1. Short title

These regulations may be cited as the Income Tax Regulations 1996.

2. Interpretation

In these regulations -

“Act” means the Income Tax Act 1995.

3. Exempt income^{3*}

(1) The exemption under item 6 of Sub-Part A of Part II of the Second Schedule to the Act shall -

(a) subject to paragraph (b), apply to the aggregate amount of lump sum and allowances specified in that item and received in an income year and the 4 succeeding income years;

(b) in relation to a retiring allowance made under paragraph (c) of that item, not apply –

(i) Revoked;^{4*}

(ii) (A) to a relative of the employer;

(B) where the employer is a société, to an associate or a relative of an associate, or

(C) where the employer is a company, to a shareholder or a relative of a shareholder, except to the extent that the Director-General determines that the payment would be reasonable if the taxpayer were not a person specified under the subparagraph;

(iii) to a person-

(A) who has not attained the appropriate retiring age; or

(B) who retires after completing less than 10 years' employment.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation, “employment” includes any employment of the taxpayer-

(a) with any company which in the opinion of the Director-General -

(i) consisted wholly or substantially of the same shareholders; or

- (ii) was under the control of the same persons, as the company from whose employment the taxpayer retired;
- (b) with the same employer, whether or not the business of the employer was the same;
- (c) in the same business, whether or not there had been a change of ownership of the business; or
- (d) which, in the opinion of the Director-General, was substantially the same employment as that from which the taxpayer retired.

3A. Fringe benefits ^{5*}

For the purposes of section 10(2)(d) of the Act, the value of fringe benefits to be included in the gross income of an individual shall be as specified in the Second Schedule to these Regulations.

4. Valuation of trading stock

- (1) For the purposes of section 13 of the Act, the value of trading stock to be taken into account shall, subject to paragraphs (2) and (3), be determined in accordance with the International Accounting Standard 2 (IAS2) on Inventories.^{6*}
- (2) The LIFO formula shall not be used to assign costs to stocks and work in progress.
- (3)
 - (a) Subject to subparagraph (b), a taxpayer who derives income from livestock may, with the approval of the Director-General, adopt a standard value in respect of that livestock or in respect of any class of that livestock.
 - (b) A taxpayer may, with the approval of the Director-General, adopt, or the Director-General may require the adoption of a different standard value instead of the standard value adopted in accordance with subparagraph (a).
 - (c) Any adoption of a standard value and any alteration in a standard value, shall first take effect at the end of the income year or other period to which any return of income relates.
- (4) In this regulation -

“LIFO formula” has the same meaning as in the International Accounting Standard 2 (IAS2) on Inventories;^{7*}

“standard value” means -

- (a) in respect of cattle, the market value less 40 per cent thereof; and
- (b) in respect of other livestock, the market value less 25 per cent thereof.

5. Approval of superannuation funds

- (1) For the purposes of section 22(1)(a) of the Act an application for the approval of a fund or scheme shall-
 - (a) be made in writing to the Director-General by an employer at least 3 months before the end of the first year for which approval is required;
 - (b) be supported by-
 - (i) a copy of the instrument establishing the fund or scheme and a copy of the rules of the fund or scheme, duly certified; and
 - (ii) in the case of a fund or scheme registered under the Employees Superannuation Fund Act, a certified copy of the certificate of registration.^{8*}
- (2) No fund or scheme shall be approved by the Director-General as a superannuation fund unless -
 - (a) the fund or scheme has been established by a person resident in Mauritius or by a non-resident carrying on business in Mauritius;
 - (b) the contributions made to the fund or scheme are, subject to paragraph (2)(c)(xvii) and (2)(c)(xviii),^{9*} irrevocably credited to that fund or scheme; and
 - (c) he is satisfied that-
 - (i) the fund or scheme is a bona fide fund or scheme which has for its sole purpose the provision of pensions and lump sum payments on retirement or on cessation of business, benefits on permanent disablement and death benefits-
 - (A) for employees having completed at least 10 years' service at the time of their retirement being not earlier than the appropriate retiring age,
 - (B) for the surviving spouse, children, dependants or personal representative of an employee or former employee, on his death; or^{10*}
 - (C) for employees falling under subparagraphs (xvii) and (xviii);^{11*}

- (ii) the fund or scheme is recognised by the employees to whom it relates and every employee who is, or has a right to be, a member of the fund or scheme has been given written particulars of all essential features of the scheme;
- (iii) the employer is a contributor to the fund or scheme and his contribution is proper and necessary;
- (iv) any contribution by an employee is reasonable;
- (v) the nature of the benefits afforded by the fund or scheme is the same in relation to all the persons to whom the fund or scheme relates;
- (vi) the annual pension provided for an employee is a pension on retirement at appropriate retiring age and does not exceed two-thirds of his final pensionable emoluments without taking into account any pension payable under the National Pensions Fund;
- (vii) a lump sum payment shall not be made except on commutation of a portion not exceeding one-fourth of the annual pension payable under sub-paragraph (c)(vi) and shall not exceed twelve and half times the portion of the annual pension so commuted;
- (viii) the permanent disablement and death benefits in respect of each employee do not exceed twice his final pensionable emoluments;
- (ix) the annual pension provided for the surviving spouse and children and other dependants of an employee does not exceed-
 - (A) in the case of a surviving spouse, one-third;
 - (B) in the case of the children and other dependants, jointly-
 - (I) where a pension is also provided for the surviving spouse, one-sixth;
 - (II) in any other case, one-third, of the pension which would be payable to the employee under subparagraph (c)(vi);
- (x) a director of a company is admitted to the fund or scheme only if he is in full-time employment in the business of the employer;
- (xi) the rights of an employee and of the surviving spouse, children and dependants to receive the pension and lump sum payment on retirement or benefit on permanent disablement or death benefit have been fully secured;

- (xii) the eligibility and withdrawal provisions are reasonable;
- (xiii) no employee is admitted to the fund or scheme, where at the appropriate retiring age, he will not have completed ten years' service in terms of the fund or scheme;
- (xiv) the powers of investment of the money in the fund or scheme are reasonable;
- (xv) any provision for variation of the terms of the instrument establishing the fund or scheme is reasonable and any variation of the rules of the fund or scheme is subject to the prior approval of the Director-General; and
- (xvi) where the pension determined in accordance with subparagraph (c)(vi) or (c)(ix) is subsequently increased, the increase -
 - (A) does not exceed an amount which an employee earning a basic wage or salary equal to that pension would have been entitled to by way of additional remuneration under the Additional Remuneration Act 1985, or any Additional Remuneration Act enacted thereafter;^{12*}[or]
 - (B) does not exceed^{13*} 3 per cent of the annual pension of an immediately preceding year; or^{14*}
 - (C) does not exceed an amount which is arrived at by multiplying the annual pension of an immediately preceding year by the inflation rate for that preceding year;^{15*}
- (xvii)^{16*} where an employee leaves the service of his employer before reaching the appropriate retiring age but after having completed at least 2 years' service, the actuarial value of the accrued retirement benefits of the employee shall, at the option of the employee-
 - (i) be transferred to the superannuation fund established by his new employer; or
 - (ii) be retained in the superannuation fund of the employer for the payment of a pension to him upon reaching the appropriate retiring age; or
 - (iii) be transferred to a personal pension scheme approved by the Director-General;
- (xviii)^{17*} where an employee leaves the service of his employer before completing 2 years' service, he shall be entitled to a refund of his accumulated contributions, provided that the related actuarial value of the accrued retirement benefits of the employee from a previous employment has not been transferred to the superannuation fund established by his new employer.^{18*}

- (3) Where a fund or scheme has been approved by the Director-General, no variation of the terms of the instrument establishing the fund or scheme or the rules of the fund or scheme, shall have effect for the purposes of this regulation-
 - (a) until the variation has been approved by the Director-General;
 - (b) on a date preceding the day on which it is approved by the Director-General.
- (4) An application for the approval of a variation under paragraph (3) shall be in writing and be supported by a certified copy of the proposed variation.
- (5) For the purposes of approving a fund or scheme, or a variation under paragraph (3), the Director-General may require such other information or written undertaking which he considers necessary.
- (6) Where a fund or scheme, or a variation under paragraph (3), is approved by the Director-General, the approval shall be communicated in writing to the employer.
- (7) The approval of a fund or scheme shall have effect from its commencement date or on a later date as may be determined by the Director-General and shall continue to have effect until the approval is revoked.
- (8) In this regulation-

17. Ascertainment of the net income of an insurance company

- (1) Where a company specified under section 50 (1) of the Act carries on life insurance business in conjunction with insurance business of any other class, the life insurance business shall, for the purposes of the Act, be treated as a separate business from any other class of business carried on by the company.
- (2) The net income of an insurance company conducting any insurance business, other than that relating to life insurance, in any income year, shall be calculated by -
 - (a) taking the gross premiums and interest and other income derived by the company from that business in that income year less any such premium -
 - (i) returned to an insured; and
 - (ii) paid on re-insurance;
 - (b) deducting from the amount obtained under sub-paragraph (a) a reserve for unexpired risks outstanding at the end of that income year in respect of that business;

- (c) adding to the amount obtained under sub-paragraph (b) a reserve for unexpired risks outstanding at the commencement of that income year; and
 - (d) deducting from the amount calculated under sub-paragraph (c) -
 - (i) the actual losses of the company less any amount recovered under re-insurance in respect of loss; and
 - (ii) all allowable deductions.
- (3) The reserve specified in paragraphs (2) (b) and (c) shall be calculated at the percentage adopted by the insurance company in relation to its operation as a whole, and that percentage shall be the same whether the unexpired risks for which the reserve is created are outstanding at the commencement or at the end of an income year.
- (4) Where the insurance company is a non-resident company it shall be entitled to claim -
- (a) any agency fees incurred in Mauritius; and
 - (b) a fair proportion of the expenses of the head office of the company.
- (5) Subject to regulation 23N, the net income of an insurance company which carries on life insurance business in any income year shall be the difference between^{38*}
- (a) the income from investment held by the company in connection with its life insurance business but excluding that attributable to the general annuity business and pension business in that income year; and
 - (b) the sum of -
 - (i) all management expenses incurred and all commissions paid by the company; and
 - (ii) all allowable deductions.
- (6) Where an insurance company which carries on life insurance business receives premiums outside Mauritius, the net income of the company shall be the difference between -
- (a) that part of the total investment income of the company which bears the same proportion to the total investment income as the premiums received in Mauritius bear to the total premiums received by the company; and

- (b) in the case of a resident company, the sum of -
 - (i) all management expenses incurred and all commissions paid by the company; and
 - (ii) all allowable deductions;
 - (c) in the case of a non-resident company, the sum of -
 - (i) all management expenses and commissions paid in Mauritius;
 - (ii) all allowable deductions;
 - (iii) any agency expenses incurred in Mauritius;
 - (iv) a fair proportion of the expenses of the head office of the company.

- (a) where the company is resident in Mauritius, the difference between the gross income derived by the company from Mauritius or elsewhere and the allowable deductions;
- (b) where the company is not resident in Mauritius, determined in accordance with the following formula -

$$\frac{a}{g} \times p$$

- a = amount payable in respect of carriage of passenger, cargo or mail embarked or shipped in Mauritius and any other gross income derived from Mauritius;
- g = total gross income as certified by the authority of the country in which the effective management of the business is situated;
- p = total gains or profits of the company.

19. Losses

- (1) Any relief under section 20(1)(b) or 59(b) of the Act shall be given so far as possible from the first succeeding year, and so far as it cannot then be given, shall be given from the next succeeding year, and so on.^{39*}
- (2) Subject to section 20(2) or 59(c) of the Act, any loss unrelieved within 5 income years after the income year in which it was incurred, shall be deemed to have lapsed.^{40*}
- (3) For the purposes of this regulation, the amount of loss available for the carry forward as at 30 June 2006 shall be deemed to have been incurred in the income year ended 30 June 2006 and that amount shall be available for set off against the net income derived by the person in the following 5 income years.

- (4) Any amount of loss unrelieved under paragraph (3) shall lapse.
- (5) For the purposes of section 59(b) of the Act, where a company claims to carry forward to an income year any loss incurred by it in any former income year, the claim shall not be allowed unless the Director-General is satisfied that ^{-41*}
- (a) at the end of each of those income years not less than 50 per cent in nominal value of the allotted shares in the company was held by or on behalf of the same persons; and
 - (b) where the company has paid-up capital at the end of each of those income years, not less than 50 per cent of the paid-up capital at the end of each of those income years was held by or on behalf of the same persons.
- (6) For the purposes of this regulation -
- (a) shares in one company held by or on behalf of another company shall be deemed to be held by the shareholders in the last-mentioned company;
 - (b) shares held by or on behalf of the estate of a deceased shareholder, or by or on behalf of the person entitled to those shares as beneficiary under the will or intestacy of a deceased shareholder, shall be deemed to be held by that deceased shareholder;
 - (c) where a company claims to carry forward a loss incurred by it in any former income year to any other income year, and the Director-General is of the opinion that, at any time during the period commencing on the first day of the former income year and ending with the end of the other income year -
 - (i) any shares in that company, being shares held by or on behalf of the same person at the end of both of those income years, have been subject to any transaction, or series of related or connected transactions; or
 - (ii) any shares so held have had any rights attaching to them extinguished or altered, directly or indirectly, by any means in either case for the purpose, or for purposes including the purpose, of enabling the company to meet the requirements of subparagraph (a) or (b), the Director-General may deem those shares not to be held by or on behalf of the same person at the end of each of those income years.

- (a) For the purposes of section 94 of the Act, every person who becomes an employer shall, within 14 days of his becoming an employer, register with the Director-General as an employer, by submitting an Employer Registration Form duly filled in by him.

- (b) The Employer Registration Form shall be in a form approved by the Director-General.
- (c) Where, after the registration of an employer under the Act, there is a change in any of the particulars provided by him in the Employer Registration Form other than a change in the number of employees, he shall, within 14 days of the occurrence of the change, notify the Director-General in writing of the change.
- (d) Where a person ceases to be an employer, he shall, within 7 days, give written notice to that effect to the Director-General.
- (e)^{50*} Notwithstanding subparagraphs (a) and (b), where a person is registered under the Business Registration Act and qualifies as an employer, the person shall be deemed to have been registered with the Director-General as an employer under this regulation.

(3) Employee Declaration Form

- (a) For the purposes of section 95 of the Act, the Employee Declaration Form shall be -
 - (i) in a form approved by the Director-General; and
 - (ii) submitted by the employee to his employer in respect of every income year after it has been duly filled in.
- (b) Where in any income year, an employee is entitled to another Category of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances for that income year, he may furnish to his employer a fresh Employee Declaration Form claiming therein the new Category of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances to which he is entitled.^{51*}
- (c) Where an employee leaves his employment and takes up another employment, he shall furnish an Employee Declaration Form to his new employer.
- (d) Where an employee has more than one employer at any one time, he shall furnish an Employee Declaration Form to only one of his employers.

(4) Calculation of tax to be withheld^{52*}

- (a) Subject to the other provisions of this paragraph, where an employee submits an Employee Declaration Form in respect of an income year, the employer shall, for the purposes of calculating the monthly amount of the income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances to be allowed, divide the amount of the income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances claimed in the Employee Declaration Form by 13.

- (b) Where an employee who takes up his first employment in an income year submits his Employee Declaration Form to his employer at any time during the course of that income year, the employer shall, for the purposes of calculating the monthly amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances to be allowed, divide the amount of the income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances claimed in the Employee Declaration Form by the number of months remaining in that income year.
- (c) Where an employee who leaves his employment to take up another employment in an income year submits an Employee Declaration Form to his new employer at any time during the course of that income year under paragraph (3)(c), the employer shall, for the purposes of calculating the monthly amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances to be allowed, divide the amount of the income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances claimed in the Employee Declaration Form by 13.
- (d) Where an employee submits in an income year a fresh Employee Declaration Form showing a variance between the amount of the income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances to which he has become entitled under section 27 of the Act and the amount already claimed as income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances under that section, the employer shall, for the purposes of calculating the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances to be allowed for each of the months remaining in the income year, adjust the monthly amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances already claimed by an amount equivalent to the amount of the variance divided by the number of such remaining months.
- (e) For the purposes of section 96(1) of the Act, the amount of income tax to be withheld from the emoluments of an employee in respect of a month shall, subject to paragraph (f), be calculated by applying the following formula^{53*} –

$$TR (EM - ET) - TX$$

where:

TR refers to^{54*} –

- (a) the rate of tax specified in Part I(a) of the First Schedule to the Act where the ACMS of the employee in a month –
 - (i) does not exceed 50,000 rupees;

- (ii) is between 50,001 rupees and 53,846 rupees and the basic salary, including salary compensation, for the month of July of the same year, does not exceed 50,000 rupees;
- (iii) in any other case, the rate of tax specified in Part I(b) of the First Schedule to the Act.

(EM – ET) is the chargeable income where:

EM is the sum of the amount of emoluments for the month in respect of which tax is calculated and the amount of all emoluments taken into account for the previous months in the income year; and

ET is the sum of the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances allowable for the month in respect of which tax is calculated and the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances allowed for the previous months in the income year;

TX refers to the amount of tax already withheld from the emoluments of the previous months in the income year.

ACMS refers to the Average Cumulative Monthly Salary of an employee with respect to a month and shall be calculated by applying the following formula –^{55*}

$EM \div$ the number of months from July of an income year to the month in which tax is calculated.

(ea) Where, in a month, the tax to be withheld under subparagraph (e) exceeds 15 per cent of the emoluments, exclusive of fringe benefits, the amount of tax to be withheld shall be limited to 15 per cent of the emoluments, excluding the fringe benefits.^{56*}

(f)^{57*} (i) Subject to subparagraph (ii), every employer shall, for the purposes of withholding income tax in accordance with section 96 of the Act for the months of July and August in an income year, take into account the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances claimed by the employee in his Employee Declaration Form in respect of the income year preceding that income year.

(ii) Where in any of the months of July and August in an income year, an Employee Declaration Form in respect of that income year is submitted in due time by an employee to his employer, the employer shall, subject to subparagraph (iii), take into account the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances claimed in that Employee Declaration Form.

- (iii) Where an Employee Declaration Form in respect of an income year is submitted under sub-paragraph (ii), the employer shall, for the purposes of calculating the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances to be taken into account for each of the remaining months of that income year, apply the following formula-

$$\frac{p \dots - r \dots}{13 \dots - n \dots}$$

where,

- p is the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances claimed in the Employee Declaration Form for that income year;
- r is the aggregate amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances allowed for the months of July and August in that income year;
- n is 1 (one) where the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances allowed is for the month of July only; or is 2 (two) where the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances allowed is for the months of July and August.

(4A) Calculation of tax to be withheld from end-of-year bonus

- (a) Where an end-of-year bonus prescribed by an enactment is paid to an employee, the bonus shall be treated separately from the other emoluments of the employee as the emoluments of a month for the purposes of calculating the amount of income tax to be withheld from that bonus.
- (b) The amount of income tax to be withheld under subparagraph (a) shall be calculated on a cumulative basis by reference to the chargeable income attributable to the bonus.
- (c) The chargeable income under subparagraph (b) shall be calculated by deducting from the bonus the amount of monthly income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances.^{58*}

(4B) Calculation of tax to be withheld for the income year ending on 31 December 2009^{59*}

- (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 4(a) and (c), an employer shall, for the purposes of calculating the monthly amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances to be allowed in respect of the income year ending on 31 December 2009, divide the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances claimed in the Employee Declaration Form by 7.

- (b) Notwithstanding the other provisions of paragraph 4, the formula to be applied for the calculation of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances under paragraph 4(f)(iii) in respect of the income year ending on 31 December 2009 shall be as follows:

$$\frac{p - r}{7 - n}$$

where

p is the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances claimed in the Employee Declaration Form for that income year;

r is the aggregate amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances allowed for the months of July and August 2009;

n is 1 (one) where the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances allowed is for the month of July 2009 only; or is 2 (two) where the amount of income exemption threshold or reliefs and allowances allowed is for the months of July and August 2009.

(4C) Solidarity Levy^{60*}

- (a) Subject to subparagraph (b), for the purpose of section 16C and 96(1) of the Act, where an employee has submitted an EDF, the amount of solidarity levy to be withheld from the emoluments of that employee in respect of a month shall be calculated by applying the following formula –

$$SLR [(EM - ET) - SLET] - SL$$

where:

SLR refers to the rate of tax specified in section 16C(2) of the Act;

[(EM - ET) - SLET] is the taxable leviable income where –

- EM is the sum of the amount of emoluments for the month and the amount of all emoluments taken into account for the previous months in the income year but excludes any lump sum payable by way of commutation of pension or of death gratuity by virtue of any enactment or from a Superannuation Fund as provided in section 16B(d) of the Act;
- ET is the sum of the amount of income exemption threshold allowable for the month in respect of which PAYE is calculated and the amount of income exemption threshold allowed for the previous months in the income year;
- SLET is the sum of the amount of solidarity levy exemption threshold allowable for the month in respect of which solidarity levy is calculated and the amount of solidarity levy exemption threshold allowed for the previous months in the income year;
- SL refers to the amount of solidarity levy already withheld from the emoluments of the previous months in the income year.
- (b) The solidarity levy calculated on the taxable leviable income in a month shall not exceed 10 per cent of the sum of –
- (i) the amount of emoluments for the month excluding any lump sum specified in the definition of “leviable income” as provided in section 16B(d) of the Act; and
 - (ii) the amount of all emoluments taken into account for the previous months in the income year excluding any lump sum specified in the definition of “leviable income” as provided in section 16B(d) of the Act.
- (c) The amount of solidarity levy to be withheld in a month shall not exceed 15 per cent of the emoluments payable in that month, excluding any lump sum specified in the definition of “leviable income” as provided in section 16B(d) of the Act.
- (d) For calculating the taxable leviable income, an employee shall be allowed a monthly solidarity levy exemption threshold (SLET) of one thirteenth of 3 million rupees per month.
- (e) Where an end-of-year bonus prescribed by an enactment is paid to an employee, the bonus shall be treated separately as emoluments for an additional pay period and the other provisions of this paragraph shall apply for calculating the amount of solidarity levy to be withheld from that bonus.
- (f) Where an employee is chargeable to solidarity levy for the first time in the course of an income year, the employer shall, for the purpose of calculating the monthly solidarity levy exemption threshold to be allowed, allow the employee, for the first month, a cumulated solidarity levy exemption threshold of one thirteenth of 3 million rupees for that month and for every preceding month in the income year.

- (g) Where, in an income year, an employee chargeable to solidarity levy leaves his employment to take up another employment, the new employer shall, for the purposes of calculating the monthly solidarity levy, allow the employee, for every pay periods remaining in the income year, a monthly solidarity levy exemption threshold of one thirteenth of 3 million rupees.

(5) Payment of tax by employer and submission of monthly return ^{61*}

3 GN 128/2006 – regulation 3 revoked and replaced effective as from income year commencing on 1 July 2006.

3. Exempt income

(1) Retiring allowance⁽¹⁾

The exemption under item 5 of Part II of the Second Schedule to the Act shall not apply to a payment by way of retiring allowance, which is made –

- (a) to a person who is paid as commutation of pension, a lump sum which is exempt under item 6 of Part II of the Second Schedule to the Act;
- (b)
 - (i) to a relative of the employer;
 - (ii) where the employer is a société, to an associate or a relative of an associate; or
 - (iii) where the employer is a company, to a shareholder or a relative of a shareholder,except to the extent that the Commissioner determines that the payment would be reasonable if the taxpayer were not a person specified under this subparagraph.

(1) Paragraph (1) deleted and replaced by FA 2003. Effective as from 1 July 2003. Previous paragraph (1) was –

(1) Retiring allowance

- (a) The exemption under item 5 of Part II of the Second Schedule to the Act shall not apply to a payment by way of retiring allowance which is made -
 - (i) to a relative of the employer;
 - (ii) where the employer is a société, to an associate or a relative of an associate; or
 - (iii) where the employer is a company, to a shareholder or a relative of a shareholder, except to the extent that the Commissioner determines that the payment would be reasonable if the taxpayer were not a person specified under this subparagraph.
- (b) Where any payment by way of retiring allowance is made to a person, and a further payment of a retiring allowance is made to him on the occasion of his retirement from any subsequent employment after completing not less than 10 years in that employment, the period of earlier employment and any emoluments paid in respect of that period before the date of his earlier retirement shall be disregarded in calculating the specified sum in relation to his subsequent retirement.

(2) ⁽²⁾

(2) Paragraph (2) deleted by GN 44 of 2000. Effective on 31.3.2000

(2) Interest payable on bonds issued by prescribed bodies

- (a) The interest payable on bonds issued by statutory bodies and bodies corporate specified in the First Schedule to these regulations shall be exempt from income tax, provided that the bonds are offered to the public through a prospectus.
- (b) For the purposes of subparagraph (a), "bond" includes debenture.

(3) Income derived from a sugar growing unit

The net income derived from a sugar growing unit in respect of the first 60 tonnes⁽³⁾ of sugar accruing shall be exempt from income tax subject to the following conditions –

- (a) the exemption shall not apply where a person deriving income from a sugar growing unit subdivides that sugar growing unit into 2 or more lots and the total insurable sugar as determined by the Sugar Insurance Fund for the income year, or for any of the three income years preceding the income year, in which the subdivision was made, was more than 70 tonnes,⁽¹⁾ unless the Commissioner is of the opinion that the purpose or any of the purposes of the subdivision was not the avoidance of payment of income tax;
- (b) for the purposes of this paragraph -
- (i) “Sugar Insurance Fund” means the Sugar Insurance Fund established under the Sugar Insurance Fund Act;
- (ii) the person claiming the exemption shall furnish to the Commissioner, within a specified delay, such information as the Commissioner may require;
- (iii) “sugar growing unit” means the total area of land under cane cultivation belonging to or cultivated by the taxpayer as an individual or as a company or as an associate in a société⁽²⁾, otherwise than under a lease which the Commissioner determines or has determined, as the case may be, to have had no effect for the purposes of the Act.
- (4) Income derived from a Land Area Management Unit
- (a) 50 per cent of the incremental net income obtained through an increase in output from a sugar growing unit after at least 50 per cent of the land cultivated in cane are incorporated in one or more Land Area Management Units shall be exempt from income tax subject to the following conditions -
- (i) the incremental output shall be determined by the Sugar Insurance Fund with respect to a figure calculated by it on the basis of past performance relating to a period of not more than 12 years before the incorporation referred to in this subparagraph in a manner consonant with the determination of an insurable sugar;
- (ii) the exemption referred to in this subparagraph -
- (A) shall be in addition to that granted under paragraph (3);
- (B) shall not apply where a sugar growing unit is subdivided into 2 or more lots and the total insurable sugar as determined by the Sugar Insurance Fund for the income year, or for any of the three income years preceding the income year, in which the subdivision was made, was more than 100 tonnes, unless the Commissioner is of the opinion that the purpose or any of the purposes of the subdivision was not the avoidance of payment of income tax.
- (b) For the purposes of this paragraph -
- (i) “sugar growing unit” has the same meaning as in paragraph (3)(b)(iii) and shall have a total insurable sugar as determined by the Sugar Insurance Fund less than or equal to 100 tonnes at the time when 50 per cent of the land cultivated in cane was incorporated in one or more Land Area Management Units;
