chargeable income, the net income and the total net income of the preceding income year as follows:

\frac{25 \times \text{Chargeable Income} \times \text{Net Income falling under CPS}}{100} = \text{Total net income}

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), but subject to subsection (3), an individual may opt to compute his chargeable income in respect of a CPS quarter as being the difference between:

(a) the gross income for that quarter; and

(b) the sum of:

(i) the amount of allowable deductions for that quarter including any allowable loss brought forward from the income year preceding the income year to which the quarter relates or from any previous quarter, as the case may be, that relates to the derivation of the gross income; and

(ii) 25 per cent of the income exemption threshold to which the individual is entitled under section 27 in respect of that income year.

(3) Where any income exemption threshold referred to in subsection (2) has been claimed for the purposes of this Sub-part, that income exemption threshold shall not be claimed for the purposes of Sub-part A of Part VIII.

108. Calculation of tax

The income tax payable under this Sub-Part shall be calculated on the chargeable income ascertained under section 107 and in accordance with Part IV of the First Schedule.

109. Penalty for late submission of Statement of Income

Where a person fails to submit a Statement of Income under section 106, he shall be liable to pay to the Director-General a penalty representing 2,000 rupees per month or part of the month until such time as the Statement of Income is submitted, provided that the total penalty payable shall not exceed 6,000 rupees per Statement of Income.

110. Penalty for late payment of tax under CPS 429

Where a taxpayer fails to pay any income tax due on or before the last day on which it is payable under section 106, he shall be liable to pay to the Director-General, in addition to the tax, a penalty of 5 per cent of the amount of tax remaining unpaid.

111. Return and payment of tax at end of income year

(1) Every person who is required to submit a Statement of Income under section 106 shall, at the end of the income year, submit to the Director-General the return required to be submitted under section 112.

(2) Where the amount of tax payable on the chargeable income in accordance with the return referred to in subsection (1) exceeds the sum of -

(a) the aggregate 430 amount of any tax paid under this Sub-Part excluding any penalty under sections 109 and 110; and

(b) any amount of tax withheld under Sub-Part A,

the person shall pay the difference at the time the return is submitted together with the penalty specified in subsection (3), if any.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where the amount of tax payable on the income falling under this Sub-Part exceeds the amount of any tax paid in accordance with the Statement of Income by more than 35 per cent of the amount of tax payable, the person shall, at the time the return under section 112 is submitted, pay, in addition to the difference referred to in subsection (2), a penalty representing 25 per cent of the amount in excess of the 35 per cent. 431

(4) The penalty under subsection (3) shall not apply where, in respect of the CPS quarter in an income year -

(a) the taxpayer has opted to compute his chargeable income in accordance with section 107(1); or

(b) where the amount in excess is solely attributable to income derived in the period immediately following the end of the third CPS quarter of the income year. 432

111C. Payer to deduct tax

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, every payer shall, at the time any amount or sum referred to in section 111B is made available to the payee, deduct income tax from the amount or sum so made available at the appropriate rate specified in the Sixth Schedule. 451*

(1A) No income tax shall be deducted under this Sub-Part, where the amount of tax to be deducted is less than 500 rupees. 452*

(2) Repealed 453

(3) Repealed

(4) Where interest referred to in section 111B(a), royalties referred to in section 111B(b) or rent referred to in section 111B(c) and payments to an entertainer or sportsperson referred to in section 111B(j) are payable to a non-resident, the income tax to be deducted shall be at the rate specified in the Sixth Schedule or at the rate specified under any arrangement for relief from double taxation which is in force between Mauritius and the foreign country where the payee is resident, whichever is the lower. 454*

(5) Where income tax is deducted from the interest, payments to an entertainer or sportsperson, or from rent or royalties in an income year under subsection (4), the amount of tax so deducted shall be deemed to be the final amount of tax payable in respect of the interest payments to the entertainer or sportsperson, or from rent or royalties for that income year. 455*

(6) This section shall apply notwithstanding whether payments or transfers referred to in section 111B(j) are made directly to the non-resident entertainer or sportsperson or through an agent. 456*

111D. Remittance of tax deducted 457

(1) Subject to this section, every payer who deducts income tax under section 111C shall remit to the Director-General the income tax so deducted and at the same time submit a return in a form approved by the Director-General –

(a) in the case where the remittance and the return are made electronically in accordance with section 128A, not later than one month from the end of the month in which the income tax was deducted; or 458*

(b) in the case where the remittance and the return are made in a manner other than in accordance with section 128A, not later than 20 days from the end of the month in which the income tax was deducted.

(2) The remittance and the return referred to in subsection (1) shall, in respect of the months of May and November, be made 2 days, excluding Saturdays and public holidays, before the end of June and December, respectively. 459*
111E. Payer liable to pay tax

Any payer who has not deducted income tax as required under section 111C shall be liable to pay to the Director-General the amount of income tax which ought to have been deducted but the payer shall be entitled to recover the amount from the payee.

111F. Penalty and interest for late payment of tax

The provisions of sections 101 and 122D(1)(a) shall apply in all respects to a payer as they apply to an employer referred to in section 101 or to any person referred to in section 122D(1)(a).

111G. Tax deducted deemed to be tax paid

(1) Any amount of tax deducted under this Sub-Part in an income year shall be deemed to be –

(a) received by the payee at the time it was deducted; and

(b) paid by him to the Director-General, and shall be offset against the income tax liability of the payee for that income year.

(2) Where the payee under subsection (1) is a société or a succession, the associates of the società or the heirs of the succession, as the case may be, shall be entitled to claim a credit in their annual return of income submitted under section 112 or 116, as the case may be, in respect of their share of the amount of tax deducted under this Sub-Part.

111H. Direction not to deduct tax

Where income tax is required to be deducted from any amount or sum which is made available to a payee under this Sub-Part during an income year and the payee proves to the satisfaction of the Director-General that he is not chargeable to income tax for that income year, the Director-General may, by written notice to the payer, direct that no income tax shall be deducted from the amount or sum which is made available to that payee.

111I. Obligation of payer to deduct tax

The obligation of a payer to deduct income tax under section 111C shall prevail over -

(a) any right or obligation to deduct any other amount from such payment; or

(b) any law providing that the amount of any such payment shall not be reduced or be subject to attachment.

* Please refer to endnotes at Appendix 1
111J. Priority over tax deducted

(1) Notwithstanding any other enactment, income tax deducted by a payer under this Sub-Part -

(a) shall be held on behalf of the Government of Mauritius; and

(b) shall not be subject to attachment in respect of any debt or liability of the payer.

(2) In the event of the liquidation or bankruptcy of the payer, the amount deducted under this Sub-Part shall not form part of the estate in liquidation or bankruptcy and shall be paid in full to the Director-General before any distribution of property is made.

111K. Statement to payee and to Director-General

(1) Every payer shall, not later than 15 August in every year -

(a) give to each payee, a statement of any amount or sum made available to him and referred to in section 111B, in duplicate, in respect of the preceding income year; and

(b) submit to the Director-General, in respect of the preceding income year -

(i) a statement giving the particulars of the payee, the amount or sum made available and income tax deducted therefrom;

(ii) where no income tax has been deducted by virtue of section 111C(1A), a statement giving the particulars of the payee and the amount or sum made available.

(2) In the case of a financial institution, the statement referred to in subsection (1)(b) shall include, in respect of each payee, the aggregate amount of interest payable by the financial institution including its branches, where such aggregate amount exceeds 50,000 rupees, whether or not income tax has been deducted.

(3) The statements under subsections (1) and (2) shall contain such other particulars, and shall be made in such form and manner, as may be prescribed.

(4) Notwithstanding section 64 of the Banking Act 2004, section 26 of the Bank of Mauritius Act 2004 and the confidentiality provisions under any other enactment, a financial institution shall comply with the requirements of this Sub-Part.

* Please refer to endnotes at Appendix 1
(4A)467* Where a payer does not comply with subsection (1) (a) or (b) or (3) within the prescribed time, he shall be liable to pay to the Director-General a penalty of 5,000 rupees per month or part of the month, until the time the payer complies with that subsection, provided that the total penalty payable shall not exceed 20,000 rupees.

(b) Where a penalty is payable under paragraph (a), the Director-General shall make a claim to the payer specifying the amount of penalty payable and the reasons for making such a claim.[468*]

(c) Where a claim is made under paragraph (b), the payer shall pay the amount of penalty within 28 days of the date of the claim.

Sub-Part BC - Tax on Winnings[474*]

111O. Interpretation

In this Sub-part –

“given date” means a period of 24 hours starting at 10 o’clock in the morning on a day and ending at 10 o’clock in the morning on the following day;[475*]

“operator” means the Mauritius National Lottery Operator, a casino operator, a hotel casino operator or a gaming house operator licensed under the Gambling Regulatory Authority Act;

“winner” means a person to whom an amount payable as winnings is paid;

“winnings” means any amount paid out in money.
111P. Operator to deduct tax on winnings

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Sub-part, every operator shall, at the time any amount is payable as winnings, deduct tax from that amount at the rate of 10 per cent and remit it to the Director-General.

(2) No tax shall be deducted under this Sub-part where the total cumulative winnings paid to a person on any given date does not exceed 100,000 rupees.

111Q. Remittance of tax on winnings

(1) Every operator who deducts tax under section 111P shall remit electronically to the Director-General the tax so deducted not later than 20 days from the end of the month in which the tax was deducted and, at the same time, submit a return in such form as the Director-General may approve.

(2) Where an operator has, during a month, not paid any winnings on which tax is deductible, he shall submit a nil return to the Director-General.

111R. Penalty for late submission

Where an operator fails to submit a return under section 111Q, he shall be liable to pay to the Director-General a penalty representing 2,000 rupees per month or part of the month, until the time the return is submitted, provided that the total penalty payable shall not exceed 20,000 rupees.

111S. Penalty and interest for late payment

The provisions of sections 122 (1) and 122D shall apply in all respects to an operator who fails to remit any tax on winnings due on or before the last day on which it has to be remitted in accordance with section 111Q.

111T. Assessment and recovery of tax on winnings

The provisions of Parts IX, X and XI and sections 153, 155, 156 and 160 of this Act shall apply to the tax on winnings with such modifications, adaptations and exceptions as may be necessary.

Sub-Part BD – Presumptive Tax on Small Enterprise

111U. Interpretation

In this Sub-part –

“presumptive tax” means the tax imposed under this Sub-part;

“small enterprise” means a person –
(a) who is engaged in activities specified in the Thirteenth Schedule;

(b) whose gross income in an income year does not exceed 10 million rupees; and

(c) whose gross income from sources, other than those specified in the Thirteenth Schedule, does not exceed 400,000 rupees.

111V. Election to pay presumptive tax

(1) Subject to the other provisions of this Sub-part, a small enterprise may, by irrevocable notice, on or before the due date for the filing of its return of income, elect to pay a presumptive tax at the rate of one per cent of its gross income.

(2) Where a small enterprise has made an election under subsection (1), it shall submit a return to the Director-General not later than the due date for the filing of the return under sections 112, 116 and 119, as the case may be, specifying such particulars as the Director-General may determine and at the same time pay the presumptive tax payable in accordance with the return, after offsetting any tax deducted at source under section 111B.

(3) Where a small enterprise has made an election under subsection (1), it shall not be entitled to claim any deduction, Income Exemption Threshold, relief or allowance under Sub-part B, C, D or E of Part III or Sub-part C of Part IV, as the case may be.

111W. Penalty for late payment

Sections 122 and 122D shall apply in all respects where a small enterprise fails to pay the presumptive tax in accordance with section 111V.

111X. Assessment and recovery proceedings

(1) Where a person has submitted a return under section 111V, Parts IX, X and XI shall, subject to this section, apply with such modifications, adaptations and exceptions as may be necessary.

(2) Where it is found that a small enterprise eligible for an election under section 111V has underdeclared its gross income and the undeclared amount when aggregated to the declared gross income does not exceed 10 million rupees, the Director-General may impose presumptive tax on the undeclared gross income.
Sub-Part BE – COVID-19 Levy

111Y. Interpretation

In this Sub-part –

(2) Where the employer referred to in subsection (1) is –

(a) (i) an individual;

(ii) a resident société; or

(iii) a company whose accounting period ends on any date during the period starting on 1 May 2020 and ending on 31 December 2020, and starting on 1 May 2021 and ending on 31 December 2021, the levy shall be payable in respect of the years of assessment commencing on 1 July 2020 and 1 July 2021; or

(b) a company whose accounting period ends on any date during the period starting on 1 January 2021 and ending on 30 April 2021, and starting on 1 January 2022 and ending on 30 April 2022, the levy shall be payable in respect of the years of assessment commencing on 1 July 2021 and 1 July 2022.

(3) (a) In the case of an employer who is an individual, the levy payable under subsection (1) shall –

(i) in respect of the year of assessment commencing on 1 July 2020, be equivalent to –

(A) the total amount paid to him under the Wage Assistance Scheme; or

(B) 15 per cent of the gross income derived by him under section 10(1)(b), (c) and (g) after deduction of any expenditure allowable under sections 18, 19 and 24, whichever is lower; and

(ii) in respect of the year of assessment commencing on 1 July 2021, be equivalent to –

(A) the total amount paid to him under the Wage Assistance Scheme as reduced by the amount of levy payable for the year of assessment commencing on 1 July 2020; or

(B) 15 per cent of the gross income derived by him under section 10(1)(b), (c) and (g) after deduction of any expenditure allowable under sections 18, 19 and 24, whichever is lower.

(b) In the case of an employer who is a resident société or company referred to in subsection (2)(a)(ii) and (iii), the levy payable under subsection (1) shall –

(i) in respect of the year of assessment commencing on 1 July 2020, be equivalent to –

(A) the total amount paid to him under the Wage Assistance Scheme; or

(B) 15 per cent of his chargeable income for levy,
whichever is lower; and

(ii) in respect of the year of assessment commencing on 1 July 2021, be equivalent to –

(A) the total amount paid to him under the Wage Assistance Scheme as reduced by the amount of levy payable for the year of assessment commencing on 1 July 2020; or

(B) 15 per cent of his chargeable income for levy,

whichever is lower.

(c) In the case of an employer who is a company referred to in subsection (2)(b), the levy payable under subsection (1) shall –

(i) in respect of the year of assessment commencing on 1 July 2021, be equivalent to –

(A) the total amount paid to him under the Wage Assistance Scheme; or

(B) 15 per cent of his chargeable income for levy,

whichever is lower; and

(ii) in respect of the year of assessment commencing on 1 July 2022, be equivalent to –

(A) the total amount paid to him under the Wage Assistance Scheme as reduced by the amount of levy payable for the year of assessment commencing on 1 July 2021; or

(B) 15 per cent of his chargeable income for levy,

whichever is lower.

(4) The levy payable under subsection (1) shall be declared by the employer in his return required to be submitted by him under section 112, 116 or 119, as applicable, and shall be paid to the Director-General, on or before the date by which the return is required to be submitted.

(5) Where an employer who is required to pay a levy under subsection (1) fails to do so on or before the date it is payable, the Director-General may, within a period of 3 years from the date the levy is payable, issue a claim to him requesting him to pay the levy, together with any penalty and interest applicable under section 111ZA, within 28 days from the date of the notice.

(6) Where an employer to whom a claim has been issued under subsection (5) fails to pay the amount claimed within the date specified in the notice, the Director-General may use his powers under Part IVC of the Mauritius Revenue Authority Act, with such modifications, adaptations and exceptions as may be necessary, to enable him to recover the amount unpaid.

(7) The Minister may by, regulations, exclude certain category of employers from the levy.

111ZA. Penalty, interest and offence relating to levy

(1) Where an employer fails to pay the levy on or before the last day on which it is payable under section 111Z, he shall be liable to pay to the Director-General, in addition to the levy –

(a) a penalty of 10 per cent of the amount of levy remaining unpaid; and

(b) interest at the rate of one per cent per month or part of the month during which the levy remains unpaid.

(2) Any employer who, in relation to section 111Z, makes a false declaration or gives a statement which is false or misleading in any material particular shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one million rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

111ZB. Anti-avoidance provisions

The anti-avoidance provisions of Part VII shall apply in all respect to the levy payable under section 111Z.

Sub-Part C – Returns

Any person who is required to submit his return under section 116(3) and make any payment of tax electronically, but fails to do so, after written notice being given to him by the Director-General, and his failure within a period of 7 days from the date of the notice to justify the failure, shall be liable to pay to the Director-General, a penalty of -

(a) 20 per cent of the tax payable, provided that the penalty payable shall not exceed 100,000 rupees; or

(b) 5,000 rupees where no tax liability is declared in the return.

122D. Interest on unpaid tax

(1) Any person who fails to pay any income tax under –

(a) section 100 or 129A, shall be liable to pay, in addition to the income tax and penalty under sections 101 and 101A, interest at the rate of one per cent per month or part of the month during which the income tax remains unpaid; or

(b) section 50F, 106, 112, 116, 119, 129 or 131 shall be liable to pay, in addition to the income tax and penalty under sections 50F, 109, 110, 111, 121, 122, 122C and 129(1A), interest at the rate of 0.5 per cent per month or part of the month during which the tax remains unpaid.

(2) The interest shall not apply to any penalty under sections 50F, 101, 101A, 109, 110, 111, 121, 122, 122C and 129(1A).

122DA. Penalty for loss over claimed

(1) Where a person has claimed a loss in excess of the actual loss incurred or brought forward, he shall be liable to a penalty of up to 5 per cent of the loss overclaimed.

(2) Any penalty charged under subsection (1) shall be offset against the amount of loss to be carried forward, where applicable.
Sub-Part D – Returns on Cash Basis for Small Enterprise 532*

122E. Application to compute net income on cash basis

(1) Notwithstanding this Act but subject to this section, a small enterprise may apply to the Director-General, in such form and manner as the Director-General may determine, for the net income of its business to be computed on cash basis instead of accrual basis.

(2) Where a small enterprise applies under section 27E of the Value Added Tax Act to operate the VAT annual accounting system on a cash basis, it shall be considered to have also applied to compute the net income of its business on a cash basis.

(3) Where the application of a small enterprise under subsection (1) has been approved, the small enterprise shall compute the net income of its business on cash basis as from such date as the Director-General may approve and on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(4) In this section –

“small enterprise” –

(a) means a person who has an annual turnover not exceeding 10 million rupees; but

(b) does not include –

(i) a company holding a Global Business Licence; and

(ii) a non-resident société.

PART IX - GENERAL POWERS OF DIRECTOR-GENERAL

123. Power to require information

(1) Every person shall, when so required by notice in writing, furnish to the Director-General in such manner and in such form as may be approved by him, within the time specified in the notice, information and particulars relating to -

(a) contracts for the provision of goods and services;

(b) rent or premium on property;

(c) dividends and interest paid;

(d) emoluments payable; and

(e) such other transactions, which the Director-General considers necessary or relevant for the purposes of this Act and which may be in the possession or custody or under the control of that person.

(2) Any person shall, when so required by notice in writing, furnish to the Director-General, within the time specified in the notice, information as to any money, funds or other assets which may be held by that person for, or of any money due by that person to, any other person.*

(3) Repealed *

(4) Notwithstanding section 64 of the Banking Act 2004* and any other enactment, the Director-General may require from any person information relating to -

(a) interest paid to any depositor; *

(b) any account or deposit operated, made or opened, as the case may be, by any client, customer or patron of that person, whether such account or deposit is in his own name, in a fictitious name or in the name of any other person, upon the Director-General stating in writing that -

(i) he has reason to believe that the client, customer or patron has been convicted of an offence relating to dangerous drugs or has been or is illicitly in possession of or has been or is illicitly dealing in dangerous drugs or dangerous weapons; or *

(ii) he reasonably requires the information in order to prevent any evasion of income tax or any fraud on the public revenue.

(5) Where any person who is required to furnish any information under subsection (4)(b) considers that the Director-General’s request is unreasonable, he may lodge written representations with the Clerk to the Assessment Review Committee in accordance with section 19 of the Mauritius Revenue Authority Act 2004.*

(6) At the hearing on the representations before the Committee, it shall be sufficient for the Director-General to satisfy the Committee that he has reasonable grounds to request the disclosure of the information.*

(7) Repealed *

(8) Every person who fails to comply with a request made by the Director-General under subsection (4)(b) shall, unless the request of the Director-General has been cancelled following the hearing on the representations before the Committee, commit an offence and shall, on conviction [by the Intermediate Court]542, be liable to a fine which shall not exceed one million rupees.

[(9)] Deleted 543*

123A. Act or thing in respect of a period before 3 years of assessment preceding that year of assessment 544*

(1) Notwithstanding this Act and subject to sections 127 and 130, the Director-General shall, in any year of assessment and in relation to the income tax liability of a person, not – 545*

(a) require any information, statement or return; or

(b) make any assessment or claim,

under this Act in respect of a period before 3 years of assessment immediately preceding that year of assessment, unless the Director-General applies ex parte for and obtains the authorisation of the Independent Tax Panel under the Mauritius Revenue Authority Act.

(2) An authorisation under subsection (1) shall be granted where the Director-General establishes to the satisfaction of the Independent Tax Panel that there is prima facie evidence of fraud or non-submission of return by a person liable to tax.546*

(3) In an application under subsection (1), the Director-General shall specify the period in respect of which he proposes to do the act or thing referred to in subsection (1).

123B. Statement by company having annual turnover exceeding 100 million rupees 547*

(1) Where the annual turnover of a company exceeds 100 million rupees, it shall submit to the Director-General a statement giving details of payments made during the year for the purchase of goods and services in excess of 100,000 rupees and giving such information and particulars within such time and in such manner as may be prescribed.

(2) Where, in a year, a company is required to submit a statement under subsection (1), it shall submit the statement in respect of every succeeding year, unless otherwise authorised in writing by the Director-General.

(3) Where a company does not submit a statement under subsection (1) within the prescribed time, it shall be liable to pay to the Director-General a penalty of 5,000 rupees per month or part of the month, until the time the statement is submitted to the Director-General, provided that the total penalty payable shall not exceed 20,000 rupees.
(4) Where a penalty is payable under subsection (3), the Director-General shall make a claim to the company specifying the amount of penalty payable and the reason for making such a claim.

(5) Where a claim is made under subsection (4), the company shall pay the amount of penalty within 28 days of the date of the claim.

(6) Any company which fails to comply with subsection (1) shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 50,000 rupees.

123C. Submission of statement of assets and liabilities by individuals

(1) Subject to this section, every person who

(a) in an income year, derives net income and exempt income exceeding 15 million rupees; or

(b) owns assets, the cost of which, when aggregated with the cost of assets owned by his spouse and dependent children, exceeds 50 million rupees, shall submit to the Director-General, a statement of assets and liabilities at the time of submission of his return under section 112.

(1A) Where the cost of an asset does not exceed 200,000 rupees, the person may exclude that asset in the statement of assets and liabilities.

(1B) Where a person is liable to submit a statement of assets and liabilities at the end of an income year, he shall not be liable to submit another statement of assets and liabilities in respect of the succeeding income year unless the cost of the assets owned by the person, his spouse and dependent children have, in the aggregate, increased by more than 15 per cent.

(1C) A citizen who is not resident in Mauritius, for tax purposes, or a non-citizen shall not be liable to submit a statement of assets and liabilities under subsection (1).

(2) The statement of assets and liabilities shall be in the form set out in the Twelfth Schedule.

(3) Where a person does not submit a statement of assets and liabilities under subsection (1), he shall be liable to pay to the Director-General a penalty of 2,000 rupees per month or part of the month, until the statement is submitted to the Director-General, provided that the total penalty shall not exceed 20,000 rupees.

(4) A person shall not, in respect of an income year, be required to submit a statement of assets and liabilities with his return of income under subsection (1) where he has submitted a return of income for each of the 5 income years immediately preceding that income year.
(5) Notwithstanding any other enactment, this section shall be deemed to have come into operation on 1 July 2018.

123D. Statements of financial transactions or statements on life insurance

(1) (a) Subject to this section, every bank or non-bank deposit taking institution under the Banking Act shall furnish to the Director-General, on or before 15 August in every year, a statement of financial transactions effected by –

(i) an individual, a société or a succession that made a deposit exceeding 500,000 rupees or deposits exceeding 4 million rupees in the aggregate in the preceding year; or

(ii) a person, other than an individual, a società or succession, who made a deposit exceeding one million rupees or deposits exceeding 8 million rupees in the aggregate in the preceding year.

(b) A Statement of financial transactions shall, in respect of an account holder, be submitted electronically to the Director-General in such form and manner as he may determine, giving the following information –

(ii) retention for such period as the Director-General considers necessary any book, account, record, register, statement or document specified in subparagraph (i) and for taking copies or extracts therefrom;

(b) to attend, at such time and place as the Director-General may specify, for the purpose of being examined in respect of any transaction or matter relating to the income tax liability of that person.

126. Power of inspection

(1) For the purposes of ascertaining the tax liability of any person or the tax paid or payable or for making any assessment under this Act or for the purpose of administering this Act, the Director-General or any officer authorised by him may -
(a) at all reasonable times, enter any business premises or place where any business is carried on or anything is done in connection with the business;

(b) inspect any information, book, record or other document, whether these are recorded in a computer system or otherwise, and retain any such information, book, record or document and take copies or extracts therefrom; and

(c) require the person carrying on the business or any of his employees or any other person on those premises or at that place to give him all reasonable assistance and to answer all proper questions either orally or in writing.

(2) Any person who -

(a) fails to provide such assistance or to answer such questions as may be required under subsection (1);

(b) obstructs the Director-General or any officer in the exercise of his powers under subsection (1), shall commit an offence.

126A. Power to access computers and other electronic devices

(1) For the purposes of ascertaining the tax liability of any person under this Act, the Director-General may, subject to subsection (2), at any reasonable time -

(a) have access to -

(i) any computer, computer software, whether installed in the computer or otherwise, electronic till or any other device, used in connection with any document which the person is required to produce for the purpose of ascertaining his tax liability;

(ii) any information, code or technology which has the capability of retransforming or unscrambling encrypted data contained or available to such computers or devices into readable and comprehensive format or text;

(b) inspect and check the operation of any such computer, electronic till or other device and make extracts of any computer software, computer output or such other document used in connection therewith;

(c) require any person by whom or on whose behalf the computer or other electronic device is operated, or any person concerned with the operation of the equipment, to give such assistance as is necessary for the purposes of this section;

(d) require any person in possession of decryption information to grant him access to such decryption information necessary to decrypt data required for the purposes of this section.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not apply to any banking business regulated by the Banking Act.

127. Time limit to require information and production of books and records

(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3)*, the Director-General shall not, in a year of assessment, require a person -

(a) to furnish the information required to be furnished under sections 123(1) and 124; or

(b) to produce the books and records required to be produced under section 125, in respect of a period beyond 3 years of assessment preceding that year of assessment.566

(2) Where the Director-General, in a year of assessment, requires a person to furnish information under section 124, or to produce books and records under section 125, for the purposes of examining a return submitted by that person under section 112, 113 or 116, the time limit under subsection (1) shall be a period of 3 years of assessment following the year of assessment in which the return is submitted.567

(3)*Where the Director-General considers that the information or the books and records referred to in subsection (1) or (2) are required to be furnished or produced in respect of a period beyond the time limit specified in that subsection, he shall, by notice in writing to the person give reasons for which such information or such books and records are required.

(4) Any person aggrieved by a notice under subsection (3)* may lodge written representations with the Clerk to the Assessment Review Committee in accordance with section 19 of the Mauritius Revenue Authority Act 2004.572

128. Power to waive penalty or interest

(1) The Director-General may waive the whole or part of any penalty or interest imposed under this Act where he is satisfied that failure to comply with this Act was attributable to a just or reasonable cause.
(2) In the exercise of his power under subsection (1), the Director-General shall, in writing, record the reasons for waiving the whole or part of the penalty or interest.\textsuperscript{573*}

128A. Use of computer system\textsuperscript{574*}

(1) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Act, the Director-General may authorise a return, document and payment of income tax or any act or thing which is required to be done in relation thereto, to be made, submitted or done electronically through such computer system as may be approved by him.\textsuperscript{575*}

(2) A person who submits a return or document and pays income tax in the manner specified in subsection (1) shall continue to submit returns or documents and pay tax in that manner unless otherwise authorised by the Director-General.

(3) Where, immediately before the commencement of this section, a person has been submitting a return or document and has been paying income tax electronically, the computer system of that person shall be deemed to have been approved by the Director-General for the purposes of subsection (1).

(4) Deleted\textsuperscript{576*}

PART X - ASSESSMENTS, OBJECTIONS AND REVIEW OF ASSESSMENTS\textsuperscript{577*}

129. Director-General may make assessments

(1) Where, in respect of a year of assessment, the Director-General -

(a) is not satisfied with the return submitted by a person under section 112, 113, 116 or 119\textsuperscript{578*}, as the case may be; or

(b) has reason to believe that a person who has not submitted a return of income is a taxpayer, he may, according to the best of his judgement, make an assessment of the amount of chargeable income of,\textsuperscript{579*} and income tax payable by, including any penalty under sections 109, 110, 111, 121, 122 and 122C and any interest under section 122D, that person for that year of assessment and give him written notice of the assessment.\textsuperscript{580*}

(1A) Where an assessment is made under subsection (1), the amount of tax claimed, excluding any penalty under sections 109, 110, 111, 121, 122 and 122C and any interest under section 122D, shall carry a penalty not exceeding 50 per cent and such penalty shall be part of the tax claimed.\textsuperscript{581*}
(2) Where the Director-General has given written notice to any person of an assessment under subsection (1), that person shall pay the income tax within 28 days of the date of the notice of assessment.

(3) Deleted

129A. Assessments on employers and payers

(1) Where, in respect of an income year, the Director-General has reason to believe that an employer or a payer has not remitted or paid the appropriate amount of tax under Sub-part A or Sub-part BA of Part VIII, he may claim the amount of tax due by giving the employer or the payer, as the case may be, written notice of assessment.

(1A) Where an assessment is made under subsection (1), the amount of additional tax claimed, excluding any penalty and interest under sections 122 and 122D, respectively, shall carry a penalty not exceeding 50 per cent of the amount of additional tax claimed.

(2) Where the Director-General has given notice of assessment under subsection (1), the employer or the payer, as the case may be, shall pay the amount of income tax specified in the notice within 28 days of the date of the notice of assessment.

(3) (a) Where an employer or a payer is dissatisfied with a notice of assessment under subsection (1), he may, within 28 days of the date of the notice of assessment, object to the assessment in a form approved by the Director-General and sent to him by registered post or electronically.

(b) The provisions of section 131A and 131B shall apply to any objection made under paragraph (a).

130. Time limit to make assessments

(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Director-General shall not, in a year of assessment, make an assessment under section 129 or 129A in respect of a period beyond 3 years of assessment preceding the year of assessment in which a return under section 112, 113, 116 or 119, as the case may be, is made.

(2) Repealed

131. Special assessments

(1) Where the Director-General is not satisfied with the return submitted by a person under section 115 or 117, as the case may be or has reason to believe that a person who has not submitted a return under those sections is a taxpayer, he may make an assessment of the amount of chargeable income of and income tax payable by, including any penalty under section 109, 110, 111, 121 or 122, as the case may be, and any interest under section 122D, that person and give him written notice of the assessment.\textsuperscript{588*}

(4) Every self-employed person who is entitled to the allowance under subsection (2) shall make an application electronically to the Director-General, which shall be accompanied by the following information –

(a) his monthly income;

(b) his residential address;

(c) his bank details; and

(d) such other information as the Director-General may require.

(5) An application under subsection (4) shall be made –

(a) within a period of 3 months from the end of the months to which it is related; or

(b) within a period of 2 months from the date the COVID-19 period lapses, whichever is earlier.

* Please refer to endnotes at Appendix 1
(6) The Director-General shall make payment of the allowance payable under subsection (2) on the basis of the information provided under subsection (4) and any other information available to him.

(7) (a) The Director-General may, not later than one year after payment of an allowance is made under this Part, request any information or document from a person to ascertain the correctness of the information provided under subsection (4) and the eligibility of the person to the allowance payable under subsection (2).

(b) The person to whom a request is made under paragraph (a) shall provide the Director-General with such information and document as he may require.

(8) Where a person –

(a) who is not entitled to an allowance has benefited from an allowance in breach of subsection (1) or (3); or

(b) has benefited from an allowance in excess of the amount to which he is entitled under this Part, the Director-General may, by virtue of the powers conferred on him under the Mauritius Revenue Authority Act, recover the excess amount or allowance, as the case may be.

(9) Where a person –

(a) makes a false declaration to the Director-General to unduly benefit from an allowance under this Part; or

(b) refuses to give information under subsection (7) or gives false information under this Part,

he shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 10,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.

(10) The secrecy provision under section 154 shall not apply to enable exchange of information with Ministries, Government departments and other Government agencies.

(11) (a) The Minister may, for the purposes of this Part, make such regulations as he thinks fit.
PART XIII – MISCELLANEOUS

151. Ascertainment of income tax in certain cases

(1) Where, for any of the purposes of this Act, including the application of the provisions of any double taxation arrangement, it is necessary to ascertain the amount of income tax payable by a taxpayer in respect of any income of a particular nature or from a particular source derived by him in an income year, the amount of income tax shall be the product of the formula set out in subsection (2).

(2) The formula referred to in subsection (1) shall be -

\frac{a \times c}{b}

where

- \( a \) is the amount in respect of which it is necessary to ascertain the amount of tax;
- \( b \) is the amount of the income that was taken into account in calculating \( c \);
- \( c \) is the amount of income tax payable by the taxpayer before allowing any credit for foreign income tax in respect of income derived by him in that income year.

(2) Any reference to "income" in subsection (2) shall be construed as a reference to income reduced by any deduction, allowance or relief that may properly be regarded as referring to that income, in particular,

(a) income derived by way of emoluments reduced by emoluments relief;

(b) income derived from any business including agricultural activities, reduced by -

(i) the amount of interest paid on capital employed in the course of those activities; and

(ii) allowances allowed for assets used for the purposes of those activities.

151A. Islamic financing arrangement

(1) The provisions of sections 7, 10, 19, 27A, 58, 84, 111A, 111B, 111C, 111K and 123 of this Act shall apply in relation to any Islamic financing arrangement as if a reference in any of those provisions to interest payable, paid, derived, received or incurred in relation to any loan, deposit or mortgage were a reference to the effective return of the Islamic financing arrangement.

(2) For the purposes of this section –

(a) “Islamic financing arrangement” means a financing arrangement between –

(i) a bank and any other person, in so far as the arrangement is related to its Islamic banking business; or

(ii) a non-bank deposit taking institution and any other person with respect to the acceptance of Islamic deposit and the financing of the activities of the non-bank deposit taking institution or such other activities as may be approved by the central bank, the aims and operations of which are, in addition to the conventional good governance and risk management rules, in consonance with the ethos and value system of Islam;

(b) “bank”, “Islamic banking business”, “non-bank deposit taking institution” and “Islamic deposit” have the same meaning as in the Banking Act 2004;

(c) “effective return” means the return in lieu of interest that is payable, paid, derived, received or incurred under an Islamic financing arrangement.

152. Refund of excess income tax

(1) Subject to this section, where, in respect of an income year, a person has paid tax of an amount in excess of the income tax liability on his chargeable income, he may claim a refund of the tax paid in excess provided he has submitted a return under section 112, 116 or 119.

(b) Where a person makes a claim under paragraph (a) and he has not submitted a return of income under section 112, 116 or 119, he shall submit the return together with his claim.

(2) Subject to paragraph (b), a refund under subsection (1) shall be made within a period of 60 days of the due date for the submission of the return or the date of receipt of the claim, whichever is the later.

(b) Where the Director-General requests a person to submit any document or information in respect of a claim for refund of excess income tax under this section, the time limit for the refund shall run from the date of receipt of all such documents and information requested.
(2A) Where the refund is made after the period specified in subsection (2)(a) or (b), as the case may be, the refund shall carry interest, free of income tax, at the prevailing Repo rate determined by the Bank of Mauritius. 657*

(3) Any person may make a claim to the Director-General for a refund of tax paid in excess within 3 years of assessment after the end of the year of assessment in respect of which the tax was overpaid. 658*

(4) Where a claim is made under subsection (3) and the Director-General is satisfied that the claimant is entitled to the refund, he shall refund the amount of tax so paid in excess.

(4A) Where a person has claimed a refund of tax in excess of the refund he ought to have claimed, he shall be liable to a penalty of up to 25 per cent on the amount of the excess refund claimed. 659*

(4B) Any penalty charged under subsection (4A) shall be offset against the amount of refund, where applicable.

(5) No refund under this section shall be made where the amount claimed does not exceed 25 rupees.

152A. Erroneous refund 660*

(1) Where any person has benefited through error from a refund, he shall be liable to pay to the Director-General the amount of income tax which has been erroneously refunded.

(2) The Director-General may, by written notice, order the person under subsection (1) to pay, within 28 days of the date of the notice, the tax which has been erroneously refunded.

(3) Where the person fails to pay the tax within the due date specified in the notice under subsection (2), he shall be liable to pay, in addition to the tax, interest at the rate of 0.5 per cent per month as from the date immediately following the due date until the date of payment. 661*

153. Keeping of books and records

(1) Every person carrying on business or deriving income other than emoluments shall keep, whether on computer or otherwise, in the English or French language, proper books, registers, accounts, records such as receipts, invoices and vouchers, other documents such as contracts and agreements, and a full and true record of all transactions and other acts engaged in by him that are relevant for the purpose of enabling his gross income and allowable deductions to be readily ascertainable by the Director-General and for any other purposes of this Act.

* Please refer to endnotes at Appendix 1
(2) Every employer shall keep -
   (a) records showing emoluments paid to each employee and tax withheld from those emoluments; and
   (b) the Employee Declaration Forms furnished by his employees.

(3) Every book, record or document required to be kept under this section shall be kept for a period of at least 5 years after the completion of the transaction, act or operation to which it relates.

154. Secrecy

(1) Subject to subsection (4) and section 76, every officer shall -
   (a) before he begins to perform his duties under this Act, take an oath of fidelity and secrecy in conformity with this section;
   (b) maintain and aid in maintaining the confidentiality and secrecy of any matter relating to this Act which comes to his knowledge.

(2) Except for the purposes of -
   (a) this Act;
   (b) any other revenue law;
   (c) the National Pensions (Registration of Employers) Regulations
       1977;
   (d) the Statistics Act;
   (e) notifying the Board of Investment under the Investment
       Promotion Act that a non-citizen –
       (i) has not satisfied or is not satisfying the criteria referred to in items 1, 2 and 3 of Part I and Part III of the Schedule to the Investment Promotion Act; or
       (ii) no more satisfies the requirements of paragraph (a) of subsection (5AA) of section 5A of the Immigration Act;
   (f) the Prevention of Corruption Act 2002;
   (g) the Dangerous Drugs Act; or
   (h) the Financial Intelligence and Anti-Money Laundering Act, or where he is authorised in writing to do so by the Minister, no officer shall communicate to any person any matter relating to this Act.

(2A) Notwithstanding subsection (2)(d), no officer shall, for the purposes of the Statistics Act, disclose the name of an individual.
(3) Except where it is necessary to do so for the purpose of administering this Act or any other revenue law or the National Pensions (Registration of Employers) Regulations 1977 or in any proceedings instituted under the Prevention of Corruption Act 666*, no officer shall be required to produce in any court any document or to divulge or communicate to any court any matter coming to his knowledge in the performance of his duties as an officer.

(4) Nothing in this section shall prevent the disclosure to a taxpayer or, with his written consent, to any other person of -

(a) a document submitted to the Director-General by the taxpayer;
(b) an assessment made upon the taxpayer; or
(c) the amount of income tax paid or due by the taxpayer.

(4A) Notwithstanding subsections (1) to (4), any officer may exchange information in respect of all the taxes falling under the purview of the Multilateral Convention on Mutual Administrative Assistance in Tax Matters signed by Mauritius.667*

(5) Any officer who, without lawful excuse, contravenes this section shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 5,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years.

155. Service of documents

(1) Any return, Statement of Income, payment or other document required or authorised to be served on or given or made to the Director-General shall be forwarded so as to reach the office of the Director-General not later than the due date.668*

(2)669* Repealed.

(3) Any notice of assessment, determination or other notice required to be served on or given to any person by the Director-General may be served or given by -

(a) delivering it personally to him;
(b) leaving it at or sending it to his usual or last known business or private address; or
(c) transmitting it electronically or through any other mechanical or electronic device.570*

(4) Where a person -

(a) refuses to accept delivery of a letter addressed to him; or
(b) fails to take delivery of such a letter which he has been informed awaits him at a post office, the document shall be deemed to have been served on him on the date on which he refused to accept the letter or was informed that the letter was at the post office.

155A. Admissibility of documents produced by computer

(1) In any legal proceedings under this Act or any regulations made thereunder, a statement contained in a document generated by a computer shall be admissible as evidence of any fact stated therein of which direct oral evidence would be admissible if it is shown that the prescribed conditions have been satisfied.

(2) Any person giving any information under this section which is false or misleading in any material particular shall commit an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding 500,000 rupees and to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 5 years.

156. Validity of notice of assessment or determination

The validity of a notice of assessment or a determination made under this Act shall not be affected by reason of an error or mistake or omission as to -

(a) the name or address of the person;
(b) the date or period;
(c) the description of any income; or
(d) the amount of income tax assessed,

if the person intended to be assessed or affected is sufficiently designated and the error or mistake or omission is not likely to deceive or mislead that person.

157. Waiver of tax

(1) The Minister may, in the public interest, waive the whole or part of any income tax payable by an insurer and any of its related companies, including any amount withheld under section 93 or any amount deducted under section 111C but not remitted to the Director-General, where a special administrator has, pursuant to section 110A of the Insurance Act, been appointed to the whole or part of the business activities of the insurer and any of its related activities.

(2) In this section –

“insurer” has the same meaning as in the Insurance Act.

158. Remission of tax

The Minister may remit or order the refund of the whole or part of any income tax other than the tax payable under section 149.
159. Rulings

(1) Any person who derives or may derive any income may apply to the Director-General for a ruling as to the application of this Act to that income.

(2) An application under this section shall be in writing and shall -

(a) include full details of the transaction relating to the income together with all documents relevant to the transaction;

(b) specify precisely the question as to which the ruling is required;

(c) give a full statement setting out the opinion of that person as to the application of this Act to that income; and

(d) be accompanied by such fee as may be prescribed.

(3) The Director-General shall, subject to subsection (3A), within 30 days of the receipt of an application under this section, give a ruling on the question to the applicant.\(^{673}\)

(3A) Where the application is in respect of an issue which is the subject of an objection, representations before the Assessment Review Committee or an appeal before the Supreme Court or Judicial Committee of the Privy Council the Director-General shall not give a ruling on that issue.\(^{674}\)

(4) Subject to subsection (5), a ruling under this section shall be binding upon the Director-General.

(5) Where there is any material difference between the facts relating to the transaction and the details contained in the application, the ruling shall not be binding upon the Director-General.

(6) A ruling under this section shall be published by the Director-General in such manner as he thinks fit except that the identity of the person to whom it relates shall not be indicated.

(7) Subject to subsection (8), any person may rely upon a ruling published under subsection (6) as a statement binding on the Director-General as to the application of this Act to the facts set out in that ruling.

(8) The Director-General may, by publication in the Gazette, notify that a ruling which has been published shall cease to be binding with effect from a date which shall not be earlier than the date of the notice.
159A.* Statement of Practice

The Director-General shall, from time to time, issue and publish Statements of Practice in relation to the application of specific provisions of this Act.

Obligation to Withhold PAYE for September 2016

(53) Every employer shall, for the purpose of withholding income tax in accordance with section 96 for the month of September 2016, take into account the amount of income exemption threshold claimed by the employee in his Employee Declaration Form in respect of the income year ending 30 June 2016.

Excess CSR Payment

(54) Where on the coming into operation of section 50L, a company has paid out its CSR Fund, a sum in excess of the amount provided for under that Fund, the excess amount referred to in the repealed section 50L(6) may be carried forward and offset in equal instalments against any amount to be remitted under section 50L(2)(a) in respect of 5 succeeding years starting as from year of assessment 2016/2017.

(55) (a) Where, during the period 1 July 2017 to 30 June 2022, a person has incurred any qualifying expenditure directly related to his existing trade or business, he may, in the income year in which the qualifying expenditure was incurred, deduct twice the amount of the expenditure, provided the research and development is carried out in Mauritius and no deduction has been claimed under section 24.

(b) Notwithstanding section 18, where, during the period 1 July 2017 to 30 June 2022, a person has incurred qualifying expenditure which is not directly related to his existing trade or business, the Director-General may allow a deduction of the expenditure in the income year in which the expenditure was incurred.

(c) In this subsection –

“qualifying expenditure” –

(a) means any expenditure relating to research and development; and

(b) includes –

(i) expenditure incurred on innovation, improvement or development of a process, product or service;

(iii) staff costs, consumable items, computer software directly used in research and development and subcontracted research and development.
Definition of foreign source income

(56) Notwithstanding the amendment brought to the definition of “foreign source income” in section 2, the following provisions shall continue to apply –

(a) in the case of a corporation issued with a Category 1 Global Business Licence under the Financial Services Act on or before 16 October 2017, the foreign source income shall, up to 30 June 2021, include income derived from its transactions with non-residents or corporations holding a Global Business Licence under the Financial Services Act;

(b) in the case of a bank holding a banking licence under the Banking Act, the foreign source income shall, up to the year of assessment commencing on 1 July 2019, include income derived from its banking transactions with –

(i) non-residents; or

(ii) corporations holding a Global Business Licence under the Financial Services Act.

Category 2 Global Business Companies

(57) (a) Notwithstanding the deletion of the item “A company holding a Category 2 Global Business Licence under the Financial Services Act” from Part I of the Second Schedule, the exemption provided under that item shall continue to apply until 30 June 2021 to any company issued with a Category 2 Global Business Licence under the Financial Services Act on or before 16 October 2017.

(b) Subsection (a) shall not apply to –

(i) such intellectual property assets acquired from a related party after 16 October 2017;

(ii) such intellectual property assets acquired from an unrelated party, or such newly created intellectual property assets, after 30 June 2018;

(iii) income derived from such specific assets acquired or projects started after 31 December 2018, as the Director-General may determine.

Section 140A added by FA 2002

140A. Proceedings for temporary closing down of business

(1) Where a person fails to pay any amount of income tax assessed under this Act, the Director-General may notify the person in writing of his intention to close down part or the whole of the business of that person for a temporary period not exceeding 14 days, unless the person, within a period of 7 days of the date of the notice -

(a) pays the amount of income tax unpaid; or

(b) gives security to the satisfaction of the Director-General for payment of the amount of the income tax unpaid.

(2) (a) Where the person fails to comply with the notice issued under subsection (1), the Director-General may, with the concurrence of the Revenue Authority established under the Unified Revenue Act, make an application under oath, in such form as may be prescribed, to a District Magistrate for an order to close down part or the whole of the business of that person for a period not exceeding 14 days.

(b) Where an application under oath is made to a Magistrate in the manner specified in paragraph (a), the Magistrate may forthwith grant the application.

(c) Upon granting an application under paragraph (b), the Magistrate shall issue an order to an Usher, in such form as may be prescribed, to close down the business of the person in

(3) Where an Usher executes an order under subsection (2), he shall affix in a conspicuous place on the front of the premises of the business or part of the business which has been closed, a notice duly certified by the Director-General bearing the words "CLOSED TEMPORARILY FOR NOT PAYING INCOME TAX".

(4) Where an order under subsection (2) has been executed and the person -

(a) effects payment of the amount of income tax unpaid; or

(b) gives security to the satisfaction of the Director-General for payment of the amount of the income tax unpaid, the order shall lapse and the Director-General shall, in writing, notify the person accordingly.

(5) Any person who, contrary to the order, carries on the business or part of the business concerned or who commits any act in breach of the order under this section, shall commit an offence.

631 FA 2018 – Sections 137 to 144 repealed w.e.f 9 August 2018.

141. Privilege

(1) The Government shall have, in respect of any income tax due and so long as the income tax is not paid in full, a privilege on all immovable properties belonging to the person by whom the income tax is payable.

(2) Where the Director-General thinks it necessary for securing the recovery of any income tax due to inscribe the privilege provided for under subsection (1), he shall deposit with the Conservator of Mortgages 2 identical memoranda in the form specified in Part II of the Eighth Schedule and shall forthwith notify the person by whom the income tax is payable of the deposit of the memoranda.

(3) The Conservator of Mortgages shall, upon deposit of the memoranda, inscribe the privilege generally on all immovable properties belonging, or which may subsequently belong, to the person by whom the income tax is payable, and shall return one of the memoranda to the Director-General with a statement written or stamped on it to the effect that the privilege has been duly inscribed.

(4) Where a privilege is inscribed under this section, it shall take effect from the date of the inscription.

(5) (a) Where any income tax in respect of which an inscription has been taken under this section is paid in full or the tax liability is discharged, the Director-General shall forthwith send to the Conservator of Mortgages a request in the form specified in Part III of the Eighth Schedule to erase the inscription.

(b) The Director-General may send a request to the Conservator of Mortgages to erase the inscription in respect of any property belonging to the person by whom income tax is payable where the Director-General is satisfied that the value of the other properties of the person is sufficient to secure payment of the amount which has remained unpaid.

(6) (a) The inscription of a privilege under this section shall be erased by the Conservator of Mortgages at the request of the Director-General.

(b) Where an inscription of privilege is erased pursuant to paragraph (a), the Director-General shall, within 5 working days of the date of the notification of the erasure by the Conservator of Mortgages, give written notice of that fact to the person who owed the income tax.

(7) Any inscription or erasure which is required to be taken or made under this section shall be free from stamp duty under the Stamp Duty Act 1990 or registration dues leviable under the Registration Duty Act or any other costs.

FA 2018 – Sections 137 to 144 repealed w.e.f 9 August 2018.
